HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Sweet apple cider has about the same food value as fresh apples.

To clean fur, first sponge it well with gasoline to loosen the dirt. If it is very soiled, rub in cornmeal while the fur is still damp, then beat out the meal and brush the fur thoroughly. Finish by hanging the fur in the sunshine for several hours.

Grape juice put up now may be used in jellies and beverages later in the season; and a simple and quick way to make jelly from the juice is by the addition of fruit pectin.

Since it takes food to make flesh, an increased appetite is the first need in bringing underweight persons to normal weight. In short, eat more and weigh more.

Frozen meat should be placed in the kitchen for several days before it is cooked. Meat thawed quickly is invariably tough.

A pot of parsley taken up from the late fall garden is a pretty bit of greenery for the kitchen window sill as well as furnishing an excellent seasoning for winter soups.

If one has tired of making jellies, surplus fruit juices canned in one or two-quart jars may be filled at leisure later in the winter, furnishing fresh jelly when the jelly shelf runs low.

If you add a piece of lard the size of a walnut to the boiling water with which you make starch, it will prevent the iron sticking and impart an excellent gloss to your linen.

RAISIN BUNS

4 cups bread flour
1 cup sugar
1 yeast cake
3 tablespoons warm water
1 1/3 cups scalded milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup seedless raisins
1/2 teaspoon soda
2 tablespoons molasses
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 teaspoon lemon extract
Put the shortening into the scalded milk and let it melt. Dissolve the yeast cake in the warm water (lukewarm). Mix the flour, sugar and salt and when the milk mixture is lukewarm, add it with the yeast to the flour. It will make a soft dough. Beat to mix thoroughly, cover and let rise in a warm place overnight or for several hours. When light measure out the soda. It should be a scant quarter of a teaspoon. Mix it with just enough warm water to dissolve and stir it into the sponge. Stir in the washed and dried raisins and the lemon extract. A tablespoon of grated lemon rind may be added, too, if desired. Mix thoroughly and turn out on lightly floured board to about an inch in thickness. Cut with small round cookie cutter, put in buttered pan to raise again (the raisins will make it take a little longer) and bake in a moderate oven. Mix melted butter and molasses and brush the tops of the buns when you take them from the oven.

CHOCOLATE SOUFFLE

3 squares of bitter chocolate
2 tablespoons butter melted
2 tablespoon sflour
3/4 cup scalded milk
3 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons hot water
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
Melt the butter in the top of a double boiler, blend the flour with it and gradually stir in the milk. Cook until thick. Add hot water to the shaved chocolate and melt over hot water, add sugar and stir until smooth, then add this to the milk mixture, beat the egg yolks slightly and stir them in, add the vanilla. Let cool. This far may be done before dinner if it is set aside carefully covered. Just before serving fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs and bake in a buttered baking dish twenty five minutes in a moderate oven (too hot will spoil it) until firm in the center. Serve at once with a hard sauce or whipped cream.

JELLY CHEESE DROPS

2 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons shortening
5 tablespoons soft cheese or 1/2 cup grated cheese
1/2 to 3/4 cup milk
Jelly or marmalade
Sift dry ingredients together, add shortening working in with a fork or pastry-blender. Work in cheese. Add sufficient milk to make a soft dough. Drop portions into small muffin pans, filling two thirds full, or shape as small biscuits.

CELERY SAUCE

3/4 cup diced celery
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon chopped pimiento
Brown the celery in the butter. Mix the flour to a paste with a little of the milk. Add the remainder of the milk to the celery and when hot add the flour paste and seasonings. Add pimiento last.

When the white man took this country from the Indians he obligated himself to make the best of it. That bond can't be repudiated.

"Women are making great strides," remarked the Man on the Car, "but they are not yet equal to the men who are building the houses and digging the sewers."
