LEADER JONES WAS SILENT

The Moncton Times has frequently pointed out that Leader Jones and his opposition supporters, with possibly an exception here and there, refuse to say whether they are in favor of government control or prohibition. The people of New Brunswick have seen the workings of both laws and if Mr. Jones and his supporters will pledge themselves to repeal the present law and return to that formerly in force they will join the issue with the Baxter Government and if they are successful there will be no occasion for the turmoil and expense of a plebiscite, which might result in nothing.

Temperance sentiment, the Times points out, always has been very strong in Albert County and it is one part of this province that never granted license before the Scott Act or any other form of prohibition came in. The opposition leader was present at the nomination proceedings in Albert, a dead set being made on the Government candidates there. Hon. B. Frank Smith, provincial organizer for the Government, was also present and there were several interesting passes between these two gentlemen. Facing the opposition leader, Mr. Smith challenged Mr. Jones in regard to government control and prohibition "Get up and state where you stand," Mr. Smith said in effect. "Which law are you in favor of?" Mr. Jones sat glued to his seat and remained as dumb as an oyster.

Needless to say, Mr. Jones' refusal to say where he stood in regard to what is perhaps the principle issue in this election in the estimation of the majority of the people had a depressing effect on the opposition and greatly impressed the crowd, said to have been the largest ever seen at nomination proceedings in the County.

THE GRAND FALLS PROJECT

Mayor Cairl in a radio talk last evening stated that he had cast his vote for the party led by Premier Baxter at the last election. In almost the same breath he accused the Baxter government of having given away Grand Falls. When Mayor Clark cast his vote for Premier Baxter in 1925 he did so with a full knowledge of that gentlemen's policy with respect to Grand Falls development. And of to Grand Falls has been given away as he alleges he is in a measure responsible for it. If His Worship was stung in the last election we are afraid that he has not profited by the experience, as he is quite certain to have one put over on him on this occasion.

A BRILLIANT LEADER

The Premier and Attorney General of New Brunswick is today the foremost lawyer in the Maritime Provinces. Of this there is not the shadow of a doubt. His connection with municipal, provincial and federal politics extends over a period of thirty seven years, and it cannot be denied that he has given his native province faithful service. He is the only Premier this province ever had who has been sworn of the Privy Council. He is the only Attorney General since Confederation who has held the office on two different occasions.

Premier Baxter in point of ability stands head and shoulders above any man in the array of candidates selected to oppose his government.

James M. Scott as a member of the last Legislature kept his mouth closed but his eyes were always wide open. On the stump in this campaign he has developed into a regular whirlwind. He talks plainly, hits right out from the shoulder and all within the sound of his voice have no difficulty in understanding him. James M. Scott is a man of sound, common sense, and stands well with the people of York County, as did his respected father before him. He is probably the only candidate on either side in this province who can trace his pedigree back to pioneer life through only one generation, his father, the late Ex-War-den John Scott, having been born in a log cabin in the parish of Prince William.

The North Shore Leader thinks that instead of the provincial government spending $10,000,000 on hard surfaced roads it should spend the money in establishing industries to give employment to labor. Our North Shore friend should know that it is not with the province of a government to establish industries to enter into competition with private enterprises. Were it even to hint at doing such a thing Leader Jones and his co-workers would throw a fit. The government has, however, been the means of having a fairly large industry started at Dalhousie without the aid of public money and it hopes before long to see another started on the miramichi. But the Baxter government does not believe in bolshevism.

Mrs. Gordon Wright made the statement at the city opera house that the stocks of breweries and distillers in Canada were going up. We would not advise those of our citizens who dabble in stocks to take a flier on the strength of this tip. At present Hiram Walker is quoted at 9, National Breweries at 32, Associated Breweries at 14, Canada Brewing at 7, and Seagram at 11. Those stocks are not likely to go much lower but there is no immediate prospects of a bulge in the price. We are afraid Mrs. Wright does not know much about stocks.

A whole lot of buncombe is being handed out in the form of display advertisements to the newspapers on behalf of the opposition. One advertisement now going the rounds seeks to censure the Baxter government for having induced American capital to come into the province. Surely the opposition candidates in York do not subscribe to the doctrine that it is wrong to have the resources of this province developed by foreign capital?

Perhaps some of our prohibition friends would do well to note the fact that in Canada during the year 1913 there were 60,000 arrests for drunkenness, while in 1927 the number had fallen to 31,171. In the United States in 1920, before the Volstead Act came into force the number of arrests for drunkenness was 201,023, while in 1927 the number had increased to 466,806 or over 100 per cent. This amply justifies the old saying that prohibition does not prohibit.

Mrs. Gordon Wright says that under the Veniot government prohibition suffered nothing but maladministration. This is undoubtedly true, but why are the prohibitionists trying in this election to secure a vote of confidence for Mr. Veniot? Has his views on prohibition undergone any marked change during the past five years?

If large and enthusiastic meetings mean anything then the candidates of the provincial government in York County should win hands down in the election of June 19th. Knowing however, that elections and horse races are always uncertain their friends are taking no chances. Elections are often lost by over confidence, but this one is not going to be in that class.

The attention of Leader Jones is called to the fact that Hon. B. M. Hill, a member of the St. John Harbor Commission is slumping Charlotte county in the interests of the Opposition. Leader Jones should see to it that Mr. Hill tenders his resignation.

Mrs. Gordon Wright of Ontario labors under the belief that the local bootleggers are supporting the Baxter government in this election. Mrs. Wright is wrong for once. Why even Ald. Moses Mitchell could have told her better than that.

The government candidates in York are putting up a vigorous campaign and all signs point to their triumphant return on June 19th by a rousing majority.

Students Leaving

Large numbers of the Provincial Normal School students, out of town students, are leaving today for their homes in various parts of the province. Some left on Friday evening, following the conclusion of the examinations, and still others are remaining over the weekend with friends here.

WHEN YOUR CHILD IS FEVERISH

Give Him Baby's Own Tablets.

The health of babies and little children is subject to rapid changes. Thus the mother must be on her guard. At the first sign of feverishness Baby's Own Tablets should be given—this may avert a serious illness.

Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Norman Lee, Uxbridge, Ont., says: "My little boy, now three years old, was not at all well. He was feverish and had no appetite. I gave him Baby's Own Tablets and he was soon well again. I would not be without the Tablets as long as there are young children in the house."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
