
NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS
In order to ensure changes,
copy must reach this office not later than 9 a. m. on the day of publication.

The Daily Mail

THE WEATHER

Moderate westerly winds fair and a little milder today and Sunday.

VOL. XXXVI, NO. 98

FREDERICTON, N. B. SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1930.

TWO CENTS PER COPY

Peshawar Garrison Is Strengthened By British Troops

Two Companies of the Essex Regiment and Machine Gun Sections Have Arrived At Peshawar—An Invasion of Afghan Tribes is Feared—Four Injured in Riots at Neela.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

LONDON, April 26—Two companies of the Essex Regiment and two machine gun sections have arrived in Peshawar to strengthen the garrison there, a United Press dispatch from Lahore said today.

The troops were ordered to Peshawar when the British authorities feared wild Afghan tribes might pour over the border into Peshawar, to plunder taking advantage of the riots there earlier this week.

Disturbances At Neela

Calcutta, India, April 26—Two rioters and several constables were injured during disturbances at Neela, reports received here today said. Two of the constables were taken to a hospital for treatment.

The body of a man was taken to a mortuary at Diamond Harbor, thirty-four miles from here, today by a group of volunteers, who said he was fatally wounded during firing.

C. P. R. LINERS HAVE DOCKED AT QUEBEC

Quebec, April 25—With over six hundred passengers arriving aboard three Canadian Pacific vessels in a little over twenty-four hours, the 1930 shipping season got off to a busy start here.

The first vessel to dock was the Duchess of Richmond, which carried in the neighborhood of six hundred travelers, while she was followed this afternoon by the Montclare, which ran the Richmond a close second in carrying capacity.

The Minnedosa is bringing up the rear by docking with nearly five hundred travellers, to complete a very busy week end for port staffs of the Canadian Pacific.

MAN AND WIFE WERE KILLED AT A CROSSING

Trenton, N. J., April 26—A wedding chase ended in tragedy her last night when Uldie Dahlgren, Jr., 29, Princeton graduate was instantly killed and his wife, Catherine Dahlgren was seriously injured as their automobile was struck by a train at A grade crossing.

Death of Mrs. H. H. Bray

Word was received yesterday, says the Moncton Transcript by Dr. O. B. Price, M. P., of the death of his sister Mrs. H. H. Bray in Ottawa. Upon receipt of the message Dr. Price left immediately for Ottawa. The late Mrs. Bray was a daughter of the late Warren W. Price of Petitcodiac, and previous to her removal to Ottawa, she had resided in Campbellton. The deceased is survived by one son, R. P. Bray of Ottawa and three sisters, Mrs. R. D. Hanson of Fredericton, Mrs. J. J. Daley of Sussex, Mrs. F. C. Seeley of Montreal, and three brothers, Edward B. of Campbellton, Dr. O. B. Price M. P., of Moncton and H. M. Price of Campbellton.

RECEPTION FOR GOV. BRUCE IN ENGLAND

The Agent General for British Columbia and Mrs. Pauline received the guests at a large reception held in the ball room of Grosvenor House, London, on Wednesday night, April 9, for the Hon. Randolph Bruce, Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia, and his niece, Miss Helen Mackenzie. Among the large number of guests, including many Canadians, who were present, were: The Duke and Duchess of Atholl, Sir George and Lady McLaren Brown, Lieut. George S. Cantile, the Earl and Countess of Clarendon, the Earl and Countess of Haddo, Col. and Mrs. W. Grant Morden, the Earl and Countess of Strathford, Lady Piggott, Mr. Julian Piggott whose marriage to Miss Mackenzie is taking place on April 29 Lord Pentland, the Earl and Countess of Peel, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Ralston, Sir Godfrey and Lady Thomas, Sir Frederick and Lady Williams-Taylor, Mrs. Colville, Miss Colville, Lord Beaverbrook, Field Marshal Sir George and Lady Milne, Col. Sir John Young, Sir Eccles and Lady Snowden, Sir Benjamin and Lady Morgan, Col. and Mrs. J. Obed Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kinghorn, Miss Kinghorn, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hanratty, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pangman, Miss Eustella Burke.

(Governor Bruce and his niece attended the opening of the Legislature here in February.)

