FINAL ENGLISH RUGBY IN UP. CANADA

Montreal, Nov. 21—The final English Rugby watch of the season will probably take place Saturday, as negotiations are now proceeding with a view to having the M.A.A.A. fifteen, who are provincial champions, meet the fifteen selected from the remaining clubs in the city. This game if played should prove most interesting, and it is also hoped that a goodly sum will be realized on behalf of the Unemployment Fund, as the entire receipts from the collections to be taken up amongst the spectators are to be devoted to the deserving charity.

Same Team

The M.A.A.A. fifteen is expected to be the same side that made such a magnificent showing against the Caledonian Club in Glace Bay last Saturday in the final for the MacTier Cup, and which match ended in a draw of three points each. In that match the M.A.A.A. fifteen gave probably the best exhibition which they have put up for many years, and several of the Glace Bay sports writers stated in their accounts of the match that the game was undoubtedly the greatest exhibition which has ever been witnessed in Cape Breton at least since the war.

Not Selected

While the All-Montreal fifteen to meet the M.A.A.A. has not yet been definitely selected, it is expected that the side will contain what was practically the fifteen that represented the province in their match against Ontario on Thanksgiving Day, excepting, of course, the three M.A.A.A. players, MacCoy, Reed and Chipendale, who were amongst the provincial side.

The venue for Saturday's match has been settled, but it will be definitely agreed upon today.

LOCAL BOYS KEENE, LYNCH WITH NORTHERNS

Montreal, Nov. 20—When the champion Bell Telephone Hockey Club lost Earl and Desse Roche to Maroons and Howie Grand went up to Toronto for a tryout with the Maple Leafs, things were far from bright for the blue and white in this years Railway-Telephone race. However, Grant has returned to the ranks and everything is bullish again in the Bell ranks.

Grant practiced with the hello boys last night at the Forum and seems to be in for a good season, despite the fact that he failed to catch on with the Toronto pros.

Players in action with the champions last night were Boyd, Osborne, Shearer, Ahearn, Ferry, Weir, Valois, Thomson, Harnott, Howie Grant, O'Rourke, Pete Kelly, Anderson, Thibault.

C. P. R. Better

Canadian Nationals had Seed Powell, Mongeon, Halbert, Kilby, Conolly, Taylor, Shute, Currie, Marshall, O'Brien and Hyndman. Dinny Dismore was in charge.

Northern had several familiar faces in their line-up which included Norton, Seale, Boiselle, Lynch, Keene, Edgecombe, McMullen, Vloran, Macey, Pat Donnelly, Dixon, Reed, Wheelers, Roland Proulx, Jack Sonnelly and Furlong.

Jake Lynch and "Kato" Keene former Fredericton players are out with the Northern Electric again this year. Roland Proulx, brother of "Al" Proulx of the local Millionaires also is out with the Northerns.

What the country needs is more good cheer and less crooning.

Further Upset, Petrolle Decision Over M'Larnin

GENE GIVES PROMOTER K.O.

Some of the throng who surrounded Gene Tunney, retired heavy weight champion, to extend their congratulations upon his legal victory over Tim Mara, sports promoter, who had sued him for $500,000. The former ring star was said to be near collapse when the verdict was brought in.

Primo Carnera, the Ambling Alp of Italy, who really is now a naturalized Frenchman, could not pass recent strict physical tests for military service, so it is reported. Primo has varicose veins, one lung is affected, and the surfaces of his big feet are flat. Now, you tell your troubles.

Al Singer, won the lightweight championship four months ago in 1 minute and 46 seconds, and lost it the other night to Tony Canzoneri in 1 minute and 6 seconds. How's that for speed with a capital S?

Bert Hughes, who went to the New York American club in the National Hockey League from New Haven—the team that Jackie Keating is playing with—is now in the hospital recuperating from injuries received when he collided with "Ching" Johnson, of the Rangers several evenings ago. Johnson "got" Hughes with a vengeance and for it also got five minutes in the penalty box. The fracas occurred in the scoreless game between the two New York clubs on Tuesday night.

"There is a certain grim humor and tragedy, sometimes in first round knockouts," says Wilbur Wood, boxing expert of the New York Sun. Mr. Wood points out that there is no war in boxing like other sports, and a boxer is subject to more than normal risk in the first round. Many times a real clever fighter is put to sleep in the initial round, when he really is the better of the two men in the ring. "The record books are sprinkled with instances of unexpected first round knockouts of prominent boxers," says Wood. For example, Kid McCoy, the last fellow in the world one would have expected to be caught napping, was waffled into dreamland in round one by Jack

The Florida winter golf season opens at Ormond Beach on Christmas Day. By that time, Fredericton and the rest of our Maritimes will be quite steeped in snow and ice probably.

McLarnin Fails to Show Accustomed Flash and Veteran Billy Petrolle Gains Decision—Third Upset in Lighter Classes—McLarnin Ruled Favorite.

Madison Square Garden, New York, Nov. 21—Billy Petrolle rugged, clouting veteran from the hills of North Dakota, turned in the ultimate in surprises for the fight faithful tonight by hammering Jimmy McLarnin, the clouting Celt, into one of the worst defeats of the Irishman's spectacular career.

A crowd of 12,500, banner throng in these days of unemployment, bounced around in their seats in vociferous amazement as Petrolle, granite-chinned and relentless as a maddened bull pup, smashed the class of the welterweights about the ring for ten full rounds, dumped him in the resin twice for counts of nine in the fourth session, and ran away fresh and eager with the unanimous decision at the end of the battle. It was one of the most exciting and bloody battles the Garden ever has seen and McLarnin at the close was a fearful sight.

Blood streamed from cuts below his eyes, in his lips, alongside his nose and there were lumps along both cheek bones that threatened to cut off his sight in the closing rounds. The crimson stream covered his face and chest and the sight of the gory figure of the deadly Irishman, reeling through round after round and desperately fighting off the ever threatening knockout, just about furnished the customers the millenium in fistic spectacles.

IS REGRETTED

New York, Nov. 21—The departure of Bobby Jones from the ranks of the amateur golf will be recognized actually for the first time today when the executive committee of the United States Golf Association, of which the Atlantan was a member meets at the Hotel Biltmore.

Despite the hesitancy of the golf officials to confirm the well known fact, Bobby's resignation is to be presented and accepted, as a matter of course.

ROUGHRIDERS MAY CLAIM DOM. TITLE

Regina, Sask., Nov. 21—Champions of Senior Rugby in the West for the fifth successive year, Regina's Roughriders are undecided as to whether they should attempt to lift the Dominion crown this fall or not. The trip to Vancouver where the Riders won the Western title, was a costly one to the club and financial worries may keep the stalwart ones from journeying east.

Both in 1928 and 1929 the Roughriders travelled to Hamilton, Ont., where they succumbed to the mighty Hamilton Tigers but the showing put up by the club this fall has done much to make their supporters clamor for a final this year.

Someone is suing Gene Tunney for more money than there is in the entire world at this time—$500,000 in fact.

The great Art Shires' birdie frankly says she is wildly in love with the young man. So they like the same things.
