

Hon. C. D. Richards Deals With Issues of Campaign

Minister of Lands and Mines Reviews the Government's Splendid Record of Achievement—Shows York County Has Been Well Treated by the Administration—A Common Sense View of the Liquor Problem—Praise for Colleagues.

Hon. C. D. Richards was one of the principal speakers at the Government Convention here yesterday and excelled himself in the matter and delivery of his address. In accepting the nomination unanimously tendered him he said:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: I do not know what would be the first word which I should say to you this afternoon. But I think, perhaps, the most appropriate thing would be to express the feeling which comes to me as I came into this Old Court House again and seeing this wonderful gathering from every section of this county of York. I have attended in the past a great many Conventions in this same room, and I know and see again many of you here this afternoon, many of my old friends—people from every section, every rural section, from every parish even in this county, and I know you will agree with me, one and all, that perhaps seldom have we had in the history of this county such a large and representative gathering as we have here this afternoon. And when you have to take into the account the rather inclement weather, I think it is some indication of the attitude and the spirit which exists in the grand old Liberal-Conservative party in this county of York at this time.

A Word To The Ladies

I am very very glad to see today so many of the representatives of the women present at this Convention. And some of them I know have come from some distance as well. I want to say to you, speaking to you as friends and fellow citizens and not so much as political supporters and party supporters, that I deeply appreciate the very fine and cordial reception which you have given to me here this afternoon, with the resolutions which you have passed, and for that kindly feeling so manifest here today among my friends and fellow citizens in this my native county of York.

Result Not in Doubt

One of the movers of the resolution referring to the history of this county and the struggles and the contests we have had and of the record which we have, and I think, as I have intimated before, that if the wonderful gathering which we see here today is any augury of what is going to happen when the election is actually on in this constituency and through the province of New Brunswick, there need be no question of the result.

Tribute to Colleagues

I want to say to you, also, that I am very glad and I appreciated as well the fact that you have given that fine reception as well to my colleagues, Mr. Scott and Dr. Doughan, the other two present sitting members, who with myself and late Mr. Gordon Grant

HON. C. D. RICHARDS
Minister of Lands and Mines

have been your representatives for the past four or five years. They during that time had to bear, perhaps, the large share of the burdens for this constituency, owing to the fact that I had some other work of a more general character to which I may refer later, to perform, which necessarily made it incumbent upon them to look after the interests, more particularly of this county, and I say to you that they were faithful in season and out of season in looking after your interests. I want to join in the spirit and the thought of the resolution which was moved and carried with respect to the loss which we have all sustained in this constituency in the death of the late Gordon C. Grant. You Ladies and Gentlemen knew Mr. Grant as one of the fine, outstanding, men of this county, and gentleman and a good citizen a man of ability and a man among his friends—a man all the time. We found him faithful and loyal in the legislature and we appreciate and realize the loss which this constituency sustained in his death.

Dr. Jewett Welcomed

I want to say to you further that I want to welcome, on behalf of the old members, your present representatives, the new candidate, whom you have just chosen today in the person of Dr. M. L. Jewett, of Millville. (Cheers). A fine outstanding young man of this county, one whom I am sure has your entire support, and with your support will make his mark in the Legislature of this province.

Mr. President, as Mr. Dougherty said in placing my name in nomination, it has been my fortune, I think perhaps, my good fortune, certainly in some respects, at any rate it has been my privilege to be your representative in this constituency for the past, or nearly the past ten years. For the first five years as one of the representatives for the whole constituency, the constituency as it stands today, for the County of York. During that period we were in what is somewhat termed "the cool shades of Opposition" and for four years I had (I should not say the privilege) but I had the opportunity in the Legislature as acting as House Leader, and I became somewhat familiar with the legislative business as carried on in the House. In 1925 our Opposition saw fit to jerrymander this constituency, thinking, perhaps, they might obtain some little political advantage and they separated the towns of Marysville and Devon, and I was returned as I was returned as one member for that constituency, you elected the other three members and for the past four or five years I have been the representative, more particularly, perhaps, for this section of the constituency, although I may say that when the Legislature rescinded that and the constituency returned to its former condition I have cooperated to a greater extent with my colleagues with respect to the work and the needs of the various sections of the whole county.

One for Veniot

In 1925 the old government, lead by a Premier who was driven out of the province in 1925, who later found a refuge at Ottawa, and who came down to this city a little while ago to take charge, apparently of the present Opposition in the county of York, they were driven from office, as I say, in 1925, our present Premier, the Hon. J. B. M. Baxter was called on to form a government and at that time I was asked by Mr. Baxter to take the position of Minister of Lands and Mines. I appreciated that honor the more particularly because of the fact that it brought back again to this county of York more representation in the government of the province of
