POLICEMAN IS CHARGED WITH HOLDUP ON DUTY
 Philadelphia, Dec. 12—Patrolman George Schwartzman was held in $1,500 bail today, charged with holding up and robbing Leo Kahn of $95 in cash on the street.
 Schwartzman, who was said to have been on duty and wearing his uniform at the time, was suspended from the police force pending the outcome of his trial. He denied any knowledge of the holdup.

WHISKERS ARE THREATENING TO MAKE RETURN TO FASHION

(New York Sun.)
 An awful rumor reaches us from London that whiskers are coming in again. Dunderreary whiskers, you know, Piccadilly weepers. Floaters. The Victorian kind. The kind that grandpa used to wear. The kind that Taffy wore in "Trilby." The kind with which Du Maurier's pen peppered the back numbers of Punch.

Side whiskers flanking a shaven chin and long enough to wrap around one's neck—we're threatened with their revival. Let's utter a feeble "Help!"

And yet, after all, if grandpa wore 'em, why not we? Already some of us have thoughtlessly decorated ourselves with sideburns. And those same sideburns, look you, are the insidious what-chacallum, the sneaking cloven hoof, the underhand advance agent of dundrearies.

Also we are warned that mutton chop whiskers are getting ready to burst upon us. The mutton chop cut is more serious than the weeper cut.
 Weepers are for ladykillers. The Victorian beaus used to perfume theirs, and gloss them with pomades. But mutton chops are for solid men of substance, like merchants, lawyers and profiteers, bishops, schoolmasters and senators.

Mutton Chops Growing Fewer.

We in America have always had a few surviving pairs of mutton chop whiskers among us, growing fewer, alas, every year. They have served as a link with the days of old. Chaun-ceey M. Depew sports a pair as imposing as any in town. The late Cornelius N. Bliss fathered another pair equally white and almost equally well known.
 Frequently it happens that mutton chops were, so to speak reformed dun-drearies. In youth they had flapped gallantly in the breeze, but in mature life they settled down sedately, abandoned all flowery frivolities and clung in close cropped sobriety to the cheeks of their wearers.

The area of cheek embraced by a mutton chop whisker might be the same as that crowned by a dundreary or it might be a trifle smaller, according to taste. The fundamental difference was solely a question of length. Mutton chops were like moss, dundrearies like clover.

TELLS HOW CATARRH IS DESTROYED QUICKLY.

Catarrh sufferers, meaning those with colds, sore throat, bronchial trouble, etc., can all be fixed up right at home by inhaling "Catarrhozone." In using Catarrhozone you don't take medicine into the stomach—you just breathe a healing piney vapor direct to the lungs and air passages. The purest balsams and the greatest antisep-tics are thus sent to every spot where catarrhal trouble exists—germs are killed, foul secretions are destroyed.
 Try Catarrhozone thousands prove this every day. Sold everywhere, two months treatment one dollar, smaller size 50c at all dealers or the Catarrho-zone Co., Montreal, P. Q.

According to the latest bulletin from Pall Mall, the same distinction is manifesting itself in the new whisker crop. Staid and elderly clubmen are running to mutton chops, while the gay young sparks are letting their late sideburns effloresce into the most willowly of weepers.

As a rule mutton chops are worn with a shaven upper lip, whereas dun-drearies go best in combination with a flowing mustache. But exceptions may be noted in both directions.
 A droopy pair of weepers without a mustache impart an air of elegant seriousness suitable to a fashionable curate, something exclusive in the undertaking line or a softfooted floor-walker in the silks.

Mutton chops in combination with a mustache on the other hand, give an expression of ferocity and determination highly suitable to those engaged in the pursuit of criminals.
 Hugo described his formidable Inspecteur Javert as thus hirsutely decorated, and, if memory serve, a real life protagonist of the same alarming style was the late Anthony Comstock, Mr. Sumner's predecessor, the original holy terror of authors and publishers, the censor who saw indecency in "September Morn."

Whiskers Broad Term in America.

The word "whiskers" is used somewhat differently on either side of the Atlantic. Whereas we apply it to any pattern of hairy appendage on either cheeks or chin, the English use it only for the herbage of the cheeks, and when they say that a man wears whiskers they imply that he shaves his chin. With them the word is always plural and the American locution "chin whisker" would be impossible.

Readers of "Vanity Fair" will recall the adoration that the gentle Amelia lavished upon George Osborn's glorious whiskers. And as that was at least the time of Waterloo it is clear that the whiskers craze antedated the Victorian era. They enjoyed a long run of fashion, probably seventy or eighty years, coming down well into the lives of our own older generation.
 When, a few years ago, E. H. Sothern staged a revival of the play that made his father's reputation, and him self played Lord Dundreary, many dear old ladies and gentlemen of this town renewed their youth in witnessing the quaint performance. Perhaps they will be pleased to see their grandsons raising gallant crops of dundrearies.

LOVE BUG CURE IS A FAILURE

New York, Dec. 10—Miss Camille Marie Lucia, young and attractive scientist is assuring her friends today that there is on toxin to prevent love. She had thought she had discovered and so announced. That as just a year ago.

She was then a pharmacologist and bacteriologist of the New York Ophthalmic Hospital. She told Dr. Donald Van Nostrand, interne of her discovery.

But Dr. Van Nostrand thought her wrong. He at once set out to disprove her theory. It took him three months.
 In that time Miss Lucia, under treatment of Dr. Van Nostrand found a positive reaction to her analytical tests.

The result of his treatment and research work was published in the form of an announcement of his engagement to Miss Lucia.

In her home at 759 Woodward avenue Miss Lucia surrounded by sparkling silver wedding presents, said: "I was wrong. There is no such thing as immunity from the love bug."

ENVY.

Anywhere we may be happy If we keep our eyes to home And don't look around in envy And don't wish abroad to roam.

If we allow old Envy to Spring up in our breasts alive He will soon grow to a monster For on little does he thrive.
