SPORT COMMENT ON LIVE TOPICS OF THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

If the Cardinals win the pennant it will be the biggest upset in recent years and proof of the act that a title is never won until the last game is played the last putt is in the cup or the last leap has been made under the wire. Early in the year the Cards were not conceded a Chinaman's chance.

Everyone appears to be very certain that the Mackmen will be world's champions. They were just as sure of the same thing back in 1914, when a team of Braves from Boston, under George Stallings and called a misfit aggregation walked through the Athletics for four straight. That team had come from last place on July 1 to a pennant. The Cardinals staged a late season rash pennantward also. That sort of a club is hard to beat.

Mickey Cochrane says the Athletics can win the World series with two pitchers—Grove and Earnshaw. The Cardinals are not going to be as easy to beat as the Cubs were a year ago.

A team that has to fight in its own league for the pennant right up to the finish is better fitted in a world series than one that coasts along in easily and is not exactly on its toes.

Knute Rockne is going to have one of his best teams this year. He has a veteran backfield and a splendid line. In South Bend they think the "Fightin' Irish" won't lose a game. But even that team with its great coach will have plenty of trouble going through two straight seasons without a defeat.

Primo Carnera is back in good standing with the National Boxing Association. Must be tipping over his set-ups according to rules and regulations now. There is nothing to indicate that this tour of the sticks was anything but just what the public always has believed.

If the Phillies had had as good pitching as the Cardinals and Brooklyn they would have won the National League pennant. Which is a vote for those who argue that a tight defense is better than a formidable attack.

Jack Dempsey ranks Young Stribling as the best heavyweight with Campolo second and Schmeling, third. He places Carnera fourth and Sharkey or Risko fifth. Which should give Babe Hunt a splendid rattling because he beats Risko.

VIN RICHARDS AGAIN HEADS TENNIS PROS.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 24—With a brilliant volleying attack, that recalled his amateur days, Vincent Richards, of the United States, yesterday won the professional lawn tennis championship, dethroned Karel Kozeluh, of Czechoslovakia.

Richards scored his victory in four sets, 2-6, 10-8, 6-3, 6-4.

While none too steady at times, Richards was always able to rise to the occasion after dropping the first set. His cross courts, sharply angled, had Kozeluh completely mastered in the closing sets. Kozeluh lobbed in sensational fashion. Richards made brilliant recoveries, while it was the European's lob out of the court that gave Richards the fifth set and the match.

Yesterday, Richards and Howard O. Kinsey, of San Francisco, won the professional doubles championship, defeating Kozeluh and Roman Majuch, of Germany, 6-2, 15-13, 6-4, in the final round.

PINEAPPLE COOKIES

Beat 1 egg, add 1-3 cup sugar slowly, 1-4 cup chopped walnuts, 1-2 cup thoroughly drained crushed pineapple and 1-2 cup flour that has been mixed and sifted with 1-4 teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons baking powder. Drop by spoonfuls on an inverted greased pan and bake in a moderate oven from 20 to 30 minutes.

Hereafter Babe Ruth would appreciate it if you threw your hat in the air to express approval of his home runs. Mr. Ruth is now in the business of selling new hats.

FIGHTERS ALL

KID SULLIVAN

Born May 21 1897, Brooklyn N. Y. Height, 5 ft. 5 inches. Weight, 126-30 lbs. Italian-American.

On June 20 1924 right in his own balliwick Steve Sullivan defeated Johnny Dundee for the 130 lbs. title by a point decision in ten rounds.

Twice during the same year Sullivan defeated the boy who was later to trim him for his title. Mike Ballerino. The first meeting resulted in a knockout over Ballerino in five rounds and the second was a newspaper decision.

Sullivan will best be remembered for his viciously waged fights against a neighborhood rival Vincent Pepper Martin. This pair furnished more action in one of their fights than is generally witnessed in several battles.

Recapitulation. Started boxing in 1911. Participated in 100 bouts, winning, 17; knockouts, 14; no decision 52; draw, 6; lost, 11; knocked out, by, 1.

6000 WATCH GOLFERS AT MERION, PA.

The National Amateur Golf Title which is at stake in the U. S. G. A. tournament this week at Merion Cricket Club, Pa., is getting buffeted more and more in the direction of the one and only Bobby Jones, who already has three major titles to his credit, and competing for the final one. (Burt Whitman, sports expert for the Boston Herald, who is covering the event gives the following comment on the opening of play at Merion:

"The gallery today was 6000 and at least three-quarters of it came early to watch the early morning starting appearance of Mr. Robert Tre Jones, Jr., of Atlanta, playing with Emery Stratton. The season ticket costs $6 and 3500 of them already have been sold. The balance of 2500 were in on $2 daily tickets today.

The U. S. G. A. gets a flat guarantee of $12,000 from the Merion Cricket Club for the privilege of holding the national amateur here. The parent body also reserves the right to a percentage of the profits over the $12,000 mark and there should be plenty of the right sort of figures to split up when everything is over in this greatest of all amateur tournaments.

The restaurant gets a huge play here and the galleries later this week, drawn by the lure of the Jones effort to make it a grand slam of all four of the world's major championships, are morally certain to be immense even to the extent of being unmanageable.

At the very start of the Jones-Stratton. An army of photographers besieged the pair for pictures. Emery had to stand up and get in each photograph with the Emperor and that did not help Emery's mental condition."
