An Effective Section.

11. When any constable, policeman or local inspector sees any person in a state of intoxication or with liquor in his possession, that officer can cause said intoxicated person to go before a magistrate or a justice or any town clerk, and have him tell where he got his liquor. He shall make an affidavit or affirmation as to where he got such liquor, and failure to do so to the satisfaction of the person taking the affidavit, he can be arrested and imprisoned until he makes such affidavit or declaration. (Secs. 170-171.)

Civil Remedy Section.

12. A civil remedy is provided by the Act in the case of a person whose death has taken place while intoxicated. When any person who has drunk liquor which has been illegally furnished to him comes to his death by suicide or drowning or perishing from cold or other accident, the person who furnished the liquor becomes liable to an action for personal wrong at the suit of the legal representative of the deceased, who may recover damages of not less than $100.00 and not more than $1,000.00 as may be fixed by the court. (Sec. 175.)

When and How it Becomes Operative.

13. In every county of the province where the Canada Temperance Act is now in force, this Act will come into operation immediately upon the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act. In those counties where the New Brunswick License Law is now in force this Act becomes operative on May 1st, 1917.

Slants Of Humor

MOTHER GOOSE FOR GROWN UPS.

Old Mother Hubbard, she lay down uncovered,
One mild, balmy night in the spring,
A stiff breeze from the west caught her straight in the chest,
Now she's down with pneumonia, poor thing

Dickory, dickory dock,
My overcoat's in hock,
But I look a beaut in my Easter suit,

Dickory, dickory dock.

Taffy wore a wrist watch,
Taffy swung a cane,
Taffy came to my house,
To court my daughter Jane;
I went to Taffy's house and told him to desist,
Taffy came to my house and I slapped him on the wrist.

Little Boy Blue got himself in a stew,
While running his car 'round a corner,
His horn wouldn't toot, now he's facing a suit,
And his friends seem to think he's a "goner."

IN COURT TRIALS.

"It's bound to come."
"What is?"
"The time when the beautiful actress, instead of telling the jury her life story, will have it shown to slow music as a film."

SOME ACTOR.

What has become of the old-fashioned tragedian who acted all over the stage.

HIS OPINION.

Bacon—Do you know anything about piano-playing?

Egbert—Why, yes. I have players all about me at home.

"Then do you know the right position of a player's hands?"
"Sure thing. Padlocked."

HERE'S LOOKING AT YOU.

A foreigner was commenting on the strange perversity of the American.

"Why, you can even see it in his cocktail, a strictly American drink," he said.

"How is that?" he was asked.

"Why, he puts in sugar to make it sweet and lemon to make it sour, ice to make it cool and gin to make it hot, and says, 'Here's to you'—and drinks it himself."

BARBERLESS BARBER

SHOP CHICAGO IDEA

Chicago, May 12.—A barberless automat, where persons in need of a shave can smooth their own faces and wash, perfume and powder themselves, is making Chicagoans sit up and take notice. The barberless shop has just opened and is already proving a delight to men who detest the ordeal of the barber.

This "shavetina" or "chin automat" as it has been variously styled, is a decided novelty. Small stalls are arranged around a central plaza that contains a fountain which spouts hot and cold water. Here are talcum powder, perfumes and all the other appurtenances of a barber shop.

After the customer has shaved he throws ten cents into a receptacle in the stall and marches forth. The management guarantees a saving of time, tips and talk.

Today the "shavetina" was crowded. Men came out with their faces scarred as if they had been in battle. Others emerged whose faces seemed to have been scraped by professional

EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW

THAT SANI-FLUSH will banish the disagreeable feature of cleaning toilet bowls. It keeps them spotlessly white, clean and sanitary. It gets at the hidden trap that no brush can reach, cleans it, and prevents odors; makes dipping in water and scrubbing unnecessary.

SANI-FLUSH is made to clean toilet bowls only and does it every time.

-this is what Studebaker COMFORT means!

Just look at that illustration a second time. Look at the roominess of this new Studebaker SERIES 17 FOUR—the individualized COMFORT that's built into the car for every one of the SEVEN passengers it carries.

Not a detail has been overlooked that will make the car easier-riding. The front seats, for example, are divided — and they are also adjustable — that is, they can be moved fore or aft to fit the passenger's wishes.

In the tonneau, roominess is especially evident—lots of room for five full-grown people. The rear seat is wide and deep and luxuriously upholstered with the finest straight-grain, semi-glazed leather. And everywhere roominess, convenience and a host of COMFORTS have been built into the car.

This new Studebaker is the most powerful 4-cylinder car on the Canadian market within hundreds of dollars of its price—the biggest car that any such price as $1225 ever bought—but on COMFORT alone it stands as the GREAT value of the year. Come in and see this splendid "Made in Canada" Car.
