HAVE A HOBBY

Dr. James J. Walsh of Fordham University, speaking in Boston, warned of the importance of mental diversion. He said that everybody should have a hobby to divert his thoughts from the channels in which they flow during the working day.

That is sound advice, from every viewpoint. It is sound morally and physically. By all means have a hobby. Thousands of persons get mental relief driving automobiles. Some play golf. Some play trombones and some even see how many threads they can get into the eye of a needle.

Regardless of what you do, useful or otherwise, provided it be some decent act, you are going to benefit. Besides, do not be a bore and talk shop too much out of hours. Get a hobby. It is particularly important that you see to it that your children have hobbies.

A WARNING NOTE.

President H. G. Chestnut of the York County Branch of the New Brunswick Fish and Game Protective Association, says that the steam trawler is in a fair way to destroy the salmon fisheries of New Brunswick. Mr. Chestnut is beyond a doubt one of the best informed sportsmen in the Dominion of Canada and his views on this important subject should carry weight. The matter is one of great importance to New Brunswick. Visiting anglers leave half a million dollars annually in this province and the commercial catch of this splendid fish is worth a large sum. Surely some remedy can be found for the conditions complained of by Mr. Chestnut. It is surely bad policy to kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

A RICH EXPERIENCE

Irene Hansen, school teacher and lecturer on psychology, spent five years travelling around the world, working her way in all sorts of jobs. She was waitress, house maid, picked tips, wrote advertisements, taught in foreign schools, and did various other things. And she learned a great deal about people and the world in which you live. It would hardly be practical to advise every young woman to do what Miss Hansen did, but it is a rich experience.

If we could only spend some time working on the other man's job and sitting where the other man sits, we might in time become educated.

The birthday of George Washington, first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen is being celebrated throughout the United States today with old time enthusiasm.

Perhaps the perfect cynic was the ineffable Rothstein who went the hard way in New York, and who once remarked, "Why should there be honor among thieves? They are no better than other people."

A Western firm of purveyors to the amusement park trade is offering 12 pickled whales for sale. However, the family being small, we imagine that for our table a marinated walrus would be as much as we could handle.

Almost everyone who would, has discussed the case of the Flint embezzler named DeCamp, but no conscientious humorist cares to have all his work done for him.

The city of Elkhorn, Wisconsin, has so much money in its treasury, the disposal of the surplus is a problem. Elkhorn is too far from Chicago, it seems to be annexed.

California earthquakes have been timelier than usual, this season. We understand they shake the heavy snow off the orange boughs.

THROUGH OUR SHEVE

Many citizens think there should be an open season on dogs during the winter time.

The United States students, who have been debating on the disintegration of the British Empire were unable to prove their case.

To the man who wants to sleep any noise is useless.

Everybody at the London conference seems to be in love with peace—plus.

Our idea of holding back something is to say that airplanes are as safe as automobiles.

This has been a great winter for the weather bureau. People don't forget there is such an institution.

We think we know now, after observing a pigeon, where fashion got the idea of making the skirts long behind and short in front.

Can you think of anything in particular you want to do next September? Because if you have anything in mind, pay attention to the astrologer's announcement that the world will come to an end during that month. If he is right it will make a good story.

OPERATIONS IN WOODS GOING AHEAD RAPIDLY

in the north, and motor tractors are being utilized successfully in some of the northern counties. In southern counties, Albert particularly the snow is very deep. About a foot and a half fell there during the past week-end. Hauling in the north is about completed. In Madawaska it has been practically finished, except for some pulp wood. In general, the cut this year will probably be the average of recent years. The present winter has been a successful one from the woodsmen's standpoint.

W. E. SEERY PASSED AWAY EARLY TODAY

fifteen years ago when he sold out and retired. For the past ten years he served as messenger in the Legislative Assembly and was widely known. The late Mr. Seery possessed a kindly disposition and was gifted with native Irish wit that helped win for him a large measure of popularity. He possessed a big heart and enjoyed the esteem of all who knew him. His death removed a connecting link between the past and present which will be much missed.

The deceased was seventy-four years of age and is survived by a widow, who is a daughter of the late Patrick McGinn of this city. Their only child, died in infancy. Three sisters, Mrs. Patrick Dever of Los Angeles, Mrs. Edward Condon of Ottawa and Miss Josephine Seery of this city survive. The late Dr. F. J. Seery of this city was a brother and T. Fred Dever who holds a high position on the staff of the Royal Bank in South America is a nephew.

Stormy Weather Hard on Baby

The stormy, blistery weather which Canadians experience during February and March is extremely hard on babies and young children. Conditions make it necessary for the mother to keep them confined to the house, whose rooms may be overheated or badly ventilated. The little ones catch cold and their whole system becomes racked. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the home and an occasional dose given the baby to keep him fit, or if a cold suddenly grips him to restore him to health again and keep him in good condition till the brighter, warmer days come along again.

Baby's Own Tablets are just what the mother needs for her little ones. They are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach; break up colds and simple fevers; banish constipation and indigestion and make the cutting of teeth easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE NEXT WORST THING

A situation in which totally un-insured property is destroyed by fire is the worst imaginable.

And the next worst is the destruction by fire of property on which there was inadequate insurance.

In the second instance, the owner went to the trouble of taking out a policy, and yet he is a loser—simply because he didn't bother to appraise his possessions carefully, or to reappraise them when their value increased.

WE CAN HELP YOU TO INSURE ADEQUATELY.
