Outbreak in Cuba Promptly Quelled By the Authorities

Secretary of the Interior Admits That a Condition of Near Revolt Made Precautionary Measures Necessary—The Army Has the Situation well in Hand, it is Reported.

HAVANA, Cuba, May 21—Octavio Zudizaretta, Secretary of the Interior, admitted today that attempts at revolution had been quelled last night by the army at Manzanillo and Jiguani and that a condition of near revolt had made precautionary measures necessary in the towns of Holguin and Chaparra.

He said the Army had the situation well in hand today and that all necessary measures had been taken to prevent recurrence of last night's disturbances. He declined to reveal what casualties, if any, had occurred or whether additional troops were being sent to the other end of the island.

CONFESSES TO SETTING FIRES ON NOR. SHORE

Thomas McKay, After a Grilling, Pleads Guilty to Burning Barns of G. Percy Burchill.

Chatham, May 21—A fortnight's hunt for suspects in the burning of two barns owned by J. Percy Burchill, of Nelson, prominent New Brunswick lumberman and mill operator and threats to burn his mill, led to a four hour grilling last night of Thomas McKay, 28, of Nelson, his arrest and appearance before Magistrate Mersereau here in a midnight arraignment on an arson charge. McKay pleaded guilty and was remanded to the Chatham jail until 1.30 p.m. today when he will be brought before the Magistrate for sentence.

Captain D. A. Noble, of Moncton, chief investigator in the Maritime Provinces for the Fire Underwriters' Investigation and Loss Information Bureau of Canada, who, with his assistant C. R. Plante, of Moncton, and the Provincial Police, have been conducting the investigation, said last night that McKay had confessed setting the barn fires after a four-hour questioning. The Provincial Police were called immediately and McKay was arrested.

First Admission

McKay had earlier admitted to the police that he was the person who had telephoned Mr. Burchill after the fires, the first of which he said he set on April 28 and the second on May 3, according to Captain Noble, and that he threatened Mr. Burchill, saying, "If you tell the police things will be worse for you."

He told the police he wanted to frighten Mr. Burchill into taking on more men at his mill at Nelson. McKay, who returned to Nelson last July from the United States, has been out of work lately.

It is understood Mr. Burchill communicated with the police, telling them of the threatening telephone call. Suspicions had been entertained before he received the call that the barn fires were the work of an incendiary.

The police started an investigation immediately but it was some days before news leaked out that the hunt was on.

Mr. Vincent Craney of Toronto is on a visit to this province, he made the trip by car.

SAYS POTATOES MAY SOON GO UP IN PRICE

St. John, N. B., May 21—"We expect to see clarification of the present slump in the potato market the first of June," said Mayor H. H. Hatfield, of Hartland, president of the N. B. Associated Potato Shippers, when in Saint John Wednesday. "It is understood the Ontario growers have practically completed their shipments and within the next few weeks a better Canadian market will be opened to New Brunswick growers."

Mr. Hatfield, accompanied by A. D. McCain, Florenceville; James E. Porter, of Perth, and C. Gallagher, of Bath, were in the city to complete their individual potato export business for the season.

Mr. McCain said 75 per cent. of the potato planting has been completed in Carleton and Victoria counties and that seeding has been finished at the earliest date for many years.

"The shipments of New Brunswick potatoes to the United States market this season has been made possible from the viewpoint of financial returns to the grower, solely because of the superior quality of St. John river valley potatoes," Mr. Gallagher claimed.

Mayor Hatfield said the market at the present time is "in pretty bad shape."

"We sent 10 steamers laden with potatoes to the United States market this season. They were a God-send to New Brunswick growers. There would have been a much greater amount of potatoes dumped than was the case if these shipments had not gone through. We are pretty well cleaned up now. The stock left is small and very light."

THOMAS SAYS STORIES ARE PURE SPECULATION

Dominions Secretary Figures in Two Reports Today

BLOCKS CREDIT FOR FARMERS

Henderson Unable to Sign Convention Because of Thomas

London, May 21—Right Hon. J. H. Thomas, Secretary of State for the Dominions, is the central figure in two stories today which although officially described as "pure speculation" are believed to have much substance.

H. Wilson Harris the News-Chronicle's Geneva correspondent and a well known authority on the League, asserts that Right Hon. Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary is unable to sign the convention which will make it possible for European farmers to obtain credits at a reasonable rate from the International Mortgage Credit Company because of Mr. Thomas's opposition.

Limited In Approval

France, Italy, Germany and other European states are going to sign, but Mr. Henderson is limited to mere approval owing to difficulties in London. Thomas, declares Harris, considers that any assistance given to European farmers means more competition for Canadian and Australian wheat, although this fear was not expressed by any of the wheat growing countries at the recent Rome conference.

CHICAGO, May 21—The nation's greatest peace time air armada came out of the north today and "attacked" Chicago.

The heavily armed bombers, speedy pursuit ships and fighting attack units passed in review before the air corps commandant, General Benjamin Foulois, at more than one hundred miles an hour and then fell to "dog fighting" over the lake off Navy Pier, giving the massed thousands in Grant Park an idea of what might happen to their city if a real war came.

FIRST SALMON OF SEASON CAUGHT AT SPRINGHILL

R. H. Wheeler Caught a 10-Pounder at Hart's Island Yesterday—Has Non-Resident Angler Booked for Next Week.

Nearly a month earlier than usual the first salmon of the season, a husky ten pounder was taken on a fly at the Hart's Island Pool yesterday. The lucky angler was Roland H. Wheeler, who is usually the first to start the sport at this pool. Mr. Wheeler lives nearby and during the summer months serves as fishery guardian for the provincial department of Lands and Mines. Mr. Wheeler hooked another nice salmon at the pool on Tuesday, but it made a successful get away.

The First Party

Mr. Wheeler is the owner of two well equipped camps on the bank of the river, fronting on the pool, and handles many non-resident anglers during the season. Yesterday he notified Mr. J. F. Freeman, of Worcester, Mass., that the run of salmon had

THE ANGLICAN SYNOD HAS FINISHED WORK

The Meeting at Saint John Lasted Only Two Days—Much Business Disposed of.

St. John N. B. May 21—The 62nd annual meeting of the Fredericton Diocesan Synod adjourned yesterday afternoon the business of the meeting scheduled for three days having been completed in two. The next annual meeting is to be held in Fredericton the date to be decided by the executive.

Great stress was laid upon the work of the Board of Religious Education and the report of the Board received special consideration at the concluding session. A special vote of thanks was tendered to Very Rev. Dean Neales who, as the Commissary of His Lordship Bishop Richardson, presided in the absence of the Bishop. A telegram from the Bishop brought reassurance as to his condition and progress under treatment in hospital in Montreal.

The appointment of committees occupied much of yesterday's session. Rev. Dr. H. A. Moore, president of King's College, was heard on behalf of that institution in the morning. After adjournment the newly-formed committees met for organization and last night a conference of the Diocesan Anglican Young People's Association was held. The clergy attended a dinner in the Admiral Beatty Hotel and the Saint John laymen entertained visiting laymen at a dinner in Trinity Church school room last night.

begun and received word from him that he would arrive next week to try his luck. Mr. Freeman with a party of friends spent two weeks at the pool last season, and succeeded in landing a twenty four pounder. Angling at the pool did not start last year until July.

A Great Pool

No less than 650 salmon and grilse were taken by fly fishermen at the Hart's Island pool last season which is a greater number than were caught in the famous Margaree River in Cape Breton.

Mr. Wheeler was one of a party of New Brunswick guides who attended Sportsmen's Shows at Boston and Philadelphia last winter.
