FARMERS AND DAIRYMEN ELECT OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR POULTRY EXCHANGE HELD MEETING

Woodstock, Jan. 20—By virtue of a resolution presented to the New Brunswick Poultry Exchange, and duly and unanimously passed by its members assembled in annual meeting, favoring the amalgamation of the Nova Scotia Poultry Exchange and that of the New Brunswick Poultry Exchange into the Maritime Co-operative Poultry and Egg Exchange, there was consummated tonight, the organization of one of the first Maritime co-operative selling organizations, as the final meeting of the kindred organizations of the New Brunswick Farmers and Dairymen's Association, being conducted at the Carleton county vocational school here. The motion giving birth to this Maritime selling association was unanimously passed after considerable very favorable discussion.

The election of officers for the New Brunswick Farmers and Dairymen's Association for 1927, resulted as follows: President, A. E. Raymond, Woodstock; vice-president, John Wood, Bloomfield; second vice-president, Mederic Chaisson, Rogersville; corresponding secretary, Austin Taylor, Salisbury; recording secretary, A. J. Gaudet, St. Joseph; treasurer, Fred Walsh, Coverdale; auditor, W. W. Hubbard, Fredericton; county vice-presidents—Albert—A. E. Mitten; Carleton—Wm. Hay; Charlotte—Alfred Lovelston; Kent—Mederic Bourque; Kings—George T. Whalen; Gloucester—Theo Roy; Madawaska—C. E. Bois; Northumberland—Wm. Saunty; Queens—P. S. Gamblin; Restigouche—J. T. Hamilton; Saint John—Dr. L. A. Donovan; Sunbury—L. A. Gallagher; Victoria—C. E. Pickett; Westmorland—Ferdinand L. Bourgeois; York—Ludlow T. Hoyt.

Officers elected to the executive of the New Brunswick Dairymen United are as follows: President, George Whalen, Sussex; vice-president, W. B. Pearson, Collina; secretary, J. R. Sutherland, Sussex.

Sheep Breeders Elect.

The following comprise the officers and executive of the New Brunswick Sheep Breeders' Association for 1927: President, H. W. Rogers, Woodstock; vice-president, George A. M. King, Sussex; secretary-treasurer, James Bremner, Fredericton; directors, C. P. Gray, H. W. Rogers, A. C. Taylor, W. E. Wallace, Albert Payne, Robert Graham and George A. M. King.

Officers of Poultryman.

Prior to the closing of the meeting the following officers were elected to the New Brunswick Poultry Exchange for 1927: President, W. P. Anderson, Port Elgin; vice-president, Theo Roy, Petit Rocher; secretary-treasurer, F. Leslie Wood, Fredericton; directors, M. A. Chaisson, Rogersville; Walter Jensen, Petterson; A. T. Reed, Rollingdam; John Woods, Bloomfield; Earl Lister, Harvey Station.

Maritime Exchange.

Directors elected to the proposed Maritime Co-operative Egg and Poultry Exchange, who will at a later date meet to appoint the executive, included the following: W. P. Anderson, Port Elgin, N. B.; Theo. Roy, Petit Rocher, N. B.; Earl Lister, Harvey Station, N. B.; M. A. Chaisson, Rogersville, N. B.; P. R. Brown, Pugwash, N. S.; A. J. McKenna, Western Nova Scotia; Thos. Deon, Eastern Nova Scotia.

Poultrymen's Annual.

The evening meeting was given over to the annual session of the New Brunswick poultry exchange and was presided over by M. A. Chaisson, president. The manager, A. R. Jones, in his annual report showed that a marked improvement of the quality of eggs shipped to the exchange during the past year had been made, the number of eggs handled had been double, while the quality of poultry received had been much increased over 1925.

The average quality of eggs handled Mr. Jones stated, graded 62 per cent "extras" and the average price for all eggs for the year reached 30.8 cents, an increase over the last year.

The egg circle at St. Isador was reported to have shipped the greatest number of eggs of all circles in New Brunswick and Gloucester county, of the different counties of the province, led in quantity of eggs shipped to the exchange, while Westmorland led in shipment of eggs and poultry combined, having shipped 26 per cent of the total volume of eggs and poultry handled by the exchange during the year. The manager expressed his satisfaction at the outcome of business and was optimistic of the outlook for 1927. Prof. J. P. Landry of the poultry department of Agricultural College, Truro, was heard in support of the proposed amalgamation of the New Brunswick Poultry Exchange with that of the Nova Scotia Egg and Poultry Shipping Organization.

A resolution favoring the amalgamation was then presented to the meeting and unanimously passed. The basis of amalgamation was explained by F. Leslie Wood, secretary of the New Brunswick Poultry Exchange.

Afternoon Session.

The meeting of the New Brunswick Farmers' and Dairymen's Association this afternoon, as the outset, was given over to discussions by the French delegates. Ferdinand Bourgeois, of Fox Creek, presided. A. J. Gaudet reported progress on the matter of an effort on the part of the French-speaking representatives of the farmers of New Brunswick securing publication of French agricultural bulletins.

Considerable discussion centred about the proposal suggesting that a French elementary agricultural text book for French schools be sought. A resolution asking that this become effective was passed by the meeting.

