HARVARD EXPERTS WILL TEST
BOBBED HAIR SCHOOL GIRL

Boston, Feb. 29—Two Harvard professors will study Eugeni Dennis, the 18-year-old Atchison, Kan., high school girl, to learn what gives prophetic vision to this "girl with the psychic eyes."

For more than a year she has been baffling students of psychic phenomena. She has found missing articles, described accidents that were happening miles away and predicted the death of friends.

And withal she is indignant if it is suggested that she talks with spirits. She asserts that the dead have nothing to do with it.

Just now she is in New York, and police experts of that humming metropolis would like to have her solve such mysteries as the death of Louise Lawson and "Dot" King.

There her psychic insight may strike a snag, but she will not lose one firm believer. He is the manager of the hotel where she is stopping. He asked her to locate a valuable gold vanity case, and after a few minutes' concentration she told him to look in the laundry of the guest who lost it. Sure enough, the missing case was there.

MAY COME TO THE HUB.

Dr. Walter McDougall, professor of psychology at Harvard and Dr. Gardner Murphy, psychology lecturer at Harvard, will be among the experts who will study Miss Dennis' weird powers. Later she may come to Boston for a test before experts here.

A bobbed-haired, dark-eyed winsome girl, she appears in nowise different from hundreds of other high school girls. She has their normal likes and dislikes, and among the former are her fondness for candy and the society of personable young men.

It is related that one of the latter got the scare of his young life when he took her riding and attempted spooning in his automobile. The girl suddenly appeared to fall into a trance-like state and began to describe an accident in which two automobiles had come together on a street corner some blocks away.

When the young man grasped her to shake her out of this mood, she collapsed and quickly reviving, begged him to go to the spot and take the injured man to the hospital in his automobile before his injuries proved fatal.

ENOUGH FOR HIM

The car was headed back to town, and when the corner was reached inquiries revealed that the accident had taken place as described, and the man had been removed to the hospital where he died. That young man took Miss Dennis riding no more. He said he did not want to have as companion a girl who talked with spirits.

At the American Legion convention in Kansas City she gave messages to veterans from dead comrades, although she insists that she does not talk with the spirits.

SAYS VICKS IS ONLY REMEDY FOR CROUP

Quebec Mother Enthusiastic Over Vaporizing Salve.

Every mother wants her children to be active and to grow strong through outdoor play. But frequent colds sap their vitality, cause loss of school standing, and keep youngsters puny and delicate.

Mothers who use Vicks VapoRub for children's colds find that the kiddies can play outdoors and that their cold troubles can usually be checked overnight.

Applied externally, Vicks acts like a liniment or poultice. In addition, the ingredients are vaporized by the body heat and are inhaled directly into the inflamed air passages. This double action quickly loosens up a cold.

Mrs. Leon Crandall, Box 247, Lake Megantic, Quebec, writes: "I used Vicks VapoRub for my little girl when she had croup, and I found that it relieved her at once. It is the only remedy for croup, and I would not be without it."

students of the occult, was convinced that the girl was a fraud. He arranged several tests for her, but the ease with which she solved them made him one of her firm, though, puzzled believers.

CONTINUES AN ENIGMA.

Miss Dennis continues to be an enigma to all who have studied her. Some believe that she has unusual psychic power. When she is solving the mystery of the disappearance of some person or thing, her body grows tense, her lips quiver and her eyes stare into space.

When she speaks it is as though she was describing something she could actually see. Hence the belief of psychologists that she has psychic eyes.

Dr. Walter F. Prince, investigator for the American Society for Psychic Research who laid the ghost of Antigonish will make a study of this girl in the hope that he will be able to give to the world the secret of her unusual powers. Miss Dennis herself is unable to explain them.

"I don't know how I do it. It seems to come to me," is her naive explanation.

