BROOKLYN MAGNATES NOT TO LEAVE GAME

Ebbets Says He Will Stay with Club During Present Season—McKeever Longer.

New York, May 25—Col. T. L. Huston, who Monday sold his half interest in the New York Yankees Col. Jacob Ruppert will not be able to acquire an interest in the Brooklyn Nationals at least this season.

Col. Huston's retirement from the Yankee ownership aroused immediate reports that he might buy into the Brooklyn club but Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Dodgers and his two partners, Ed and Stephen McKeever today denied that their interests were now for sale.

"There will be positively nothing doing in way of helling my interest in the Brooklyn club until after the 193 season" Mr. Ebbets said. "Because of my health and other considerations I feel that I may not. I have been in baseball all my life and realize fully how hard it will be for me to quit active participation in the game. While I may sell the probabilities are that I will not."

Ed McKeever asserted that "you will see he same old lineup three years from now that you see today—Ebbets and the McKeever" while his brother declared: "I am going to stay in baseball until I die and then leave my interest to my family."

WHEN DOES BRONCHIAL TROUBLE BEGIN TO GET SERIOUS?

First it was a little throat tickle, then a cough which grows severe. This neglected cough travels down the lungs, and it's mighty hard to treat. To treat throat trouble right, use Catarrhose. It heals the sore spots, allays irritation, eases the cough, makes breathing regular, clears out the phlegm and frees the nostrils from crusts and accumulations. You can prevent colds, and keep free from Catarrh and bronchial trouble.

PUZZLE

Would you be happy if I decked you down

Lovely in silks and jewels out of price;

Bringing to you the biggest car in town,

Would you, I wonder, think that I was nice?

If I bought diamonds, emeralds and pearls,

Would you, I wonder, whisper,

"You're so good,

Why did you choose me over other girls?"

Would you? You know darn well, my dear, you would.

UP TO MISCHIEF.

Visitor (admiringly): What a picture of innocence your little one is!

Mother: I hadn't noticed it. Dorothy what have you been doing?

Subtly may deceive you— integrity never will.

To the vulgar eye, few things are wonderful that are not distant.

System Run Down Blood Out of Order

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is, when, as a rule, it is improper circulation of the blood.

All they need is a good tonic to build up the system and put the blood into proper shape.

For this purpose there is nothing on the market today to equal

Burdock Blood Bitters

It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system.

Mrs. H. Poole, Port Dover, Ont., writes: "My system was run down and my blood out of order, and I suffered a great deal from pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. A friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got a bottle and before it was used I found it was doing me good. I kept on until I had taken three, and now I feel like a different woman.

My husband also took it and it has built him up."

FRAZEE SAYS NO SALE OF RED SOX IS MADE

Hermann Also Denies Men in Columbus, O., Have Purchased Boston American Club.

Chicago, May 25—Harry Frazee owner of the Boston Red Sox emphatically denied that he has sold the team to a group of Columbus business men. Frazee admitted however that negotiations for the sale of the Red Sox are "hotter" today than they have been in several years.

"I am honor bound not to divulge a scrap of information regarding the deal" declared Frazee when asked to give the Boston baseball lovers tidings of the contemplated transfer of the team

"The price I set on the team several years ago is the price I am asking today" he continued. "We are a long way from the name on the dotted line because of terms. It is all a matter of getting my figure I shall never cut the figure I have asked for the team a cent."

Frazee conferred with Pres Ban Johnson of the American League head would discuss what developed at the conference.

"The team will pass into other hands before many moons" declared Pres Johnson. "I cannot give you details regarding who the purchasers are. I do know that they are reliable or else I would not be in favor of the sale. The only hitch is that of money. The moment the prospective purchasers meet Mr. Frazee's terms the deal will be made."

When asked to comment upon Mr. Johnson's significant remarks, Pres Frazee replied with a smile "My old friend Mr. Johnson knows a lot about the Red Sox team but I am the man who will sell it."

Mr. Frazee was exceedingly bitter in his criticism about printed reports of the team being sold to three Columbus business men.

"I think it is only fair to me and the rest of the team that sporting editors and baseball writers, should do me the courtesy of asking first if the team has been sold, instead of printing definite announcements that the club has been purchased. The premature reports are a serious handicap" he said.

The group of Columbus business men consisting of E. M. Schoenborn Palmer K. Winslow and Dr. Robert M. Drury who formerly were identified with the Columbus American Association, are known to have conferred with Frazee yesterday. Before departing Dr. Drury remarked to a Chicago friend that the deal was as "good as over" and that more than $1,000,000.

Hermann Adds His Denial

Chicago, May 25—U. J. (Sport) Hermann of Chicago part owner of the Red Sox when seen tonight declared that selling the Red Sox apparently is soon to become a National pastime with baseball experts.

"Make my denial as positive as you can that any deal has been put over for the purchase of the Red Sox" commented Mr. Hermann.

"I hate to take the bread and butter away from a lot of 'hick town baseball experts' but this idea of running a story that the Boston team has been sold is little short of criminal.

"It is common gossip that we have been dickering with a group of Boston men who offered $1,100,000 for the club but that is as far as the deal ever got; $1,250,000 is he price set and not a cent less. We have been confabbing with two sets of promoters who are after the team. As regards the Columbus capitalists acquiring the team that is bunk.

"Baseball conferences with Columbus men are jokes concluded Mr. Hermann who said Frazee was in Chicago on other business.

HONK, HONK,

The boy stood on the burning deck With roaring flames around his feet.

"I'm safer here" he said 'by heck. Than standing on a city street.

Let him who has bestowed a kind ness be silent about it. Let him who has received it tell it abroad.