NOTED BANKER RETURNS FROM OLD COUNTRY

Montreal, April 26—The passengers who arrived here on the C. P. R. liner Duchess of Richmond yesterday included Sir Frederick William Taylor, vice-president of the Bank of Montreal, who has been in England for some time. Sir Frederick was naturally much grieved to learn of the sudden death yesterday of Mr. H. B. McKenzie, who succeeded him as general manager of Canada's premier banking institution.

WINTER PORT SEASON HAS BEEN CLOSED

(Saint John, N. B., April 25—With the sailing of the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Atholl from here today the Saint John winter passenger traffic season came to a close for the year 1930. The liner carried a large list of prominent passengers to Great Britain including Shayle Gardner, well known English actor, who has been engaged in making talking films in Hollywood for the last ten months.

During the 1929-30 season 64 arrivals and departures were made by C. P. R. steamers at this port and the passenger traffic was as heavy if not heavier than the season before.

The Canadian Pacific freight steamers of the "Beaver" class made 36 arrivals and departures from this port during the winter season. Carrying on the beaver steamers were above the average as far as general cargo was concerned although grain carryings were less than those of the preceding season.

MANAGER OF ROYALS ILL IN HOSPITAL

Baltimore, April 25—Manager Eddie Holly of the Royals left here this morning with the team for Reading, but he will not be present when they play the Keystone this afternoon. At Philadelphia Holly will enter a hospital to receive treatment for sinus trouble.

The Royals' manager has not been in the best of health since the team left Raleigh, N. C., on the trip North. At that point he was treated for bronchial trouble but failed to recover. At Philadelphia today he will put himself in the care of Dr. Hoffman, a brother-in-law, in the John Heinenmann Hospital. Exposure to the cold weather here yesterday aggravated the manager's illness and a local physician advised him to enter the Philadelphia hospital.

GOLFER HAS DRAG WITH THIS BANKER

Chicago, April 26—David R. Forgan, banker would rather pay an employee more money for the same job if he plays golf because he is better equipped physically, mentally and morally, as the result of golf, to do his work. He so remarked at a meeting of the Association of Commerce. Born in St. Andrews, he regards golf as the greatest thing ever invented by a Scotchman.

(Mr. Forgan was a former manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city.)

Joint Meeting.

A joint meeting of the Police Commission and the City Council committee on Roads and Streets, was held yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office of the City Hall. Routine matters were discussed, and traffic regulation amendments proposed. Action will be taken in the near future on several traffic matters.

Mr. R. B. Hanson, K. C., M. P. P., is leaving today for Ottawa to resume his parliamentary duties.

GRAF ZEPPELIN TO MAKE RECORD MAIL SERVICE

Will Start On Flight to South America Next Month

TO GET MAIL AT SEVEILLE

Hand It Over to Airplanes at Pernambuco, Brazil.

(Special Cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Berlin, April 26—A speed record of mail service between Berlin and Rio De Janeiro will be made when the Graf Zeppelin makes its flight to South America some time next month.

The German postal authorities announced that South American mail would be sent to Seville, Spain by train and airplane. The Graf Zeppelin will pick up the mail there, transporting it to Pernambuco, Brazil, where airplanes again will take it and complete the journey to Rio De Janeiro.

The Graf Zeppelin last year made a flight around the world under the direction of Dr. Eckener, completing the tour in twelve days.

ST. PAUL'S FACE HANDICAP IN SECOND GAME

Ottawa, April 25—A 10 point deficit will stare the St. Paul's Church team of Fredericton, N. B., in the face when they take the floor tomorrow night in the second and final game of the Canadian junior basketball championship series being played here. Tonight the red-shirted youngsters from the Maritimes bowed to the superior court generalship and more accurate shooting of the Ottawa Britannias and the piping of the final whistle found them on the short end of a 34-24 score.

SPUD PRICES AT HARTLAND

Hartland, April 25—Today's potato market was a repetition of the previous three days, quiet but firm, with moderate wire inquiry and demand and just enough orders to take care of the offerings. Bad weather and soft roads have made the haulings very light. Farmers received today $3 for Green Mountains and $2.75 for Irish Cobblers, Canada grade one. A few choice lots brought 10 to 15 cents more.

