LATEST REPORTS FROM UNITED STATES ELECTIONS

New York, Nov. 9.—If the result of the incomplete returns of Tuesday's balloting are accepted as final, in all but five states at noon today, the electoral vote would give President Wilson 251 and Mr. Hughes 243.

The five doubtful states with their electoral votes are: California, 13; Minnesota, 12; New Mexico, 3; North Dakota, 5; New Hampshire, 4.

The sudden switch of New Hampshire from a small Hughes plurality to 93 votes for President Wilson was the dramatic change in the situation this forenoon. It came in an announcement from the Secretary of State that a partial official count of all the districts disclosed errors in the tabulation by town and ward clerks to that extent. The official count is still progressing.

In Minnesota and New Mexico the incomplete returns show Mr. Hughes to have the lead, while in California and North Dakota Mr. Wilson is leading.

ROTHESAY BEAT LOCAL

HIGH SCHOOL 6 TO 0

Visitors Scored Two Tries and Had Wide Margin Over Locals.

The Rothesay Collegiate School beat Fredericton High here yesterday, 6 to 0, in the concluding game of the local school in the Interscholastic Rugby League. Rothesay deserved to win, as they had a big margin over the local team in many ways. Fredericton High appeared to have little team play and it was only the sharp tackling of the backs that kept the score down.

In the first half there was no score. Fredericton High saved itself several times by kicking over the dead line, and Rothesay did the same once. The visitors had the better of territory in this period.

In the second half Rothesay was forced to defend early in the period, but soon recovered. Shortt scared a try about the middle of the period. The Fredericton full back was responsible for this, as he got the ball behind his own line and kicked into the open field instead of touching down.

Carson made the next on a short dash from a scrum. To spectators it looked as if he had been downed just short of the goal line, but Referee McAllister allowed the try. McKenzie failed to convert either try, but made a good attempt on the last.

Brydone-Jack, who has lots of weight, was used continually by Rothesay to make ground. His bucking and Howies' tackling were features of the game. The teams were:
