WORDS OF THE PREMIER MADE DEEP IMPRESSION

(St. John Globe.)

Premier Veniot, in the admirable address delivered at the University closing, advised the graduates to remember that it is a duty to serve, and that the highest and best service will be in promoting the most cordial relations between the two great races that comprise our population. The words the Premier addressed to a particular group of young men should be thoughtfully taken to heart by all men, young and old. His reminder to the young men about to take up the serious tasks of life that there will someday come the call of patriotism is a call which it is not right to put aside merely because personal considerations or business interests dictate a different course. Truly did the Premier say that "good citizenship does not consist in obeying the laws of the country, and in striving to attain personal gain or success." The country must be governed well, and with the most cordial relations between the two races as the supreme aim, if the educated men, the successful men, put their brains and their practical knowledge at the service of the country. There are many opportunities for service in the municipal councils, in the legislative halls at Fredericton, and at Ottawa. While party government is and probably will remain, the most satisfactory form of government, party government itself will be just what the representative men make it. As Premier Veniot said, "more than ever before in its history, New Brunswick needs its public life men of stern qualities, men of deep thought, of broad views and far-reaching vision," and the thought of doing everything possible for the progress and prosperity of our country should occupy a considerable portion of the life of every true patriot." Premier Veniot's words must have made a deep impression on the young men who heard his call to patriotism and many outside the college halls must have been brought to think more seriously of the obligations and responsibilities of citizenship. The opportunity of public service does not come to all, but there are few who cannot find in everyday life many opportunities to help promote that better understanding between English and French Canada which is the very foundation stone of a greater and a more contented Canada.

CORNS DROP OUT IN HOT WATER

Pain Disappears Instantly

It's very easy to take out a sore corn by the "Putnam" method. You take a special foot bath which is described in the directions that go with the package. Apply a few drops of Putnam's Corn Extractor, and out comes the corn, roots and all. There is no pain, not even soreness; the thick tissue is softened, and healing "Putnam's" goes to the heart of the corn. Success guaranteed. 25c. at all dealers.
