2 tablespoons chopped blanched almonds.

Stir the batter until it is perfectly smooth and then add the eggs one at a time, stirring them gently. Bake in two layers in a 375-degree oven.

The pineapple filling is made by putting three teaspoons of butter, one cup of sugar and 1½ cups crushed pineapple (drained) into a heavy pan over a low flame. and butter, add salt and pepper and corn and cook 5 minutes. Rub soup through a strainer, beat yolk of eggs and add remaining cup of cold milk stir this mixture into soup and cook for a minute or two, stirring constantly. The egg yolks make this very nice.

Quick Marmalade Cake

1 cup sugar
2 eggs
½ teaspoon vanilla
2-3 cups milk
1-8 teaspoon ground nutmeg
3 teaspoons baking powder
1-3 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
1-8 teaspoon ground cloves
Cream the shortening and sugar together; add the eggs well beaten, and the vanilla. Sift the flour baking powder and salt together, and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Divide the batter, and to one half add the spices. Place the batter by alternate teaspoonfuls into a shallow, oiled pan, and bake in an oven at 375 degrees until brown and firm in the center, about thirty minutes. Serve warm as a pudding with lemon sauce or cover with mocha icing.

Jellied Chicken

2 cups chicken stock
1½ teaspoons gelatin
¼ cups cold water
½ teaspoon lemon juice
1 to 1½ cups cooked chicken
Salt and pepper to taste.
Garnishing

Soak gelatin in cold water. Add 1 cup of hot stock, and when gelatin is dissolved add rest of cold stock and seasoning. Pour into refrigerator pan and chill in electric refrigerator until mixture begins to thicken. Remove and add the chicken, which may be either minced, diced or cut in strips. If garnishings such as sliced hard-boiled egg, green pepper or pimento are desired, they may be placed in pan before pouring in gelatin mixture or placed on top after chicken is added. Return to refrigerator and let stand until firm. This takes but a very short time, depending on how cool mixture is when first placed in refrigerator.

A Chicago gangster was slain while feeding nickles to an automatic piano. Police have a less obvious theory, however, to explain the killing.

A diet expert recommends a cup of orange juice and a slice of bran toast in the morning, to be taken, presumably, before breakfast.

It seems the characters who are shot for "knowing too much" seldom betray it is a police photograph.

DOUBLE BOILER. PLEASES WOODSTOCK LADY

Free premiums for poker hands with Rosebud cut plug tobacco.

"Do I like my husband to smoke a pipe?" exclaimed a lady in Woodstock. "I most certainly do. It is his greatest pleasure, and I share in his enjoyment; for he gives me the poker hands that come with Rosebud, and I exchange these for things I have always wanted for the house. My latest premium is a 'Wear-Ever' aluminum double boiler, which I obtained for five complete sets of poker hands. My advice to the ladies who want to do their cooking conveniently, and get the best results, is to have their husbands smoke Rosebud cut plug and save the poker hands for 'Wear-Ever' aluminum ware." Rosebud cut plug and the poker hands form an ideal combination for family satisfaction, for this smoking tobacco is a genuine cut plug with a rich, fragrant flavour—that gives the smoker the best value on the market—and the premiums certainly do please the family. The large ten cent package of Rosebud contains one poker hand—the larger fifteen cent package contains two poker hands.
