

The Doctor Knows

Doctors who know Minard's by the work it does are unhesitating in their praise of its healing and soothing qualities.

Dr. Jos. Aug. Sirois, of St. Isidore, Que., writes:—
"I have frequently used Minard's Liniment and also prescribe it for my patients always with the most gratifying results, and I consider it the best all-round Liniment."
C. A. King, M.D. also recommends Minard's in the following words:—
"I have used Minard's Liniment myself as well as prescribed it in my practice when a liniment was required, and have never failed to get the desired effect."

AMERICANS HAVE BIG BEER THIRST AT SEA

London, June 30—It was admitted in shipping quarters today that the round-trip alcoholic refreshment on many Atlantic liners based on the average consumption given by a number of passengers proved inadequate when the actual test took place and that he stocks on some have been increased at least 25 per cent.

This was particularly true of beer. The biggest liners carry on an average 80,000 bottles of beer for the round trip. Smaller vessels take from 45,000 to 60,000. The beer thirst of some American tourists on several ships made such a heavy drain on supplies that ships arrived here from recent voyages almost dry as far as this beverage was concerned.

This is not regarded as phenomenal in view of the fact that good beer is at a premium in many parts of America, whereas there is plenty of spirituous liquor in all qualities, including bootleg. It has been found in a number of London hotels that the American guests show an inordinate desire for beer.

It was found on more than one ship that the whiskey stores were more than ample. The large liners generally carry 4,000 bottles for the round trip. The run on champagne, like that on beer, has been very heavy. It is seldom that less than 3,500 quarts is carried on big ships.

Every dog has his day, but he would have more fun at night when the cats are abroad.

A Severe Attack of Heart Trouble WAS RELIEVED BY MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills

Mr. S. E. Barnes, Athens, Ont., writes: "Four years ago I had a very severe attack of heart trouble. I consulted my doctor; he treated me for some time, but I only seemed to be getting worse. I finally went to our druggist and purchased three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and derived immediate relief from their use, and I can truthfully say they are a wonderful medicine. I always keep a box on hand, and if I feel out of sorts I take a few pills and feel all right again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LADY CUSTOMER DARED GUNMEN TO SHOOT HER IN A HOLDUP

New York, June 28—While four men submitted unresistingly to a holdup in I. M. Marks drug store, 122d street and Broadway, early today, a woman customer refused to be frightened and dared the gunmen to shoot her. Her nerve saved two diamond rings which she concealed in her dress.

Mrs. G. C. Moorehardt and her husband, members of the faculty of Teachers College, Columbia University, who live at 501 West 121st street dropped into Marks' store to make a purchase a few minutes before five young men, armed with pistols entered and ordered: "Hands up!"

Marks, his clerk, Sol Marcus; his son, Edward Marks, and Mr. Moorehardt immediately raised their hands but Mrs. Moorehardt put her hands behind her back, slipped off her rings and tucked them in her waist.

One of the bandits noticed she had not raised her hands.

"Stick 'em up or I'll shoot you," he said, pointing his pistol at her face.

"Go ahead and shoot if you dare," she said still busy with her rings. The gunman didn't shoot, but when Mrs. Moorehardt showed her hands he spied a gold wrist watch that she had forgotten to take off and made her give it to him.

Meantime the robbers got $60 and a gold ring from Marks, a gold watch and chain and $5 from the clerk, $30 and a gold watch from Edward Marks and a gold watch—a family heirloom—from Mrs. Moorehardt. Then they kicked in a glass showcase and took thirty-six dozen gold fountain pens and some other articles.

Shut Victims in Closet

The five victims were then taken into the prescription room and shut in a closet. They heard the gunmen drive away in an automobile.

The police were investigating the robbery when a similar holdup was reported by I. M. Schmidt, a druggist of 1435 Madison avenue. Schmidt said he was locking up for the night about 1.30 a.m. when two men entered, forced him into the back room, and stole $99.48 from the cash register.

BLUNDERS

WHY IS THIS WRONG?

When mail is allowed to accumulate in offices until closing time, it not only places an additional burden on the postal service, but is apt to miss important early afternoon train dispatches. This often causes a whole day's delay in delivery. Mail should be posted as soon as it is ready, and at frequent periods of the day.

Tom—I say old man is your daughter going to practice on the piano this afternoon?

Jim—I believe so.

Tom—Well then I'd like to borrow your lawnmower. I've got to cut the grass sometime anyway.

PUBLIC OPINION

SHOULD A HUSBAND OBJECT TO HIS WIFE GETTING HER HAIR BOBBED?

Editor Daily Mail:

Sir, "If a wife wants to bob her hair, that's her privilege. Of course a husband can express his views about it. That's his privilege (Looking at husband who sits close by.) She might ask him what he thinks about it and then—and then suit herself. Women have their own ideas about their hair and know better what they can do with it than anyone else.
