FREDERICTON SEEN THROUGH TOURIST EYES

Visitor Impressed With Y. M. C. A. Athletic Instruction— Perfect Summer Resort Impressions of Critical Tourists.

Our American cousins seem impres- sed with the possibilities Fredericton has in summer entertainment value.

One tourist, who watched Hap Wat- son and Lawrence Hashey putting the youngsters through their paces at Queen Square this morning said that his boy would spend next summer not at St. Andrews or at a Maine camp but at Fredericton. When told that the same instructors were in charge of the west-end bathing beach and that there was a tip-top tennis court not a stone's throw away he was even more enthusiastic. Canoes for hire, a green woods to browse in behind the city, a golf course, ust the ingredients for a perfect summer.

Other tributes from tourists with eyes open are pouring in every day both to C. L. Sypher, secretary of the local Tourist Information Bureau, and (Continued on Page Five.)
