HEELS THAT HEIGHTEN,
ECSTATIC LINGERIE
BOWS ON ORGANDIE

Six inches is just nothing to some of the newest heels. They are of the spike variety too, which means that if you turn your ankle, you break your leg. While not by any means safe for ankles that flop easily, these heels are marvelous for those who can wear them. A pair of such shoes, and you add a cubit to your stature at the rate that will surprise your friends.

The widest bracelet you ever saw is now fashionable for evening wear. It almost covers the forearm, being made up of seven strands of imitation cowrie shells interspersed with bits of crystal. Many a time some new ornament has been hailed as barbaric, but this one is.

The pastel organdie frock is decked out with a huge bow in some deep, eye-arresting color. And the white organdie frock is likely as not to be white only in the bodies, the skirt being black organdie and the contrast absolutely startling.

Leather jewelry grows more colorful. Necklaces and bracelets of braided leather now blossom into red and tans, red and blacks, blue and white, green and reds, to match the sports costume. A clever addition is a belt of braided leather to match the necklace.

Colors may come and go—as they do, with great speed—but it looks as though eggshell would go on forever. Lingerie never looked more beautiful than in eggshell, trimmed either with Alençon lace or with pale lingerie shades. A suit of pajamas in eggshell satin and white silk lace of a faint beige-gold cast is positively ecstatic.

The bathing suit is the least part of the bathing costume this season. Lookit, at Biarritz or wherever. The bathing suit is often not only subdued in color but infinitesimal. The rest of the costume, the beach pajamas, the hat, the cloak, the waterproof hand bag, the umbrella, is as delicious in color and as expensive in contour as you please.

SOUR MILK CORN BREAD

3-4 cup corn meal
3-4 cup white flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1-2 teaspoon salt
1 cup thick sour milk
1 egg, slightly beaten
1-2 teaspoon soda
Sift together the dry ingredients. Beat in the egg and the sour milk. Pour into a greased tin or separate muffin rings. Start the oven at 350 degrees F., finishing at 400 degrees F. The bread will shrink from the sides of the tin when done.

DOUBLE BOILER. PLEASES WOODSTOCK LADY

Free premiums for poker hands with Rosebud cut plug tobacco.

"Do I like my husband to smoke a pipe?" exclaimed a lady in Woodstock. "I most certainly do. It is his greatest pleasure, and I share in his enjoyment; for he gives me the poker hands that come with Rosebud, and I exchange these for things I have always wanted for the house. My latest premium is a 'Wear-Ever' aluminum double boiler, which I obtained for five complete sets of poker hands. My advice to the ladies who want to do their cooking conveniently, and get the best results, is to have their husbands smoke Rosebud cut plug and save the poker hands for 'Wear-Ever' aluminum ware." Rosebud cut plug and the poker hands form an ideal combination for family satisfaction, for this smoking tobacco is a genuine cut plug with a rich, fragrant flavour—that gives the smoker the best value on the market—and the premiums certainly do please the family. The large ten-cent package of Rosebud contains one poker hand—the larger fifteen-cent package contains two poker hands.

Pajamas Parade The Beach

The wave of pajama popularity has hit the fashionable beaches. There is no doubt that if one is to be in the swim this summer a gay pajama ensemble must be included in the outfit wardrobe. They are designed of countless materials, shantung, denim and particularly flowered cotton prints. Those of monotone fabrics are splashed with contrasting colors set on in large sections.

The brightest sun on the whitest beach would seem dull compared to the white and orange shantung model shown above. There is at present some rivalry between boleros and capelets in the pajama parade. Here the bolero has won first place. The wide trousers are box pleated on either side of long, inverted pleats and the tuck-in blouse is of white shantung.

NANTUCKET CORN PUDDING

2 cups corn
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1-8 teaspoon pepper

Run the canned corn through the food chopper and mix with remaining ingredients. Bake slowly in a buttered baking dish, like custard. Serve as a vegetable with meat or fish.

PICKLED BEETS

Boil the beets until tender, leaving on an inch of the tops. Drain. When cool remove skin and tops, and slice. Heat three cups vinegar with two-thirds cup of sugar and one teaspoon salt. Stir until dissolved. Then pour while hot over the sliced beets. Set aside to become cool before using.

DEEP DISH APPLE PIE

5 or 6 tart apples
3-4 to 1 cup sugar
1-3 teaspoon grated nutmeg
Salt

Cut apples into eighths after peeling. Arrange as for apple pie in a deep baking dish, but without under crust. Sprinkle over them sugar, nutmeg and bits of butter. Cover with a rich perforated upper crust. Bake about 45 minutes. Serve hot with plain cream.

SPICE CAKES

1-2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon soda
2 cups flour
1 cup sour milk
1-2 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Cream the butter or other shortening, if butter is not used, with a spoon. Gradually add the sugar, beating the mixture with a spoon. When it is light and creamy, add the egg yolk, which has been beaten until it is a light lemon color. Sift the flour, soda and spices together and add them alternately with the milk. Then fold in the stiffly beaten egg white. Bake in oiled muffin tins at 375 degrees F. for 20 minutes.
