
NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

In order to ensure changes, copy must reach this office not later than 9 a. m. on the day of publication.

The Daily Mail

THE WEATHER

Moderate winds fair today and Sunday, not much change in temperature.

VOL. XXXVI., NO. 232

FREDERICTON, N. B. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1930.

TWO CENTS PER COPY.

Rebel Troops Have Moved Across the Sao Paulo Frontier

A Strong Detachment Reported to be Eager for the Fray—News of Invasion Emanates from Rebel Sources—Rebels Said to Have Captured Two Cities in Rio De Janeiro State.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Oct. 11—Entry of rebel troops into the state of Sao Paulo was announced in a wireless message intercepted by the newspaper La Manana here today.

"A strong detachment of Gaucho troops is crossing the Sao Paulo frontier, eager for the fray," the message said. The dispatch was sent by rebel forces from the town of Pota Grossa on the Parana-Sao Paulo border.

Rebels Claim Victories.

Porto Alegre, Brazil, Oct. 11—Three columns of forces converged on Rio De Janeiro and Sao Paulo today, revolution headquarters here announced. The rebels claimed to have captured two cities in the state of Rio Janeiro in their march on the Federal capital. These were Carvalho Moreira, near Campos (Campos is 140 miles northeast of Rio De Janeiro) near the border of Minaes Geraes.

TWO BRITISH CRUISERS ARE STANDING BY

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

London, Oct. 11—Two British cruisers, the Dauntless and Delhi have been ordered to stand by in case they are needed to protect British interests in Brazil, the admiralty announced today.

The Delhi is in Trinidad, in the West Indies and the Dauntless in Kingston, Jamaica. Both are of 4,650 tons and carry six inch guns and small armament.

WAITERS PROTEST USE OF "GARCON"

Paris, Oct. 10—In the opinion of the union of syndicated waiters, in congress assembled, the term "garcon" as applied to a waiter is too familiar and annoying. "Garcon" can mean a boy or an unmarried man. One protesting waiter, father of five children, said at the congress that an American customer, who evidently had consulted a dictionary, had yelled at him. Bachelor, bring me a beer."

Death Last Night

Mrs. Isabella Campbell, aged 69 years, a well known and highly respected resident of Springhill, passed away last evening, following a short illness. Deceased was the widow of James B. Campbell, and had lived practically all her life in that district. Surviving are two sons, Ralph F., of Winnipeg, and Kenneth M. of New York; one brother, Andrew Mitchell, of Scotch Settlement; three sisters, Mrs. James Gray, of Kingsclear; Mrs. A. H. Vanwart of this city and Mrs. A. L. Haining of St. Louis, Miss.; one sister-in-law survives, Miss F. Annie Campbell of Springhill. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon from the late home at two o'clock. Rev. J. G. Berry will conduct the ceremony at the home, and interment will be made in the Rural Cemetery.

MISS BENNETT OFFICIATES AT A LAUNCHING

Southampton, Eng., Oct. 10—The second of Canada's new destroyers, the Skeena, was successfully launched here today, Miss Mildred Bennett, sister of the Canadian Prime Minister, performing the christening before a distinguished gathering.

The destroyer slid gracefully into her element bearing a large Maple Leaf across her bows.

At the upheaval that followed, Miss Bennett described the Skeena as a new bulwark "in the arch of peace that we are trying to erect," and another step in Empire co-operation by which the happiness and welfare of the British peoples may be secured.

Woods Very Dry

The forests of New Brunswick, with in the past two weeks, have been very dry, due to the lack of rainfall. The forest fire officials are taking extra precautions due to this condition, and rangers have been warned of the fire hazard due to this dearth of rain. The forests have been the driest they have been all summer. Farmers have been compelled to carry their water from a distance and have been complaining of the dryness of the weather.

Freshies Dance

The freshmen of the University of New Brunswick held their annual dance last night at the college and enjoyed a wonderful time. The college orchestra supplied the music for the dance. A very large number were present. The freshmen dance is one of the social preliminaries of the college for the school year.

Brunswick St. Baptist Church

At 11 A. M., Rev. C. T. Clark, Director of Keep the Faith of Foreign Missions Campaign will speak on the Junior Worshippers League, 2.30 P. M. Sunday School classe for everybody. Brotherhood, 7 P. M. evening service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Guilou.

COMPASS HAS BEEN SALVAGED

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)
Beauvais, France, Oct. 11—The compass and other instruments salvaged from the wreck of the British dirigible R-101 were transported by airplane to London today where they will be examined in the air later.

RESERVES ARE CALLED OUT

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)
Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 11—Brazilian reserves living in Portugal were called out by Brazilian Consular officials today to be sent to Rio De Janeiro to enlist in the Federal forces there.

She: "How do you love me?"
HE: "You are a pity!"

HARVEY DUNLOP WAS SENTENCED TO HANG ON DEC. 17TH. FOR MURDER

53-Year-Old Campbell Settlement Man Sentenced By Mr. Justice Crocket At Noon Today—Governor-In-Council Lost Hope of Doomed Man—Shot and Killed Erbon Dickenson, 14-year-old Youth.

Harvey Dunlop, 53-year-old Campbell Settlement man, today was sentenced to death for the murder of Erbon Dickenson, aged 15. He shot the boy because he believed he was laughing at him.

Dunlop will be hanged at the York County Jail on December 17—unless the Governor-in-Council sees fit to act on the jury's recommendation of mercy which was attached to the verdict.

Mr. Justice Crocket imposed sentence at noon today in the York Circuit court.

"Harvey Dunlop, stand up," His Lordship ordered. The man rose in the prisoner's dock, seemingly composed.

"Prisoner, have you anything to say concerning why you should not be sentenced for this crime of which you have been found guilty?"

