YOU MAKE THE TICKET

Strange how perplexed we are because we don't go further and amount to more. There is only one place to go to find the answer. That place is in our minds and hearts. We make our own tickets. We write the price on the tag. If we provide no dignity for ourselves, no one else will provide it. If we set no high value on our own personalities, we can not expect anyone else to set high value upon us. Lacking self-respect, we must come eventually—and soon—to lack the respect of others.

And once more, we all mark our own tickets. We all determine whether we are cheap or high priced. The world will finally take you for what YOU decide you are worth.

It is claimed that Friday is an unlucky day, but such is not always the case. The records show that in the matter of ocean disasters it is one of the luckiest days of the week. Columbus, when he set out on a voyage of discovery, sailed on Friday, and he landed in the West Indies on Friday. The Mayflower, which was apparently a very large ship, made the harbor of Provincetown, Mass., on Friday, and the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock on Friday.

An appeal for $10,000,000 in aid of sufferers from last years drouth in the mid-western and southern states sponsored by the Red Cross Society, was made by radio last night. The list of speakers included President Hoover, ex-President Coolidge, Judge Payne, Mary Pickford, ex-Governor Alfred E. Smith, Will Rogers and last but not least Amos Jones and Andy Brown, the black faced comedians.

The City of Moncton will likely seek legislation at the approaching session of the Legislature to provide a salary of $600 for the Mayor and one of $300 for each alderman. The time appears to have gone by when men can be prevailed upon to work for nothing and find themselves, even for a municipality.

How far can a game fish swim in a day? Anglers tell us that a salmon when hooked can travel at a three minute clip, but this is probably a fish story. It is known however that a rainbow trout caught at Grand Haven, Michigan, had been tagged seven days before two hundred miles distant in the state of Wisconsin.

The well informed Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Saturday Night does not think there is much likelihood of Right Hon. Arthur Meighen joining the Federal Cabinet at the present time. He adds that reports to that effect which have appeared in the press emanated from Liberal sources.

It is a weight off the mind of the bridegroom, says a household columnist, when he finds out that his bride can cook. Yes, indeed, it is, if the weight isn't transferred elsewhere after she begins doing it.

While it works out O.K. as a foot warmer, we doubt whether the underwriters laboratories would wholly approve of taking an electric waffle iron to bed.

"Is Charlie Chaplin on the toboggan?" asks a film editor. If the editor will get up in the form of a suggestion, we imagine Charlie will pay him for the gag.

"Window boxes are a pretty feature of many of New York skyscraper apartment houses." We understand the family on the roof is going in for edelweiss.

A scientist's definition of a genius is one whose mind grows faster than his bones. In the event that the bones grow faster than the mind, the result may be a shad.

A talking-picture containing only women characters is to be filmed in Hollywood. Some may say that scarcely anything could be more appropriate than that.

Whenever we read the love notes in a breach of promise case we reflect that there's more discretion in a telephone.

A scientist says there is no such thing as a perfect climate. Californians will retort that there is no such thing as a perfect scientist.

Even as a child our attitude toward horehound candy was that it never should have been let out of the pharmacopoeia.

Living through 1930 was a great deal like going to war: Something to talk about but nothing to be in at the time.

A notable feat is that of a Western editor, who started off a recent informative piece on Burma without a dialect quotation from Mr. Kipling.

"The causes of the successive Chinese wars are not always clear," says an observer in Peiping. We don't even know what they are using for money.

Are celebrities buying their cigarettes? We haven't heard of a blind-fold test in a year.

It's remarkable how a short term job like the premiership of France is able to attract the talent it does.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

"I believe in grumbling," says E. W. Howe. Not only does he believe in it, he works at it.

What makes a resolution hard to keep is that you don't feel the same every day of the year.

A firm and well-kept resolve not to make a mess of life covers most of the other resolutions.

I'm falling for you, as a young man remarked to a young lady as he slipped on the icy sidewalk on Queen Street.

Slang is vivid and usually has a clear meaning. Money is probably called "jack" because of its lifting strength.

Among men there is the one who can "make a mountain of a molehill." He should be able to do something with depression.

It was a woman, we are pleased to believe, who wrote: "Needles and pins, needles and pins, when a man marries his trouble begins."

There are pedestrians who seem to dream while crossing a street. The single track mind should never wander far from the business at hand.

Lima Beane says the human type that motives his risible impulses beyond control is the male specimen who struts a warning that he is primed to tell the cockeyed world something.

THE MONTREAL MAROONS LOST TO MAPLE LEAFS

Montreal, Quebec, Jan. 22—Toronto Maple Leafs hung a 4-2 defeat on the Montreal Maroons here tonight in an exciting National Hockey League encounter that looked like another shutout for the Leafs until the third period was half over and the Maroons woke up.

Their last minute thrust with five men up the ice saved them from the ignominy of a whitewashing, but was too late to pull the fat out of the fire. Toronto swarmed over the Maroons all evening with a snappy short passing attack that gave Kerr plenty of work and kept the Maroon squad floundering hopelessly. It was an off night for Duc Munro's hearties. They missed passes and flipped the puck at random.

Jackson, in particular, was outstanding for the Leafs, scoring a couple of goals and threatening always. Ace Bailey was going well until he ran into the goal post and hurt his shoulder. The two and three men attacks of the Leafs worried the Maroons and netted the visitors their victory.
