CONVICTION IN DETROIT TRIAL NOT EXPECTED

Chief of Police Jones Returns from Convention at Windsor, Ontario—Saw Fredericton People.

Chief of Police Nathaniel Jones has returned from Windsor, Ont., where he was attending the annual meeting of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada. Chief Jones visited Detroit, Mich., while away and saw a number of Fredericton men who are employed there. In Windsor he saw Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Finnemore of Fredericton. Mr Finnemore is engaged with the Entomological Survey in that section.

Woman Was on Trial.

Chief Jones was informed while in Detroit that the negress who shot Chester Monahan of this city in Detroit on May 23rd his death resulting the next day, as standing trial there for musder. It was not anticipated that she would be convicted how ever on account of difficulty in proving the crime.

The Chief saw both William Carten and George Crowley of this city who went to Detroit early in May. Both are occupying good positions.

Halted by Caterpillars.

Chief Jones was on the C. N. R. express which was halted on the main line of the C. N. R. between Bathurst and Newcastle Saturday afternoon by caterpillars. The train was delayed for two hours by the insects which made the rails so greasy that the wheels failed to turn.

CITY AFFAIRS

S. A. Meetings.

For the last few Sunday afternoons the Salvation Army have held meetings in Wilmot Park which have attracted a large number of people.

Not Enough Rain.

Fredericton received a little rain this morning but not enough to do any good to the gardens. The rain began as if it meant it but a few showers was the best that it could do Rain is urgently needed.

Cars in Collision.

Automobiles owned by Chief Rutter of this city and Hazen Everett of Kingsclear collided near the corner of York and Queen streets on Saturday. Fortunately there was no damage.

Retreat at Rothesay.

Bishop Roper of Ottawa will conduct the retreat for the clergy of the Diocese of Fredericton this week at the Rothesay College school. The retreat commences on Tuesday evening and concludes on Friday morning.

Some Big Ones.

The trout fishing has been very good in Harvey Lake this season and some big fish have been taken ranging in weight from two to four pounds. Trout fishing starts at Harvey Lake as soon as the ice breaks up at the latter part of April.

St. John The Baptist Day.

Sunday, June 24th, was the Day of St. John the Baptist, It is of particular significance among members of the Masonic Order. The St. John River was discovered by Samuel de Champlain on St. John the Baptist Day, 1604 and received its name on that account.

Drowning Accident.

George Manning, the fifteen year old son of Harry Manning of Sussex was drowned while bathing in the Kennebeccasis River at Sussex, on Sunday. He was unable to swim and a companion had promised to take him across the river on his back While standing on a rock at the water's edge both sliped and fell into twelve feet of water. Efforts to get Manning to the shore proved of no avail and he was drowned. The unfortunate boy had just written the High School Entrance examinations.

AMERICAN HAD NARROW ESCAPE YESTERDAY

An American car had a narrow escape on Sunday at Barker's Point, from running into the Nashwaak River where the bridge was carried out early in May. The driver was coming at high speed and did not notice that there was a detour. He crashed through a light railing across the approach to the wrecked bridge and stopped his car only after the front wheels had gone over the outer edge of the approach.

A heavier railing has been constructed to guard the approach. The bridge of the Fredericton & Grand Lake Railway is being used for highway purposes a detour being constructed and a flooring laid. The convenience to the public is highly appreciated. Only reckless driving makes the place dangerous.

Teachers Resigns.

Campbellton Graphic: The resignation of Miss M. E. Farrell, teacher on the Dalhousie Superior school staff came as a distinct surprise and dissapointment to the citizens of Dalhousie. During her five years in the district, Miss Farrell has maintained a high standard of service and has assumed a place among the best teachers in the province. The ratepayers are unanimous in their praise of Miss Farrell's ability and devotion to her work. While in the town Miss Farell preferred to attach herself to the poor and lowly, rather than to seek the socity of the more fortunate in many instances gratitiously relieving the needs of her poor little pupils irrespective of race creed.

Spoke On Church Union.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Sutherland spoke at both services at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church yesterday on what transpired at the General Assembly at Port Arthur, Ont. At the evening service he spoke on Church Union. He said before Union was considered each Presbyterian Congregation was to vote whether to go in or remain out of union. He urged the congregation of St. Pauls Churih to remain united and for the minority to fall in with the majority whether the vote be for or against Union.

MILITIA LEAVE FOR NINE DAYS' CAMP AT SUSSEX

B Squadron, N. B. Dragoons, Away This Morning — Infantry Goes This Evening — Reduced Strength.

The militia from this section of New Brunswick goes into camp at Sussex for nine days' training with units at greatly reduced strength. This morning B Squadron of the New Brunswick Dragoons left by C. N. R. under the command of Major E. J. Lounsbury. The advanced party of the York Regt., also left this morning under the command of Capt. G. A. Good as quarter master and Quartermaster Sergt. Eldon Daggett.

The rest of the York Regt. will leave at 6.30 tonight by C. P. R. under the command of Lt. Col. A. Sterling of this city.

Temporary Reorganization

The reduction in strength in both arms will make temporary reorganization for training necessary. Officers and N. C. O.'s will train in the ranks with ordinary equipment. Each of the four infantry battalions at Sussex probably will be formed into one company and each of the two cavalry regiments will be formed into one squadron.

The York Regt.

The York Regt. is commanded by Lt. Col. A. Sterling of Fredericton with Major M. Buchanan of St. Stephen as second in command. Major Frank Easson is adjutant with Major F. A. Good as assistant adjutant. Capt. H. H. VanWart is signalling officer and Capt. G. A. Good quartermaster.

Officers of the four companies are as follows:

A Company, Major J. S. Scott, Capt. R. H. H. Stewart, Capt. H. F. G. Woodbridge, Lt. J. F. Myshrall, Lt. Charles M. Scott.

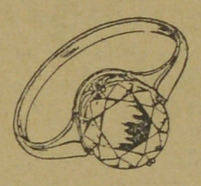

B Company, Major H. Priestman, Capt. A. C. Kelly, Lt. Comeau, Lt. John Yates.

C Company, Major Stewart Ryder, Capt. H. S. Laughlin, Lt. Styles.

D Company, Major H. Ganong, Capt. Stewart.

J. H. H. Nicolls of Ottawa is at the Barker House.