Nothing to Say

Dunlop, in a clear, steady voice, replied: "No, I don't know as I have anything to say."

"Prisoner, you have been convicted on an indictment charging you with the murder of Erbon Dickenson, aged 15, at Campbell Settlement, on July 24. I am bound to say that I believe the verdict of the jury a true and proper one and based on the evidence adduced at this court beyond all reasonable doubt.

"I have no desire," Mr. Justice Crocket continued, "to say anything which might tend to aggravate the ordeal through which you are now passing. God knows that ordeal is trying enough.

"The jury in bringing in its verdict recommended mercy. It is not in my power to act on this recommendation, but I shall certainly see that the jury's recommendation is brought to the attention of the Governor-in-Council, which alone has the power to act on it.

"So far as I am concerned there is but one course. A person convicted of murder must be sentenced to death.

UNEMPLOYMENT DOLES IN RUSSIA TO BE ABOLISHED

A Nation Wide Shortage of Labor is Reported.

MANY WORKERS ARE NEEDED

Report Has the Appearance of Soviet Propaganda.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Moscow, Oct. 11—Abolition of unemployment doles, in view of a nation wide shortage of labor was ordered by the Commissariat of Labor. The national unemployment insurance appropriation was withdrawn simultaneously. The order is expected to force unemployed in the larger cities to accept work in distant parts of the country particularly in new industries.

Commissariat officials estimated that at least 500,000 workers were needed immediately. They said that Russia was the only country "where unemployment has completely disappeared."

Boyd and Connor Resumed Flight To Croydon Today

Intrepid Oceanic Fliers Were Forced Down in the Scilly Islands Yesterday—Expect to Make the Balance of the Journey in Three Hours.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

ST. MARY'S, Scilly Island, Eng., Oct. 11—The monoplane Columbia, forced down in the Scilly Islands by a broken feed pipe yesterday after a flight across the Atlantic, resumed its journey to Croydon at 1.01 today (9.10 a. m. E. S. T.) Captain J. Errol Boyd piloted the plane with Lieut. Harry Connor as navigator when it left Pentle Beach on Tresco Island. The fliers expected to reach Croydon, some three hundred miles away within three hours.

Kingsford-Smith's Flight.

Athens, Oct. 11—Commander Charles E. Kingsford-Smith arrived here today en route from Croydon to Australia in an effort to set a new record for an England-Australian flight. He is piloting a light airplane the Southern Cross Jr.

A LEADER IN U.S. JOURNALISM PASSES AWAY

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

La Jolla, California, Oct. 11—Col. Milton A. McRae, one of the founders of the old Scripps McRae newspaper League and for years a leader in American journalism, died today in the Scripps Memorial Hospital. Colonel McRae, underwent an operation last Tuesday for what was said to have been cancer of the colon and up to the time of his death, physicians entertained hopes for his recovery.

A Melon Grower

Watermelons, grown on University Avenue by Harry Smith, an official of the Department of Agriculture, were on sale in the market this morning at forty cents each. They were not quite as large as large as the imported article but it is claimed that the flavor is equally as good. Mr. Smith is a practical gardener and has been growing watermelons as an experiment.

Passed 300 Mark

Barred Rock hen, No-A, of the pen of A. T. Reed, Rollingdam, Charlotte county, participating in the New Brunswick egg laying contest, passed the 300 egg mark last week. She produced seven eggs which brought her total up to 302, which have scored 322.7 points. This hen should be good for at least 315 eggs by the close of the contest.

The wages of sin have been increased in the past 2,000 years.

asked that the sentence be reduced to manslaughter on the grounds of provocation. He brought out the fact that at Campbell Settlement the youngsters made a practice of tormenting the old man.

"Had Dunlop been accepted for what he was, as object of pity, rather than a butt for cruel practical jokes, he would not have been in this court," Mr. McNair said. He told of the trials the reclus had undergone, of his living alone following the death of his parents, of his being subjected to none of the softening influences of life.

The courtroom was crowded today as the man was sentenced.

INQUEST TONIGHT INTO DEATH OF CHARLES CURRIE

Fresh from the two criminal cases on the York Circuit docket, just completed, the police are plunged into another case with criminal features by an inquest into the death of Charles Currie, Houlton restaurant proprietor, who was run over by an auto, and died from his injuries on Thursday night.

The inquest will be held in the police station tonight with Dr. Charles McKay as coroner.

John Finnigan, Chief officer of the United States Customs at Houlton, Me., who was arrested by Provincial Police in connection with Currie's death, was freed last night, but will appear tonight as material witness into Currie's death.

The two men left Houlton on Thursday afternoon in Finnigan's auto to go hunting in York county. At Eel River Lake, Finnigan parked his car in a steep grade, and Currie who had gotten out of the machine was run over as the machine backed down the grade.

The deceased was behind the car at the time and was unable to help himself. Finnigan, unaware of the accident drove off, leaving Currie in a dying condition. The Provincial Police arrested the Customs inspector some time later, and he was brought to the local jail. It is said that the Customs man and his companion were under the influence of liquor.

A number of witnesses have been called for the inquest tonight.

Football Today

The Capital city—which is a real rugby town, and now that the Carr murder case is over—turned out this afternoon to witness the first of the Provincial Rugby League clashes. Moncton City is the guest of the local city fifteen this afternoon at College Field. Both teams are reported stronger than last year, and the City team, last years champs, will have a tough assignment with the railway center outfit. The Fredericton High School outfit will meet Saint John in the first part of the double bill scheduled today. This will be the second game in the New Brunswick Interscholastic league. Saint John lost to Rothesay by a big score a week ago, and the Yellow and Blacks are favorites for today's game.