AMERICAN OLYMPIC TEAM HAS OWN CHEF

Diet Important Matter — Special American Dishes for the Athletes — Nothing Spared to Win.

New York, June 30—The chef is going to play an important part in the attempt of the Olympic athletes to make another clean sweep of the internationals meet at Paris. The trainers have one eye on the athletes and the other on the kitchen stove. The "early to bed, and early to rise" idea has been put into practice on shipboard. The wheat fields of Minnesota have given up their finest grain for the cereals and the deepest and coolest springs in the country have furnished the water. America's finest hens have furnished the three-minute eggs which are served with the breakfast toast. Gastronomically the American Olympic team has great possibilities. All the milk will come from contented cows. No dish will be felt uncooked to see the team through. Expert work by the chefs is calculated to offset any disadvantage the American team may experience by strange climatic conditions. The athletes will not be permitted to trot around Paris sightseeing until after they have done their bit on the cinders.

Should the Americans win, the European countries will surely import a lot of American cooks before the Olympic Games in 1928. They have already adopted training and coaching methods as far as possible, but they overlooked the cooks.

GRILL WOMEN IN BIG MAIL THEFT

Tulsa, Ok., June 30—Postal Inspector George Hill and Tulsa county officers today continued a question two women and three youths arrested here on suspicion that they were implicated in the $2,000,000 mail robbery on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad near Chicago on the night of June 12.

Hill declared that, although he had been unable to obtain any tangible information from the prisoners, four of whom admit their relationship with the Newton brothers, held in Chicago, in connection with the robbery he had received leads that might prove valuable later.

Had Robbery Clippings.

Press Clippings relating the details of the robbery were found in the prisoners' possession, and among them was a picture of Mrs. Louise Brown Newton, wife of Willie Newton, Dorothy E. Wagner, one of the five arrested that the picture was one of her sister. An attempt has been made to identify the Wagner girl as Mrs. Newton.

Mrs. Dollie Oglesby and her three sons, Louis, 21; Cole, 18 and John 17, are the others held. Mrs. Oglesby admits she was a sister of the Newton brothers, but denied any knowledge of the Chicago robbery. None of the party offered any explanation of the 246 $20 bills in their possession.

DYSPEPSIA WAS SO BAD Could Hardly Eat Anything

Mrs. C. Stone, Nanticoke, Ont., writes: "Some time ago I had a very serious attack of dyspepsia, and was also troubled with gas on my stomach. I could hardly eat anything, and very often had pains after meals. I had used different medicines, but they did not seem to do me any good. At last I happened to run on the track of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using it for a short time I felt a lot better. I continued its use until I was completely relieved and now I am ready to recommend it to anyone troubled as I was."

JENNY H. IS FAVORITE FOR WINDSOR EVENT

Won Handily at Avon on Short Ship Circuit — Some Good Trotting Races There.

Avon, Conn., June 29—Followers of the Short Ship Circuit will be fortunate if they witness better racing than two trotting fields put on at Cherry Park the third day.

Several candidates for the $10,000 pacing purse at Windsor this week were counted on to provide the feature of the card, but the sideliners were not up to providing a contest to compare with the six neat battle put on by the four-year-old trotters Doctor White, Worthy Todd and Tobina, or the five-heat affair won by the Boston entry, Eva Frisco, from Ruth Brooke.

The six-mile race went to E. Roland Harriman's Doctor White, splendidly driven by Lyman Brasie.

The early miles of the race were very fast, 2:12½, 2:12½, 2:11¼. Then to save their horses Drusie, Leese and Dickerson did their racing at the end of the last three miles.

Mrs. E. H. Harriman's filly Tobina won the first heat by outtrotting David Shaw through the stretch.

Worthy Peter just managed to finish ahead of the Doctor in the second, failing by inches to repeat in the third. He outtrotted Tobina in the fourth and all but made a dead heat in the fifth against Doctor White. Drusie laid his horse in behind on getting the word in the sixth and by keeping him there until reaching the stretch had foot enough to land.

