THE EXHIBITION

The Fredericton Exhibition is now in full running order and if the weather man is at all considerate should be the most successful ever held here, which of course is saying a whole lot. Indeed if it is not a pronounced success it will be no fault of President Joseph A. Cain, of Fredericton Exhibition, Limited, and his energetic, and efficient board of Directors.

The formal opening took place in the Amusement Hall on Saturday evening, with Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier of the Province, as the principal speaker. The Premier gave his views in a succinct way on the unemployment problem, and also touched on other matters of public interest. He was supported on the platform by three members of his cabinet, one of whom, Hon. L. P. D. Tilley delivered an address.

President Cain in his opening remarks, made an earnest plea for the Co-operation of the public, without which this or any exhibition must be a failure. There are enough people living within a radius of fifty miles of Fredericton, who if they do their part, can make the exhibition a splendid success. All that it is necessary for them to do is to attend it. If they do this they are assured of a good time and full value for their money. The president and directors have given freely of their time to make the show one worth seeing and the public can at least show their appreciation by patronizing it.

Fredericton launched out as exhibition centre in 1852, four years after the city was incorporated. It is only a few years ago that this information was given to the public, and it might never have been known, but for the fact that John A. Campbell, the veteran honorary president of the holding company is blessed with a good memory. Mr. Campbell attended the first exhibition held in Fredericton and claimed that 1852 was the year. The records in possession of a former secretary showed 1855 as the year of the first show, but eventually evidence in the form of an old newspaper clipping showed that Mr. Campbell was right. Thus we now know that the Fredericton Exhibition is three years older than people thought it was a short time ago. The presence of the veteran honorary president on the platform was a pleasing feature of the opening ceremony and all earnestly hope that will be spared to attend many similar functions.

The Fredericton Exhibition of 1930 is now in full blast and we bespeak for it a generous patronage.

FLAPPERS GIVE UP TO DEMURE DAMSELS

Hollywood, Sept. 13—Is the demure type of miss replacing the flaming flapper in American life? Many social authorities believe so, and there is evidence in the movies that they are right.

Clara's Star Setting
It is said to be no secret in film-town that Clara Bow's popularity has waned. Hollywood was thunderstruck a short time ago when word leaked out that First National did not intend to renew Alice White's contract. Previously Miss White had been rated as one of the biggest box office bets on her lot. She started her screen career nearly four years ago at $75 a week and is said to be receiving $2,502 a week now.

Hollywood opinion has it that flapper pictures are waning in popularity and that Miss White is not versatile enough to play anything but this type of role. Moreover, three of her pictures are completed, but unreleased, and report is that the studio did not want to overload on this type of production.

Demure And Wistful
Loretta Young and Bernice Claire, who are of the demure, wistful type are going over big at the box office, and both are being pushed in important productions. This is an indication that at least one studio believes public tastes has definitely turned.

Joan Crawford also has played a number of flapper roles, but she is versatile enough not to be confined to this type of part alone, and her pictures are said to have shown no diminution in popular favor.

Made Impression
Rev. Gerald W. Guion, new pastor of the Brunswick Street Baptist church, was heard on Sunday for the first time in his new pastorate. Mr. Guion is a young man, and has admirable vocal qualities, as well as possessing a distinguishable personality. His two sermons yesterday completely won the congregation. The new pastor has in the short time he has been here, met many of his congregation, and has impressed all alike, that he is a splendid person, and will make a capable leader.

Thirteen months ago black was listed next to the last. Its rise to the top was made largely at the expense of blue.
