

SHE RECOMMENDS "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Mrs. Corbett Read the Advertisement and Tried It

AVON, ONT., May 14th, 1914.
"I have used 'Fruit-a-tives' for Indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. I saw 'Fruit-atives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them. The results were more than satisfactory, and I have no hesitation in recommending 'Fruit-atives'." ANNIE A. CORBETT.

Time is proving that 'Fruit-a-tives' can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in all cases of Constipation and Stomach Trouble.

GARDEN PLOT WANTS PLENTY OF SUNSHINE

(By Prof. Spade.)

First see that the garden plot will have plenty of sunshine. Vegetables must have sun as well as rain. The latter may be supplied by a hose.

Don't lay out beds. That's the old fashioned way. It requires a lot of unnecessary work, and there is loss of moisture during hot weather.

Lay out rows the full length of the plot. Allow plenty of space between in which to walk. Have all rows run north and south, to give the sun a chance to reach both sides of each row.

If rows are too long you may grow two or three kinds of vegetables in the same row. For example, a row containing parsnips and salsify, or parsnips, salsify and late carrots would be an ideal combination.

For small stuff, such as radishes, lettuce, etc., the rows may be a foot or two apart; for tall growing or widely spread plants like corn and tomatoes at least three feet apart.

Have all the small stuff at one side of the garden, the east side is the better; gradually going up with bush beans, cabbages, corn, tomatoes and pole beans as you near the other or west side.

As you sow the seed put some identification mark on the row so you will know when and what you sowed.

AMENDMENT TO JUDICA- TURE ACT BEFORE HOUSE

Attorney General Makes a Statement in Regard to the Fees Paid to Court Clerks
---Mr. Perley's Suggestion That Municipalities Appoint the Clerks Was Not Received With Favor.

The House opened Thursday evening at 9.15.

Mr. Speaker read a letter from the Right Hon. Sir Robert Borden, acknowledging the receipt of the copy of the resolution moved by Lieut. Col.
Guthrie.

The House went into committee, Mr. Munroe in the chair, and agreed to the bill respecting taxes on life insurance agents with an amendment increasing the tax from $2 to $5 and also to the bill to establish an isolation hospital in the City and County of St.
John and for other purposes, with an addition providing for the assessment of a poll tax in the Parish of Lancaster in aid of the Patriotic fund.

The bill to amend the Judicature Act was then taken up. Hon. Mr. Baxter said that he thought most of the members would agree with him that courts were necessary, and if so, the clerk of a court was a necessary part of the machinery as a record had to be kept and other duties performed. These duties involved many important matters of detail for which the clerk was entitled to compensation for the time and trouble he was put to. As far as he (Baxter) had been able to ascertain there was no rule whatever anywhere to be found regulating the amount of fees to which the clerk should be entitled. Hitherto it had been the practice of the clerks to make out a bill which was certified to by the presiding judge and then forwarded to the Attorney General for his approval, after which it was sent in to the County Treasurer, who paid it. For lack of any recognized table of fees, a system of charging had grown up and experimented on till nowadays the bills were so amplified and distorted that they bore no resemblance whatever to those which were rendered years ago when the duties were first performed. As an instance he might give, the fee for calling a grand jury was originally 30 cents. The practice had now grown up of charging thirty cents for calling each juror's name, which resulted in the charge becoming $7.20 instead of the original thirty cents.

It would not be fair to assume that these men were deliberately charging fees for which they were not entitled, they were merely seeking to obtain proper compensation for their time and labor. In preparing the bill now before the committee he had adopted the principle that the clerk should not expect to be paid a larger fee than that paid to the counsel representing the Crown. It had been his practice since he had been Attorney General to allow prosecuting counsel $25 per day in the circuit courts and fifteen in the county courts, although he did not know any particular reason beyond that of custom why there should be any difference in the fee paid in the two courts, as the labor involved in the County Court was often quite as much, and sometimes more than in the Supreme Court. He had therefore prepared the bill on what he thought to be a reasonable basis and fair to both the county and the clerks. He desired to prevent overcharges on the part of the latter, but at the same time he wanted to see they got a fair remuneration for the work they were called upon to do.

In discussing the matter with some members of the bench, he obtained considerable information, and his proposals met with approval.

The Clerk's Fees.