SERIOUS FIRE IN MONTREAL

Montreal, April 25—Four people were carried down ladders by firemen and 200 others escaped by their own efforts when fire partly gutted a four-story brick and stone apartment house here tonight. The building contained 74 apartments, and all but two were occupied. Four people trapped by smoke on the top floor were rescued by firemen. None were injured.

Uncertainty of Life.

A parcel received by express at the local branch of the Bank of Montreal yesterday contained a framed portrait of the General Manager, Mr. H. B. McKenzie, who expired suddenly at the head office of the bank yesterday. When the parcel left Montreal he was in good health, but when it reached its destination he was dead.

M. S. Miller of Moncton is in the city today.

British Premier Will Hasten Back To London by Air

Two Serious Problems Confronting the Government Has Made It Necessary for Him to Cut Short His Holiday—Indian Government Imposes Censorship on Messages to London.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

LONDON, April 26—The Prime Minister, Right Hon. Ramsay MacDonald will likely abandon his holiday in Scotland and rush back to London by air owing to two serious problems which are confronting the government—the situation in India and the negotiations with Egypt. The fact that the Indian Government has imposed censorship on messages to London from places near the northwest frontier, and that British women and children have been evacuated from Peshawar shows how perilous the Indian situation has become.

C. N. R. REACHES OBJECTIVE IN FIRST AID

Toronto, Ont., April 25—Speaking before the industrial accident prevention Association annual convention here today W. D. Robb vice-President of the Canadian National Railways, stated that the National System had practically reached its objective of spreading first aid throughout the railway system so that no accident could occur to either employee or passenger over the 23,000 miles of line without a competent aid being at hand to render necessary assistance—on the Canadian National Railways, both safety first and first aid were practiced with well defined courses laid down—one was the prevention the other the cure—employees undertook the instruction in first aid voluntarily and the women employees took an additional training in home nursing. The vice-President pointed with pride to the fact that among notable cups won last year by C. N. R. teams was the Montizambert trophy emblematic of the championship for all Canada.

HERMIT OF SEVEN SEAS SEEKING SOLITUDE AGAIN

Oran, Algeria, April 26—Alain Gerbault, strange hermit of the seven seas, was in Oran today preparing to start on an automobile cruise of the Moroccan Desert alone.

Gerbault, tall, athletic, completed a tour of the world last July, unaccompanied, in a 30-foot sloop. He was six years, circling the earth in his tiny craft, which carried him across oceans safely from continent to continent.

He reached Havre on July 26, last summer, and a great welcome was given the sportsman who craved silence and his own company. Eight months of civilization drove him to the places where few men live and he arrived here yesterday, of again in search of quiet.

FAMILY IN PLAY

New York, April 26—The widow, three daughters and four sons of the late Jacob P. Adler, star of the Yiddish stage, are to appear in the same play, a revival of "The Wild Man."

A boy does not forget his grandmother if he learns it around home.

PRISONERS IN BULGARIA ON HUNGER STRIKE

(Special Cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Sofia, Bulgaria, April 26—Four hundred inmates of the Varna County prison were on a hunger strike today in protest against stringent regulations enforced in the prison since the escape of the notorious murderer, Joseph Lubenof.

Lubenof escaped a fortnight ago with two other prisoners to whom he was fettered. He was later recaptured.

The Bulgarian minister of justice has ordered an inquiry into prison conditions.

PARROTS THE CAUSE OF A NEW DISEASE

(Special Cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Geneva, April 26—The exportation of disease Amazon parrots during the summer and fall of 1929 was blamed for the psittacosis—"Parrot disease"—epidemic which causes many deaths in America and elsewhere early this year, in a resume issue here by the League of Nations International Health Organization.

SIXTEEN MEN MAY HAVE PERISHED

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Greenwich, Conn., April 26—Hope was virtually abandoned today for the lives of sixteen members of the freighter Thames who were unaccounted for after the vessel caught fire Thursday night and was abandoned in Long Island sound.

LABOR M. P. TAKES A WIFE

(Special Cable to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

London, April 26—Will Thorne, 73 year old laborite member of Parliament, was married today to Miss Beatrice Nellie Collins 42, in the West Ham Parish Church.