WEALTHY FIRMS SINGLED OUT FOR FAVORS

Ottawa, Feb. 27—It is asserted in informed circles here that a searching inquiry into the methods of income and business profits tax collection since 1918 would show that the treasury of the Dominion was done out of a large sum. It would disclose the fact that wealthy firms in Ontario, chiefly Toronto, in Winnipeg and in British Columbia, were singled out for startling leniency on the part of those responsible for the enforcement of the tax regulations.

One prominent Toronto concern was assessed, it is claimed, in July, 1921, to pay a tax of nearly $82,000 but the notice of assessment was held until late in December of that year, no interest being collected or charged for the elapsed time.

A prominent Winnipeg firm had as an original assessment following an investigation by an inspector, $63,000, but this was afterwards reduced by $57,000 to the small sum of $6,000.

Another Winnipeg Company enjoyed compassionate treatment. It was assessed in June 1918, but the notice of assessment was held until May, 1922, and no interest was charged. It is alleged, while almost four years had elapsed.

A prominent British Columbia lumber concern had its assessments of 1919 and 1920 reduced, it is alleged by $20,000 and $8,000 respectively.

Another Toronto company had its assessment reduced by $18,000, principally, it was stated, through extra salary allowance. Its assessment was made in April, 1921, and the company paid on the installment plan, $2,000 monthly. Its notice of assessment was sent out from Ottawa in August, 1922, no interest being charged or collected as the notice was withheld until the instalments were paid.

CHOIR RETURNS HAD STRUCK OVER DIVORCE SERMON

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 27—After half its members resigned or threatened to resign because of a sermon delivered by the Rev. W. S. Crandall on divorce the choir of the Boulevard Methodist Episcopal Church at Binghamton, N. Y., held its first rehearsal in nearly two weeks. The pastor it is said expressed his sorrow for hurting the feelings of divorced members of the choir and congregation. Seven members of the choir of 30 are divorced. Ray Hartley leader of the choir who is divorced and married a divorced woman and Deacon Fred Woodburn who has been divorced three times and recently married his fourth wife said to have been hurt so much they may never return to the church.

aiding FARMERS TO GET LABOR

Canadian National Railways Offer Assistance to Farmers and Settlers.

Montreal, Feb. 27—A free employment service, whereby farmers in need of labor, will be brought into touch with newly-arrived immigrants who are looking for farm work, has been organized by the Canadian National Railways in preparation for the opening of the coming immigration season. By means of this service immigrants, arriving in Canada, will be advised of places awaiting them, and farmers who require help during the next few months, will be able to secure such help from the newcomers without cost to themselves.

When the immigration policy of the Canadian National Railways was drawn up it was considered that an important feature in the success of any immigration policy would be to assume that the immigrants could find work when they arrived in Canada. With this end in view, machinery has been organized, by means of which farmers may make their application to the nearest Canadian National Railways agent stating their requirements, and on the arrival of immigrants in search of farm work, these men will be directed to places awaiting them.

The influx of immigration is expected to commence by about March 15th and farmers are urged to make their applications as early as possible. The service is free and is designed to assist both the immigrants and the farmers who are in need of labor during the coming season.

THE L. R. STEEL HOLDINGS ARE WIPED OUT

(Financial Post.)

Reader, Soc., Ont.—I want a little information in regard L. R. Steel Protective Trust. I am a working man of limited means; every dollar counts. I invested $2,500 in L. R. Steel and would like to save what I could if you think it advisable for me to do so by subscribing to the Protective Trust. Are the men at the head of the trust reliable?

We have had numerous enquiries in regard to L. R. Steel Protective Trust. Recently we published a complete analysis of the whole situation. Since then there have been but a couple of changes. The Syracuse store as sold for around $150,000. This will go to meet the creditors' demands while the Protective Trust have paid off ten per cent of the creditors' claims and may make another payment shortly. We would emphasize one point. Your old holdings are wiped out. You are asked to put $250 into a new Steel enterprise, a going concern, that will require efficient and careful management and working capital to make it a success. The men at the head of the trust are shareholders chosen by the shareholders. These will be the men responsible for the conduct of the enterprise when it is taken over.
