DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS

IN PARLIAMENT WILL BE

BE RESUMED THIS AFTERNOON

Ottawa, March 9—The hope that the debate on the address would be finished early is about dissipated. It is now understood that the vote will not come before a week from Tuesday at the earliest, and possibly ten days more of useless debating will elapse before the debate on the address is cleared up. The Prime Minister will not return before next Friday from Atlantic City, where he has gone for rest.

It was thought at first that the Conservatives would offer only the one amendment, that proposed by Donald Sutherland on Friday, but the tactics are now understood to be to propose a number of amendments and force the Progressives to support the Government on every vote. Judging from the expressions of the Progressives there will not require to be any great degree of finesse necessary to bring this about. Progressive members state that at least 80 per cent of their members are ready to back the Government to the limit as a result of the expectations aroused by the speech from the throne.

Both Liberals and Conservatives are now jockeying for position with regard to the speech-making on the address. The Government whips apparently anticipate that Hon. Dr. J. B. B. Baxter, member for St. John-Albert will launch the main attack on the Government and they propose to hold back members of the Government to answer that and any other serious attacks made.

Meanwhile both Hon. J. E. McMur-ray and Hon. John Sinclair are preparing to make statements with regard to charges in the press involving their names.

The main part of the opposition to the Government's tariff proposals from within the Government's own ranks was exhausted with the speech of Mr. Marler. It is probable that Mr. Raymond, of Brantford, will speak and vote against the budget, but he will not likely propose any amendments. Mr. Euler, of Kitchener, is also understood to be preparing a speech which will be mildly critical of the Government's position.

Interest is beginning to be aroused over the bill with regard to church union which, it is understood, will be introduced by Mr. Forks, leader of the Progressives, and a strong advocate of union.

There is understood to be much division in the House on the question and just at present both sides are doing a good deal of lobbying among the Roman Catholic members of the House and endeavoring to secure their support. The advocates of union are pointing out to them that if they vote against the bill it will be taken as indicative of a desire to defeat the measure because of fear of the effect of united Protestantism on their own faith and will be charged to dictation by the hierarchy. The general attitude of Catholics and others who may be classed as non-partisans in this matter is that the bill should be of such a nature as would leave to the different congregations the right to vote themselves into union if they desired but that in any event the rights of the minority should be recognized so far as the material state they now have in the church organization is concerned.

A FREDERICTON
MAN IS HELD IN BANGOR JAIL

Bangor, Me., March 9—Herbert Beatty of Fredericton had a continued hearing in the municipal court, on Friday on the charge of assault with intent to kill upon Mrs. Margaret Shorey, the case having been continued to allow the woman to recover sufficiently from her wounds to appear in court.

Beatty as held for the May term of the Superior Court in $5,000 and in default of bail was committed to jail. Mrs. Shorey was brought from the Eastern Maine General Hospital in the police ambulance the physicians permitting her removal for a brief time only. She was in a very weak and nervous condition while in court and was hurried back to the hospital after a brief hearing.

She testified that the respondent who had roomed at her house for some time, attacked her with a pack knife, inflicting several wounds in her neck. Beatty objected to the presence in the house of Louise Glazier, a New Brunswick girl who had come there and told Mrs. Shorey he would do something desperate if she wasn't put out—that he would kill her (witness) and the girl too.

No defense was offered. M. Pilot appeared as attorney for the respondent. The police have learned that Beatty had a record when employed in the lumber camps. On one occasion it is alleged he drove the people out of a lumbering camp when he went on a rampage armed with an axe. He was dangerous and since his arrest he has maintained a defiant attitude, repeatedly stating that he was sorry he had not killed both Mrs. Shorey and Miss Glazier.

PISTOL BULLETS
OF DELOME

Montreal, March 9—While Mr. Justice Martineau and the jury spent the better part of two hours looking through a microscope to examine bullets fired from automatic pistols Rev. Father Delorme whose trial on charge of murder of his half brother Raoul, was proceeding carefully studied a number of the bullets Saturday frequently underlining here and there with a red pencil and marking pages.

One of the books was "The Second Congress of Medico-Legal Study" over which he nodded his head approvingly from time to time while another was "The Art of Shooting." Titles of the other books were covered in white paper.

Saturday's session was devoted to the rescription and examination of pistol bullets. Dr. Derome medico-legal expert, demonstrating the flight, construction and material of 25 calibre bullets such as used for a Bayard pistol.

The examination was most thorough. R. L. Calder, K. C., Crown Prosecutor, producing enormously enlarged facsimiles of .25 calibre pistol bullets and pistol muzzle the latter to illustrate the revolving movement of a bullet in flight. While the jury stepped down one by one, to look through the microscope, Dr. Derome explained asking them to compare with a plan drawn for that purpose. The comparison was to show scratches on a bullet, extracted from Raoul Delorme's neck, and running parallel with the grooves on the bullet with other bullets which, the crown calms, do not show this peculiarity.

Alban Germain K. C., for the defence, protested during this examination that the Crown had not by any means established that the Bayard pistol owned by Father Delorme is in exactly the same condition now as it was two years ago. Mr. Calder retorted that time would not emphasize marks or defects in a pistol barrel; on the contrary, he said these marks would slowly deteriorate and disappear.

The anticipation appearance of ex-Senator Jones of New York at witness for the defence was mentioned. Mr. Germain pointed out that very possibly the defence would not be able to afford such an expensive witness.

"I undertake" said Mr. Calder to have Mr. Jones here a defence witness at the cost of the Crown.

to be witnesses. They are Chief Justice Sir J. D. Hazen, Mr. Justice Hazen and Mr. Justice Grimmer. The Appeal Court being involved in case in that manner would make it necessary to take the appeal to the Department of Justice.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mrs. Wm. Gorman who departed this life March 8th, 1922.

When the evening shades are falling
And we're sitting all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing—
If you only could come home.

Home is sad without you Mother
Through the house and every spot;
Oh, our hearts are sad and weary
For the voice that we hear not.

We who love you sadly miss you,
As these dawns another year;
In the lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of you are always near.

Friends may think we soon forgot you
And our wounded hearts are healed,
But little do they know the sorrow
That's within our hearts concealed.

Off and oft our thoughts do wander
To a grave so far away
Where they laid our loving Mother
Just two years ago today.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT THE CAPITOL THEATRE

"Rupert of Hentzau" shown at the Capitol for the first half of the week, combines all the elements that go to make a highly entertaining picture. Great as was "The Prisoner of Zenda" this picture which by the way is its sequel is every bit its equal. Each character is portrayed by a player who gives the impression of actually living the part. Here is a cast of not one star but of many stars. There are Elaine Hammerstein beautiful, gracious; Bert Lytell who in matters of pressing need, takes the role of the king; Claire Windsor one of the most beautiful actresses on the screen; Hobart Bosworth the gruff big hearted count; Bryant Washburn a favorite. Marjorie Daw Elmo Lincoln and others.

The plot deals with the love of the queen for a commoner who upon a previous occasion had assumed the role of the king to prevent a national catastrophe. The queen writes a love letter to the commoner and it is around the theft of this letter that the thread of the plot is woven.