The following are the fees to be paid to clerks of the Circuit Courts: For services in opening court, certifying jury fees, etc. $25.00 Each day's attendance of more than three hours while criminal business only is before the court, including all services. 20.00
The like, less than three hours. . . 10.00 Each letter necessarily written in connection with criminal business. 1.00 Such allowance for postage, etc., as the judge shall certify is reasonably necessary.
Each day's attendance while civil business is before the court. . . 10.00 Such other fees as shall be certified to by the Judge and the Attorney General.

Mr. Perley's Suggestion.

Mr. Perley inquired if while the matter of fees was being arranged for it would not be possible to add a section giving the municipalities the privilege of appointing the clerks.

Hon. Mr. Baxter said of course that could be done, but he was not prepared to add such a section at the present

SHE DID NOT NEED THE DANGER SIGNALS

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Diabetes.

Mrs. McDonald Might Have Saved Herself Months of Pain, Sleeplessness and Anxiety by Using Dodd's Kidney Pills Earlier.

Grand Narrows, Victoria Co., N.S.
April 17—(Special)—That Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure kidney disease in its worst form is evidenced by the case of Mrs. Roderick McDonald, an estimable resident of this place. Mrs.
McDonald suffered from diabetes for two years and found her first relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I am sure I would be in my grave today but for Dodd's Kidney Pills," Mrs. McDonald states. "The doctor attended me for five months for diabetes, but I was worse when I stopped taking his medicine than when I started. I could not get a wink of sleep."

"As soon as I started taking Dodd's Kidney Pills I fell in a solid sleep for one hour and soon I got so that I could sleep fine."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills have done so much for me that I feel like recommending them to everybody."

Mrs. McDonald states that her earlier symptoms were shortness of breath, dizziness, backache and a bitter taste in her mouth in the morning. All these are symptoms of kidney trouble—danger signals that no one can afford to neglect. Had she heeded them and taken Dodd's Kidney Pills she would have saved herself months of pain and anxiety.

time. The appointment had always been made by the Government, and he did not think the municipalities could do much better in the matter of selecting gentlemen than the Government did. Part of the clerk's duty was to keep a record of criminal business, which of course was a crown affair and therefore the appointment was properly in the Government's hands.

As he proposed to add another section to the bill dealing with advertising sales of property under order of the court, he moved that progress be reported.

The bill to amend the County Courts Act was then taken up. This is a bill on similar lines to the last bill, and deals with the fees to be paid to the clerks of county courts. The following is the schedule of fees provided:

In lieu of all costs at present accustomed to be taken by any clerk of the County Court, except from parties litigant, the clerk shall receive in respect of all services performed by him in connection with the grand jury the sum of. . . . $15.00 For all services rendered by him under section 102 of the County Courts Act, the sum of. . . . 5.00 With an additional five dollars if the Judge shall certify that an unusual amount of labor was involved.

For acting as prosecuting counsel for each day of more than four hours. 20.00 Less than four hours, but more than two. 10.00 Less than two hours, or if the prisoner pleads guilty. 5.00 For acting as clerk only and not as prosecuting counsel, for each day when criminal prosecutions are actually proceeding. . . 10.00 For each day when civil cases exclusively are being heard for at least one hour, but not to include first day, if there is a grand jury, the sum of. . . 10.00 Progress was then reported on this bill also.

The House again went into committee, Mr. Munro in the chair, and took up the consideration of the bill to amend the General Mining Act.

After some discussion the committee agreed to the bill with certain amendments.

The House adjourned at 11.25.

ACQUIRING CONTROL.

Now, pity cellar windows all,
And kitchen transoms, too,
For Little Willie with his ball

How to Tell Whether Tea and Coffee are Causing your Troubles

It seems easy to leave off drinking tea or coffee and note the results.

But you say, "I can't do without my morning cup," so the dreary days follow one another, the same old pains and aches slowly growing a little worse. Do you dare think of the road ahead, if that downward tendency keeps on, and why shouldn't it unless you change the daily habit?

Suppose today you assert your right to crush habit and start a new and healthful life.

It's easy to quit tea and coffee and take on the pure food-drink made of clean, whole wheat roasted with a bit of molasses. It contains no CAFFEINE—the drug in tea and coffee that causes so much trouble.

POSTUM

Postum is not only free from drugs, but it has fine color and aroma and a snappy, winning flavor that makes it easy for anyone to give up tea and coffee.

There are two forms of Postum. The original Postum Cereal must be well boiled; Instant Postum is a soluble powder—a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water with sugar and cream, makes a delicious cup instantly.

Grocers everywhere sell both forms—they are equal in taste—and the cost per cup is about the same.

Ten days freedom from tea and coffee will show
