

RELIGIOUS PLAY GEORGE ST. CHURCH WAS A SUCCESS

Drama of 29 A. D. Put On By George Street Baptists a Huge Success—Costumes, Stage Settings Fine.

The play "Whatsoever Ye Sow," a religious drama depicting a story of 29 A. D., was presented on Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the vestry of The George Street Church to a full house and very appreciative audience each night.

The story of the play centered about a rich but cruel and avaricious young Prince Stephen and Lady Rebecca whom he has purchased to become his bride but who hates him because of his cruelty.

Eye For Eye

The prince prides himself on his justice, "an eye for an eye," the law of Moses, being his working rule. The tragic part of his harshness is reached when Jude, a Samaritan debtor, compelled to give over his two sons "the eyes of his heart" for indebtedness, thrusts poison in the face of Stephen and blinds him.

The subsequent endeavors of the people of the court to lead him to humble in penitence before "The Nazarene" are finally successful. When Stephen returns from Jesus of Nazareth, he is found to have not only the restored sight of his eyes, but he has a new sight of everything, a new heart. "He went a prince; he came back a man." The debtors are forgiven, Jude, in a striking scene, expecting vengeance, is sent away in peace, and the bride he had purchased, though she had hated him for his cruelty, he releases to go to her father; but the change in Stephen has made her love him so that she

Son And Heir

C. Walter Clark, City Editor of the Gleaner and Mrs. Clark, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at the Victoria Public Hospital yesterday.

Moderator Here

Rev. Dr. Frank Baird, of Pictou, N. S., Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, arrived yesterday to begin Mrs. Baird, who has been visiting relatives here. The Moderator is on his way to Toronto to attend an important meeting.

Local People Attend

James Neill entertained at his country home at Westfield last evening at which Mr. Justice Baxter, was the honor guest of the evening. Those attending from Fredericton included E. R. Teed, A. W. Barbour, F. S. Mundie, D. W. Ots, and General F. W. Hill, Provincial Police Commissioner.

A Busy Season

Jack Russell, proprietor of Sporting camps at Ludlow, on the Miramichi, was in the city today. He reports that business at his camps so far this season has been away beyond his expectations. "I have handled over thirty anglers," he said, "and I think that I gave them good service. I have a lot of parties booked for the summer, and may have to build more camps to accommodate them." Mr. Russell has been a traveller in many lands, but he has made up his mind that there is no place like New Brunswick.

Directors' Meeting

Directors of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., Ltd., met in quarterly session at the general offices of the company, Saint John yesterday afternoon. Usual routine business was transacted. Those in attendance were: Senator F. B. Black, Sackville; Richard O'Leary, Richibucto; F. R. Sumner, Moncton; J. E. MacPherson, Montreal; R. B. Hanson, Fredericton; Archibald Fraser, Edmundston; E.
