

University Conversazione Of 1924 Marked Success

Hundreds of Undergraduates and Guests Spent Happy Hours in Old Arts Building — Many From Outside Places in Attendance — Equal of Any in Long Succession of Entertainments

The "conversazione" of 1924, the premier event of the social season was held Friday night and was as successful as any of its predecessors. All have been marked by successful and that of 1924 was as enjoyable as any.

Weather Fine.
The weather unlike that accompanying many "cons" was fine although cold. The western entrance of the Arts building was used according to custom and the dancing took place in the main hall with Cooper's Troubadors furnishing the music. Ifes of members of the faculty were the chaperones.

The various classrooms were used for sitting out and bridge was played in the Ladies' Reading Room on the second floor. The library was used as a supper room refreshments being served there after midnight. The various decorations were striking and the lighting effects good. All were arranged by the undergraduates themselves.

The Officers.
R. B. Manzer of Woodstock, was president of the "con" with Miss Dorothy Phillips vice-president and G. D. Scovill of Hampton secretary. R. E. Secord and J. L. Holman of St. John were chairman of important committees.

Pains in Back Subdued Sore Chest Relieved

A Nova Scotian Tells How She Overcome Her Troubles.

I CONSIDER Nerviline the best remedy for a cold, sore throat or tightness across the chest," writes Miss Lucy Mosher, from Windsor, N. S. "For years our home has never been without Nerviline. I had a cold on my chest that fourteen remedies couldn't break up. I rubbed on Nerviline three times a day, used Nerviline as a gargle and was completely restored. It's because Nerviline is so powerful, so penetrating, so sure to relieve congestion, that it is used in most homes, for the prevention and relief of a hundred minor ailments. Get a bottle today."

Had a Weak Heart Was Very Nervous For Three Years

Miss Jessie Peterson, Zealandia, Sask., writes: "I wish to let you know how much good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. For nearly three years I was very badly run down, had a weak heart, and was so nervous that sometimes I would almost faint away. I heard of many people who had recommended your Heart and Nerve Pills, so I decided to give them a trial. After I had used two boxes I found they had done me good, and after having taken five boxes I was completely relieved. I cannot recommend your Pills enough, and I would advise anyone having a weak heart or troubled with nervousness to use them." Milburn's H. & N. Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
