

ITINERARY OF PRINCE'S TRIP HAS BEEN ISSUED

Trade Ambassador of the British Empire Will Visit South America.

London, Nov. 20.—The Prince of Wales will be accompanied on his visit to South America next January by no less eminent an aide than his brother, Prince George.

It was announced yesterday that both the King's sons will carry the Empire's good wishes across the Atlantic, visiting Bermuda, Havana, Jamaica, Panama, Peru, Chile and the Argentine.

They will go informally except for the visit to Buenos Aires on March 14, when the Prince will open a great trade exposition.

The heir will have at least one opportunity to indulge his passion for flying, it appeared, for the planes are to be carried over in the aircraft carrier, Eagle and there is to be some flying out of Buenos Aires.

The Prince and his brother have spent a lot of time brushing up on their Spanish, and the Queen of Spain, who acted as their tutor has reported they were making excellent progress.

The Princes will make the outward journey in the steamship Oropesa, which leaves Liverpool on Jan. 15. They probably will join the ship at Santander or Vigo, Spain, but no definite decision has been made on this point.

They will spend Jan. 27, at Bermuda, Jan. 31, at Havana, and Feb. 3 at Kingston, Jamaica.

The Oropesa will pass through the Panama Canal Feb. 5, and the party will disembark at Talara and Lobitos oil fields which are British controlled, rejoining the ship at Payta the same night.

The Oropesa will arrive at Callao on Feb. 10. The party hope to spend 2 or 3 days at Lima and later to visit Cuzco and La Paz on their way south to Chile. Santiago probably will for southern Chile and enter Argentina by Lake Nahuelhuapi.

Under present arrangements, the party will probably arrive at Buenos Aires about March 5, and spend several days there and in the neighboring country before opening the empire trade exhibit March 14.

The Princes hope to spend a week travelling in northern Argentina and sail from Buenos Aires March 21.

It is understood that the Prince of Wales will make at least one long flight in Argentina. He will travel by rail from Bariloche to San Antonio and thence will fly to Buenos Aires using British planes.

The party will consist of 12 including the Prince's staff.

Anyway, it's to be hoped prosperity arrives before Santa Clause.

OLYMPIAD AT LOS ANGELES A MERRY TIME

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—The games of the Xth Olympiad in Los Angeles will be celebrated from Saturday, July 30, to Sunday, August 14, 1932, inclusive, according to a recent announcement from the Organizing Committee.

These definite dates were announced following the return to Los Angeles of representatives of the committee, who attended the Olympic Congress in Berlin.

The Program

The program will be continuous for 16 days and nights and will include the following events:—

Athletics, gymnastics, boxing, wrestling, weightlifting, association football, fencing, rowing swimming, equestrian sports, modern pentathlon, road cycling, yachting, polo, field hockey, water polo, rifle and pistol shooting, Olympic fine arts.

The Organizing Committee's report, given at the Berlin meeting of the International Olympic Committee, showed that nearly all facilities are already completed for the celebration of the games.

In Olympic Park in Los Angeles are the Olympic Stadium, the fencing pavilion, and the Olympic fine arts museum. The Olympic swim stadium will be built there.

Training Fields

Close by are 15 training fields for visiting teams. These are all close to the proposed Olympic Village and to Olympic Park.

Near Olympic Park is Olympic Auditorium, where the boxing, wrestling and weightlifting events will be held. Ample polo and equestrian fields are available, and the rowing course awaits only the final installations for crews and their equipment.

Yachting

The yachting course has been carefully mapped and the marathon and cycling courses already are arranged.

The greatly reduced costs for participating nations, shown in the Organizing Committee's report, resulted in enthusiastic responses from nations represented at the recent Berlin Congress, and assurances of fully representative teams from Olympic countries.

MOTORISTS SHOW LITTLE GRATITUDE

Gloucester, England, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Ethel M. Smith has given first aid to 300 injured motorists in eight years. Only eight returned after recovering to thank her.

The Smith home is near a dangerous "S" curve on a main highway. Although there occur an average of three accidents a month, Mrs. Smith still helps to bring the victims inside, tears sheets for bandages and otherwise aids until medical assistance arrives.

PROFITS IN THE WEDDING TRADE RATHER SMALL

Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 21.—For more than half a century weddings have been the business of the Henry Delong family here.

Something more than 5000 have been solemnized during that time in the DeLong home, under the big red paper bell that festoons the "parlor."

The Rev. Henry DeLong, a pioneer of Council Bluffs, began the "business" He died a few years ago, over 90.

His son, the present Henry, is not a clergyman, and the idea of continuing the wedding "business" occurred to him only when couples appeared at the door, not knowing his father was dead, and asked to be united in matrimony.

Rather than disappoint them, Henry said, he used to call in a "clergyman," and now the "business" is running again as usual, even though Henry himself does not actually tie the knots.

All colors, races and creeds come, Henry looks after the details, produces rings from pocket recesses calms the quaking, gives advice and even throws rice, if that is expected.

But he never has been married himself.

The profits, he says, are not so certain. Frequently he has been paid in promises only, and there have been "rubber" checks and empty envelopes.

"You'd be surprised," he says, "how many people are married on an empty pocketbook and a heart full of love."

ARCHDUKE TO GUIDE

A dramatic decline of fortunes from those of an archduke to the humble status of a tourist guide is the life history of the Archduke Leopold. He recently went bankrupt and has now been reduced to guiding tourists through the castle of his Imperial ancestors.

One circumstance the party in power must always content with is that the unemployed have plenty of time to vote.

Good Things to Eat

more nourishing when made with St. Charles Milk

If you analyzed whole bottled milk just as it came from the cow, you would find it contained water, protein, fat and other solids. St. Charles Milk is the very same cow's milk, except that most of the water has been removed. When milk is evaporated in this way it keeps perfectly in a sealed tin. Also it is creamier, doubly-rich, hence, better for every milk use.

DELICIOUS WHITE SAUCE RECIPE

3/4 cup Borden's St. Charles Milk; 1/4 cup water; 1 1/2 tbsps. butter; 1 1/2 tbsps. flour; 1 scant half tspn. salt; high seasoning of pepper or paprika.

Melt the butter in a small saucepan, stir in the pepper and salt mixed with the flour and stir until well blended, away from the heat. Then gradually stir in the milk and water mixed, preferably using a wire whisk, and taking care that all of the liquid is thickened before a further amount is added. Let boil a moment or two, then add the vegetable and let stand over hot water for ten minutes to become thoroughly heated. Serve with asparagus, string beans, peas, brussels sprouts or potatoes.

STEAMED SALMON WITH WHITE SAUCE

1 slice salmon, about 2 pounds; once the recipe for white sauce as printed at left; 2 hard cooked eggs; parsley.

Wipe off the salmon with a damp cloth; lay it on a well-oiled plate, dust lightly with salt and pepper, and steam for thirty minutes. Then carefully remove the skin, transfer the fish to the center of a medium-sized platter, surround with white sauce and garnish with the egg cut in sixths, and the parsley.
