Empire Crusaders Are Dissatisfied with Hon. Mr. Baldwin

Conservative Leaders Declaration That Agriculture Cannot Be Safeguarded Has Displeased Lord Beaverbrook and His Associates—Liberals on the Other Hand Are Pleased.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

LONDON, June 10—Lord Beaverbrook is very much dissatisfied with Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader. Mr. Baldwin's declaration that there cannot be any safeguarding for agriculture and that the farmers of Britain must get rid of the idea of names on food from abroad to give them higher prices, has displeased the empire crusaders as much as it has pleased the Liberals.

Addressing an audience of more than ten thousand people in Suffolk yesterday, Mr. Baldwin said that safeguarding in industry leads to increased output, but that there was no analogy with farming because no safeguarding methods that can be devised would give two crops a year or make cows calve twice a year.

GOVERNMENT PARTY RALLY AT ANDOVER

Premier Baxter Wants Federal Party Affairs Kept Out of Provincial Politics.

Andover, June 9—Addressing a large meeting here yesterday afternoon along the lines with the Government Candidates for Victoria, Premier Baxter said:

"After four and a half years of administration, I come before you for ratification or condemnation. I hear that many who did not support me five years ago will do so now." He wanted his party to be known as the Government party of New Brunswick, not Conservative, Grit or Progressive. "We should look at things from a provincial standpoint, and bring no Dominion party or partisan views into provincial affairs. What we look for and expect is the confidence and support of the people of the province," he said. "At a recent meeting at Fredericton, Hon. Dr. P. J. Veniot said he came from Ottawa as a citizen, not as Postmaster-General, but whether citizen or otherwise, he did not hesitate to erect guillotine he had been using to cut off the head of Tory postmasters and postmistresses. The first man to have his head cut off was A. A. Dysart, replaced by W. P. Jones. Veniot also stated that the present Government is rotten. I have never had unhappy dissensions to such an extent that some would not speak to each other. Probably Veniot was more acquainted with rottenness than I am," he stated.
