Fifteen Lives Lost When Motor Ship was Wrecked in a Storm

A Man and Three Children Were Trapped in the Cabin—The Captain Was Swept Overboard While Trying to Save Baby—Fourteen Were Saved.

(Special to THE DAILY MAIL by the British United Press.)

Melbourne, Australia, June 21—Fifteen persons were lost today in the wreck of the motor ship Vaiviri in a storm off Papua. The dead included Magistrate Berge and his three children. They were trapped in the cabin of the Vaiviri.

The captain of the ship was swept away with Berge's baby whom he was trying to save. Mrs. Berge who also was attempting to save the baby reached the beach after nine hours of struggle in the water. Thirteen others, all natives were saved.

BODY OF BLIND NEWS VENDOR DISCOVERED

Provincial Police headquarters here today received word of the discovery of the body of John Johnson, 45, of Chatham, blind newspaper vendor, in the Miramichi River near Newcastle. Evidence pointed strongly to his having fallen into the river accidentally and drowned. There were no marks of violence on the body.

Johnson's body was discovered by R. D. Roche, a resident of Newcastle, who found his body caught in a salmon net while he went to look over his nets.

Johnson, who was popularly known as "Johnnie the blind boy" and who had endeared himself to all by his sunny personality, was first reported missing from his home on Monday morning, and was last seen by a friend enroute across the Morrissey bridge over the Miramichi river at 7 a. m.

The drawn span of the bridge was open at the time and it was feared that he had missed his footing and plunged to his death in the river. Since Monday, Provincial Police, and others have been assiduously engaged in the search for the missing newspaper vendor, but up until this morning, the search proved more and more futile. It is expected that the funeral will be held on Sunday.

DOG GUARDIAN OF FUTURE KING

Seville, Spain, June 20—The future King of Spain has a devoted attendant named Teddy. He rides on the running board of the royal motor car. Teddy made a lot of noise at an amusement park when anybody else tried to enter the same scenic railway coach or chute-the-chutes boat. The Prince of Asturias did some explaining that the bark is worse than the bite. Teddy is an English setter.

BADLY INJURED WHEN LIQUOR TRUCK CRASHES

The heavy motor truck owned by the N. B. Liquor Control Board got into difficulties about 15 miles out of St. John yesterday afternoon, when the front wheels slipped in the road gravel, skidded badly, and truck, load, and passengers were hurled over a 30 ft. embankment. The driver, Percy Daye, escaped with minor bruises while his companion Horncastle suffered 3 broken ribs and was hurried to the St. John Hospital. Of the 300 cases carried by the truck, 170 were salvaged. Sweet liquid from the smashed wreckage has gone on to join the brimming river, as much that is, as has not been scooped up in bottles, flasks and other household utensils.

PREMIER KING NOW ON TOUR OF THE MARITIMES

Reviewed the Record of His Government in a Speech at Moncton Last Evening.

Moncton, N.B., June 20—The record of the present Dominion Government was laid before the people of the Maritime Provinces here tonight by Canada's Prime Minister. From the stage of a theatre Premier Mackenzie King fired the opening gun of his Maritime Province campaign. By radio his words were carried through the Maritime Provinces into the homes of thousands of people.

The Prime Minister reviewed labor and railway matters—this city is a railway centre—discussed the question of Maritime rights and the Duncan Report and made a plea for calm consideration of the Government's record. An excellent hearing was accorded him and his speech was punctuated with applause.

Recommendations of the Duncan Report had been implemented by the Government, said the Premier, and he outlined the action which had been taken. He preferred in conclusion to benefits which would accrue to Maritime ports through increased trade under the British preference.

Veniot A Speaker

A radio hook-up of stations ONRA Moncton, and CFBO, Saint John, carried the voice of Prime Minister to all parts of the Maritime Provinces. Through the medium of loud speakers the speech was heard in a park not far from the theatre.

C. C. Avard, of Sackville, president of the Westmorland Liberal Association, acted as chairman of the meeting. Hon Dr. P. J. Veniot, Postmaster-General and New Brunswick representative in the Federal Cabinet, sat at the right of Mr. King. Senator A. B. Copp, of Sackville, a former members for Westmorland constituency, occupied a seat on the platform, as also did Senator C. W. Robinson.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 8.30 P. M., and the chairman announced that Henry R. Emmerson had been chosen as Liberal candidate in Westmorland constituency. He immediately called on Mr. Emmerson to speak.

Mr. Emmerson remarked that if Premier Ferguson wanted to make Prime Minister Mackenzie the issue in this campaign he thought the people of Canada would accept the issue. He asked for the support of the electors.
