TUNIC FROCKS.

To dwell on the frivolities of the mode this season to follow the intricacies of its minor features is to enter a labyrinth artful in its devices and bright with colorful fabrics. Apparently simple, every frock or coat has some clever feature all its own. The fabrics are generally unusual and there are more with strange weaves and textures than have been seen for several spring openings. In the strict sense of the word, neither fabrics nor frocks can be described as simple when one considers the amazing care and ingenuity that have gone into their makeup.

Frivolous some if those touches and additions to the new chemise frock may seem and the fabrics may appear not too extraordinary, stopping this side of the extreme but in comes the art that is genuine. There will be found in the new collections very few dresses which are not wearable and very few fabrics which are not practical. Amusing and entertaining without being inconsequential is the demand made of the designers and the order has been filled satisfactorily.

Tunic frocks which increase apace represent one form of the unusual. Cut on the lines of a mandarin coat the tunic has just about the amount of flare of its oriental model and is about knee length, its especial claim to originality being in the devices to bring the fullness of the skirt portion to the center of the front. One of these models by Bernard is cut with a panel in the center of the front curving way at the hip line allowing a gathering of the material at the sides.

Another model has utilized the deep U shaped inset vest to hold a gathered portion in the center. The material of this dress is a silk crepe coin dotted in a darker shade. It is a model for general country wear as the vest of sheer white material has a broad collar opening V shaped and very tiny sleeves are used instead of the long ones intended for town.

FOR ST. VALENTINE'S

Sift together five cups of pastry flour, one cup of graham flour one teaspoon salt and two level table-spoons of baking powder (six tea-spoons equal two tablespoons) and one cup of granulated sugar; add one half cup each of chopped crystallized or candied orange peel and nut meats; mix thoroughly. Beat one egg until thick and lemon-tinted add to one cup of milk and stir into the flour mixture. Turn into well-buttered brick-shaped bread pan and bake forty-five minutes in a moderate oven. When cold, cut in thin slices and shape with a heart cookie cutter. Spread half the hearts with the following mixture and cover with remaining hearts. Garnish each sandwich with tiny hearts, cut from pimientos, using small heart-shaped vegetable cutter for this purpose. Serve at a party or tea, St. Valentine's day.

Filling for Sandwiches.

Cream two tablespoons of butter with two cream cheeses. When thoroughly blended add one cup of maraschino cherries, cut very fine. If necessary moisten the mixture with a little heavy cream of mayonnaise dressing E. O. H.

FIVE YEARS' AGONY ENDED

When He Took "Fruit-a-tives" For Rheumatism

The Medicine Made From Fruit

There can be no doubt that "Fruit-a-tives" is the long sought remedy for Rheumatism and Lumbago. From all over Canada come letters testifying to this fact.

Mr. John E. Guilderson of Parrsboro, N.S. writes: "I suffered badly with Rheumatism for five years—tried different medicines—was treated by doctors in Amherst—and here at home—but the Rheumatism came back."

In 1916, I saw an advertisement for "Fruit-a-tives" and took a box and got relief, so I took them for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since". 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

CLAIM MONEY PASSED DURING WORLD'S SERIES

Milwaukee, Feb. 11—Efforts of the Chicago American League Club to show that Joe Jackson received $5000 for his share of the 1919 world series after the fourth game of the series and not after the final game, marked the session of Jackson's $18,500 suit for back salary.

Jackson claims the money was received after the series, whereas it is claimed he testified in a former case that it was paid him in the earlier days of the series. Defence counsel sought to establish that the money which Jackson claims was tendered for the unwarranted use of his name with gamblers in the series, was paid before the completion of the series, thus tending to show culpability.
