

Is Lincoln The Spy
En Route To England

New York, Feb. 10.—The New York American this morning, under a cable despatch from London, stating that Ignatius T. E. Lincoln is now on the Atlantic, en route to Europe, prints a letter from Lincoln dated from South Amboy, N.J., Feb. 8, (where the Dupont Powder Works are located.) The American says the letter bears its own evidence of being from Lincoln and the handwriting is unmistakable. The letter says in part: "I came to South Amboy to look over the Dupont Powder Works. Don't get excited, please. I have not come to blow them up, not that this would be impossible. If Messrs. Biclaski and Oly doubt my ability all they have to do is to declare so in your columns and I will immediately deposit in any convenient spot gun powder and dynamite in any desired quantity, without any bomb or other annoying apparatus at first. By the time this letter reaches you I shall be back in New York—to prove which I shall myself ring up Capt. Oly on the telephone and call his attention to this statement in your columns."

HAD RASH 7 YEARS!
Yet Zam-Buk Cured It.

"Never again shall I use cheap, common ointments, since I have proved how wonderful Zam-Buk is." So writes Mrs. Joe Valliere of 903 Hale St., Escanaba, Mich. She adds "For seven years I suffered with a rash on my hands, which all the ointments I used—and I used many—failed to cure. I had despair'd of ever finding relief when I heard of Zam-Buk, and as a last resort determined to give it a trial. It was not long before I found that Zam-Buk is no ordinary ointment! Zam-Buk was proving itself capable of doing what all the other ointments had failed to do—it was effecting a cure."

"Naturally, finding this out, I persevered with it, and its use resulted in a complete cure. I have had no return of the rash since, so I know the cure is permanent. After seven years of useless trying of remedies, I appreciate the great healing power of Zam-Buk."

If you are troubled with eczema, ulcers, or eruptions, you will find Zam-Buk equally effective, also for ring-worm, running sores, blood poisoning, abscesses, pimples, cold sores, chapped hands, piles, burns, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc. All druggists and stores, 50c. box, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations.

"So you have taken to carrying around a money? This is going too far."

"Well, you never go anywhere without me," was his wife's somewhat ambiguous retort.—Pittsburg Post.

OFFICIAL CANADIAN GOVT.
FILMS COMING TO F'TON.

"Canada's Fighting Forces," the official Canadian government war film, will be shown in Fredericton for two days at the Gaiety Theatre, by means of a special arrangement which the management has just made. Accompanying the picture will be an interesting talk by Corporal White, D.C.M., hero of Ypres and St. Julien, who will tell a thrilling story of the life of Canadian boys in khaki at the firing line, and of the bravery and heroism which have won them such respect. The films are in six reels, and were made by Lieut. D. J. Dwyer in Europe for the department of militia, as a record of the war. These showed in such a splendid manner the real life of Canadian soldiers that it was decided to show them at once to the public, and the showings in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto have met with huge success. They will be particularly interesting locally, as several hundred Maritime Province boys are clearly recognizable in the films, including the 12th Field Battery, in training at Shorncliffe. Of course the most interesting portion of the films are those showing trench work, bursting of bombs in the trenches, an attack on the enemy, and the throwing and bursting of hand grenades only forty yards from the camera. But fascinating, too, are the scenes showing the Duchess of Connaught's Canadian hospital at Clivedon, the care of the wounded there and at the Queen's Canadian hospital, and the splendid work of the Canadian nursing sisters. The visit of Sir Robert Borden and Sir Sam Hughes overseas was recorded, and Major Generals Turner and Carson are also prominent in the picture. A review by His Majesty the King shows forty thousand Maple Leaf troops at one time and the visits of President Poincare and gallant King Albert are also worth seeing. Through out six reels there is not a moment that does not hold and please an audience and inspiring martial music, from a special score, accompanies each scene. The performance in Ottawa was attended by Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia, who highly commended both Lieut. Dwyer, who took all the pictures, and the speaker for his highly interesting explanation of the various scenes.

For he needn't bother
To make up his mind.

WHY NOT?

"What's the difference," inquired the landlady, "between a turkey dinner and a mess of stewed prunes?"

"I don't know," said the solemn boarder.

"In that case," she continued, "I might as well save money and serve prunes."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
