FAMILY TRAVEL MANY MILES

Black River Falls, Wisconsin, Oct. 12—Mr. and Mrs. Al Nelson and their son, who have travelled 200,000 miles in a house car during the past three years, are little concerned about the depression.

Selling a fountain pen appliance in all parts of the country, they reported they are making a comfortable living. They started from Champaign, Ill.

Marriages and divorces are increasing in the United States. After all, that's not so startling, for the greater the supply of marriages, the more demand there will be for divorces.

CITIES IN TIE FOR LITERACY HONOR

Washington, Oct. 13—Peoria, Ill., and Long Beach, California are tied for honors as the most literate cities of more than 100,000 population.

The census bureau today issued statistics showing their illiteracy to be only five tenths of 1 per cent.

Fall River, Mass., was the city with the highest percentage of illiteracy, 10.2, largely due to an illiteracy percentage of 27.5 among the foreign-born whites.

A lot of people would have better vision if they threw away their dark glasses.

THREE YOUNG MEN ARRESTED CHARGED WITH THE ROYAL BANK ROBBERY AT HALIFAX, N. S.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 11—One of the most sensational developments in Halifax criminal history occurred Saturday when three youths, natives of this city, were arrested, two charged with robbery with violence in connection with the looting of the Quinpool Road Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada on August 27. More than $13,000, which police say is part of the $15,700 secured from the bank, was recovered by raiding squads who searched the Wellington street home of one of the men arrested.

The three young men are: Chipman H. Smith, Wellington street, Halifax, charged with robbery with violence.

Richard Morse, Bland street, Halifax, charged with robbery with violence.

G. Leroy Dickson, Jennings street, Halifax, junior clerk of the robbed bank, arrested in Glace Bay under a warrant as a material witness.

It was indicated tonight that further arrests were probable.

Police said Chipman Smith and Richard Morse had made statements admitting their implication in the robbery and naming Dickson as an accomplice.

Developments in the case came with startling suddenness on Saturday, and represented the combined work of the Nova Scotia Police and a detective from a Montreal agency who spent several weeks in Halifax conducting a private investigation.

House Searched

Armed with search warrants and warrants for the arrest of Smith and Morse, squads of City and Provincial Police visited the Smith house. Smith and Morse were arrested at their homes, Dickson in Glace Bay, where he had gone to spend his vacation.

Furniture was placed outdoors as onlookers crowded the sidewalks; cushions were ripped open; doors and walls were tapped; finally the sum of $3,271 was found secreted in the cushion of a chair in a bedroom adjoining young Smith's. His room was cluttered with detective fiction. It was not until after dark that the main bulk of the money, $10,000, was found under the top step of a flight of stairs leading to the attic.

To Appear Tuesday

Preliminary hearing in the cases has been set for Tuesday. All three principals had previously been questioned in connection with the case. According to police, statements of Smith and Morse described preparations for the holdup, told how masks, guns and raincoats had been placed in readiness the night before and how arrangements had been completed with Dickson for the dropping of a paper cup out the washroom window of the bank to indicate when the cash had been transferred from the vault to the teller's cage.

The robbery occurred on August 27, when Manager F. O. Robertson, who was transferring the branch to a new manager that day, was slugged over the head, the other employees, including Dickson, being herded into the vault while the bandits looted the cage.

In Court Today

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 12—Chipman Smith and Richard Morse, Halifax youths charged with robbery with violence in connection with the looting of the Quinpool Road Royal Bank Branch in August, spent today in the county jail here awaiting preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Meanwhile, G. Leroy Dickson, junior clerk in the bank, who was one of four employees herded into the vault when two masked men escaped with nearly $16,000, was on his way from Glace Bay in police charge. The warrant under which he was taken into custody while on his holidays Saturday was amended today, making the charge against him uniform with that of the other two, charging robbery with violence. He had been arrested as a material witness.

On the basis of a statement made by Morse, police say, Dickson gave the signal for the daylight robbery by dropping a paper cup out the washroom window of the bank to indicate when the cash had been transferred to the teller's cage.

Police say Dickson was implicated in a statement made to them by Morse. A final checkup of cash recovered from the Smith home on Saturday shows $2,588.20 of the $15,807.50 stolen is still missing. The police are hopeful of further discoveries.