Other resolutions passed included one asking for the appointment of a French lady to superintend the work of the Women's Institute in French sections.

Appointment of more agricultural representatives, particularly in the French district, was sought in another resolution.

For French Publication.

A resolution calling for the appointment of a committee to look into the matter of a French agricultural publication to be financed in part by the funds previously used to subsidize the Maritime Farmer, resulted in the following being named: A. J. Gaudet, St. Joseph; Rev. W. E. LeBlanc, Shediac; Rev. F. C. E. Michaud, St. Louis; Anthony Goguen, Moncton, and Theo. Roy, Elm Tree.

The N. B. Poultry Exchange, in the last resolution adopted, was asked to public their constitution and circulars in both languages.

Tells of Egg Circles.

A. Goguen, assistant poultry promoter for New Brunswick, spoke briefly on the work of egg circles, while J. E. McIntyre agricultural representative for Bathurst, dealt with extension work he is carrying on among farmers of his constituency and outlined fully the policy of the provincial department of agriculture in its efforts to serve the farmers of New Brunswick.

The remainder of the afternoon program, following the French session, was devoted largely to the presentation of resolutions passed upon by the resolutions committee of the New Brunswick Farmers' and Dairymen's Association. A resolution favoring the change of time of holding the annual convention from January to July was defeated. Sponsors of the resolution contended that in January traveling conditions were least favorable, while the majority in opposition to it regarded the change one that would conflict with farming operations at a time when, depending on seasonal conditions, time could perhaps least be afforded.

Reject Restricted Area.

The resolution asking that the convention go on record as being in favor of making the province of New Brunswick a restricted area for the prevention of bovine tuberculosis caused considerable discussion among the delegates, and, on a vote being taken, was defeated by a large majority.

That because the fox industry could be construed to be more closely linked to agricultural interests than to the work under the jurisdiction of the Department of Lands and Mines, was the basis of a resolution which was passed by the convention favoring the transference of control to the Department

SUCCESSFUL PLAY PRESENTED AT PARISH HALL

The Celestial Players in 'When a Fellow Needs a Friend'—Presenta- tion to Mrs. Holland Boone.

The three-act comedy "When a Fellow Needs a Friend" which was presented last night at the Parish Hall, Westmorland street, to a crowded house, brought forth much applause. It was a laugh from start to finish, and was probably one of the best presentations put on by the Celestial Players. The different roles were well taken, and many stops were occasioned by the hearty laughter of the audience. The production was ably directed by Mrs. Holland Boone, who deserves much praise.

Specialties introduced between acts were of a high order and elicited much applause.

After the performance last evening, the ladies of the Parish Church, treated the cast and a few invited guests to a banquet in the gymnasium. Several toasts were suggested by Rev. Alban Bate, who presided. These were ably responded to by Wm. E. Nye, Mrs. Holland Boone and Wm. Quinn. A feature of the banquet was the presentation to Mrs. Holland Boone of a very handsome umbrella, given by the cast in appreciation of her good work in bringing the play to a successful finish. The evening's festivities were brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King."

The cast was as follows: Tom Denker, an artist, J. Alfred O'Hara; Bob Mills, a writer, Gordon H. Cumming; Mrs. Reese, their landlady, Daisy A. Turvey; Jerry Smith, just returned from "Over There", Frank L. Morgan; Liz, Mrs. Reese's stepdaughter, Georgina L. Styrant; "Bing" Dickson, Liz's steady, Ethan A. MacKiligan; Alice King, Tom's Aunt, Helen C. Dunlap; Elaine Lynne, Alice King's Ward, L. Winnifred Nye; Angela Scott, Bob's Fiancee, Mrs. Frank L. Morgan.

of Agriculture. A resolution regretting the depredations made upon sheep flocks by dogs and urging the provincial government to enact a law placing and enforcing a tax on all dogs was carried by the convention with but little discussion.

Among the resolutions carried at the final meetings of the convention was one appreciative of the good work accomplished by R. A. H. Margison, as secretary of the Agricultural Societies United in handling the fertilizer business of that organization.

Exhibition Policy.

The following resolution, pertaining to the policy of agricultural exhibitions in New Brunswick, was passed without discussion:

Whereas the Minister of Agriculture has withdrawn grants to provincial exhibitions and is giving more attention to county and club fairs; Therefore be it resolved, that the organization go on record as approving of this plan and be it further resolved, that we recommend the establishing of a provincial exhibition to work in conjunction with the county fairs;

And further resolved, that we approve of the idea of building up a system of county fairs adopted to the locality which they are serving.

At this juncture and prior to the election of officers of the New Brunswick Farmers' and Dairymen's Association for 1927, invitations to hold the next annual convention of the organization were read from Fredericton and Sussex.

LEILA POTTER IS INVITED TO TURN PRO

Toronto, Jan. 20—Many offers have been received of late by Leila Brooks Potter, probably the most outstanding feminine speed skater in the world, to capitalize her ability, but the record holder, who no later than last Saturday distinguished herself by winning the city championship for her third successive time, has no intention of becoming a professional.

The world's champion has been invited to compete in the International title meet at Detroit, which is scheduled to be held on the same dates as the Canadian championships will be held here, but it is more than likely that she will decline the invitation.