Eva Frisco, owned by Walter E. Newbert, was the popular choice in the 2:15 trot and made good, cutting her record to 2:11¼. Her margin of advantage in her winning miles was slight and in the two she lost to Ruth Brooke the pair finished like a pole team.

Jenny H. Looked Good.

Aubrey Rodney had a real pacer in Jenny H., and while the representative of the Hedgwood family from St. Stephen, N. B., does not look to be the two-minute performer she has been heralded to be, she did show enough to cause her to rule favorite at Windsor this week. She won both her miles eased off as there was nothing left of her field to bother from the seven-eighths post on.

Hal N. C. A., another of the Windsor hopefuls, lost caste, for after landing the first heat in 2:09¼, he faded away in the second, making a bad break when out in front. He flashed for an instant in the final, but again jumped.

ST. JOHN VETS GAVE ST. CROIX TEAM BEATING

Score Was 12 to 2—Calais Team Has Disbanded — Poor Game at St. John.

St. John, June 30—Only one game was played Saturday on the East End grounds of the two arranged for the Vets and Calais, Me., team. Calais disbanded Friday evening, so it was learned early Saturday morning, and arrangements were hastily made with the St. Stephen professionals. As the notice given them was very short, several of the standbys of the border town team were unable to make the trip and upon their arrival in the city late Saturday afternoon, "Wally" Parlee and rightfielder Stafford, both of the former Shamrocks were procured for the evening game.

Many fans were disappointed when the border boys failed to show up in time for the afternoon engagement but those who turned up for the night game witnessed the locals run away from them by a 11-2 score. Every man on the Vets' team scored at least one run. O'Regan and Tippetts getting two apiece.

"Shorty" Dee, shortstop of St. Stephen's regular team was on the mound Saturday evening and displayed a style of slow pitching all his own.

SUSPENSION LIFTED FROM ST. LOUIS PLAYERS

St. Louis, June 30—The suspension of Pat Collins, Brown's catcher, was lifted and the suspension of James Austin, Brown's coach will be lifted, says a telegram from Pres. Ban Johnson of the American League.

Collins and Austin, together with Manager George Sisler, were suspended as the result of a dispute with Umpire Holmes over ball and strike decisions. Several bottles were thrown by spectators in the squabble. Sisler was reinstated Tuesday.

Any kind of weather is good enough for most of us.

A PIED PIPER

In Billy's job, as in many positions where men have won fame and distinction, it is personality that counts. It is his mission in life to inspire confidence, and to lure innocent sheep and lambs to their destruction with as great alacrity and lightness of gait as if they were skipping to the fields of Elysium, and this he does to the King's taste; he was born for his task. Though but two years old he has a substantial beard, and long white hoary locks. His mien is gentle and there are no horns visible which might give rise to fatal suspicions. But in his eyes there is an air of command, backed by the force of a portly frame, which enables Billy to do what he will with the sheep and lambs which come within his ken, and even influences calves to keep a straight path. In the busy season he saves the salaries of five men; in ordinary times he does the work of two or three.

He was three months old when he arrived at the Canadian Pacific Stock Yards, Montreal, but he took to the work at once. He followed the heels of the men, and while other animals tried at the work had to be coaxed to labor by rewards of cake and biscuits, Billy needed no such spur, but in three months time would glance at the sheep comfortably, start off at a cheerful trot and without hesitation the doomed animals would surround him and happily ascend the winding runway to the abattoir nearby. Then at a command he would go back and coax any stragglers, till he had all at hand ready to be slaughtered.

Now to look at Billy, it might seem that he did this work in all innocence, and that he was quite unaware that he had led his charges to any harm; but that would be doing an injustice to Billy's mighty intellect. He leads the flock right to the edge of the platform where they are killed, but then he carefully edges to the wall, keeping as far as possible from the danger point till he reaches the only spot of safety, then he slides back from the helpless sheep, wriggles out and goes back for another lot.

His treachery does not weigh on his spirits, he is utterly complacent and self-satisfied, impatient to be on the job.