FREDERICTON HIGH WON FROM SAINT JOHN

Local Footballists Took Visiting Team Into
Camp on Saturday by a Score of 9 to 3.

Fredericton High School's fifteen won from Saint John High, 9-3, in a hard fought game here Saturday in the Southern Interscholastic Football League. Second teams for the two schools played also, with a score of 12 to 0 in favor of Fredericton.

The first half was strongly Saint John's game, most of the play being at Fredericton's end of the field, and the visitors having the edge on their opponents in the scrum. The first score in two years against Fredericton by Saint John was made when Gander-ton waltzed out from a scrum near Fredericton's goal line for a touch. Higgins failed to convert, making the score at the end of the half 3-0.

Some nice kicking was displayed by Watson for Saint John, one getting over the Fredericton line, but being touched for safety.

The second half was almost the reverse of the first the play centring at Saint John's end. Fredericton fought hard to get the lead and some brilliant combination runs were made.

Three Tries Made

Three tries were made by Fredericton but none converted. There was some dispute over the third touch as to who put the ball on the line and whether it was a knock-on the referee, Dr. Arthur F. Vanwart, having called it a touch.

After nice passing and a good run, Hatt succeeded in making the first touch, and Thomas stole out from a mix-up at Saint John's 25-yard line for the second. Morse and McKnight failed to convert. The third touch was made by Swan, following a scrum in front of Saint John's goal posts.

The line-ups:
Saint John—Wilson (capt.); Barry, E. Buckley, W. Buckley, Dunlop, Gander-ton, Scott, forwards; McCarroll, Paterson, Hoyt, three-quarters; Watson, Higgins, Fisher, Ralston, halves; Kirkpatrick, fullback; Mullen, Fraser, Hastings Moore, Wiesel, subs.

Fredericton—Gunter, Brewer, Hoyt, Ring, Hughes, Kitchen, Coombes, forwards; Pickard, Thomas, close (Capt), halves; Morse, Swan, White, Hatt, three-quarters; McKnight, fullback; Pond, Palmer, Bartlett, Belding, Han-lon, subs.

JACK SHARKEY GETS BEST OF PRIMO CANERA

Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 12—The myth of Primo Canera's invincibility was blasted wide tonight by Jack Sharkey, the stormy petrel of the heavyweight lists, in one of the greatest 15-round duels the faithful have seen since the last of the Tunney-Dempsey storm scenes in Chicago five years ago.

Heralded as a flop because of the lateness of the season, while 30,000 chilled spectators muffled in overcoats roared from the stands and benches of the National League ball yard, Sharkey came back to smash his way to a one-sided decision as he plastered the giant with every bit of fistic punishment one man can inflict on another, floored him for an uproarious count of from nine to 19 in the fourth round, and left him wobbling, stare-eyed, a huge robot with arms frozen in the position of defense, at the final bell.

Sharkey again was the grim merciless warrior of the days when his name was the most feared of all the young heavyweights. And if he hadn't been over-cautious at times, too willing to hack in snarling superiority at the fading bulk of the man mountain, he might have knocked him down and out in sections in any one of a half dozen rounds.

XMAS TREE TRADE LIKELY TO BE BRISK

Cutting Operations Now Going on Throughout the Country—Many Thousands Will Be Sent to the United States.

Coun. J. K. Lishton, of Millville, who was in the city today, looks for a brisk trade in Christmas trees with the New England states during the coming season. He says that cutting has already begun and the first shipments will be made in the course of a week or ten days. Already a number of American buyers are on the ground and have closed contracts at prices quite equal to those of last year.

Coun. Lishton has operated on his own account for several years, selling direct to New York. He sent forward eighteen carloads last season and expects to do equally as well this year. The trees are put up in bales and a carload consists of from sixteen to eighteen hundred.

Coun. Lishton says that the Christmas tree trade with the New England States is warmly welcomed by the people of the rural sections and will provide considerable employment at fair wages.

Chicago, Oct. 13—The World didn't look so bright to Donat Morrier, thirty four, when he arose from bed yesterday afternoon.

For a time he thought it was a touch of indigestion, but he discovered later that his gold bridge, with five porcelain teeth, was missing. Then he went to a hospital and lisped his story. A surgeon fished them out.
