THE INCOME TAX

The Ottawa Journal, a newspaper friendly to the Government in discussing Premier Bennett's action in dropping the income tax bill has this to say:

Subjected to cheap attacks by a few inconsequential politicians for having reduced his own income tax, Premier Bennett has withdrawn all the income tax changes proposed in his budget, put the tax scale back where it was. This is a pity. One may sympathize with the Prime Minister, in being made the target of scurrilous assault, but it is not easy to argue that the taxation policy of the country should be determined upon the basis of the Prime Minister's emotional reaction to the scawlag propensities of a few cheap-jack opponents.

"No one worthy of attention has said or believes, that Mr. Bennett ever as much as thought of his own income when he was considering income tax changes, and no one who knows anything of the man and his character ever hold such belief. True certain types of politician, whose stock-in-trade is political bile, have charged such things, just as they have gone to the Province of Quebec and said that Mr. Bennett was warring on the Catholic Church by heightening the price of candles; which is the limit of malice and imbecility. Yet, making allowances for such things, admitting the trial they must be to any man of sensitive public and personal honor, it is still hard to see the logic of making righteous indignation about such rancor determine fiscal policy.

Canada unfortunately, is afflicted with a great deal of low grade party politics. If, therefore, the Prime Minister is going to alter some important public measure, whenever he is unjustly or foolishly attacked, then the country is in for a bad time. Nobody can blame Mr. Bennett for becoming indignant. That sort of thing, pursued to its logical consequences, would soon give us a crazy-quilt of parliamentary legislation.

THE CHIGNECTO CANAL

The new Commission appointed by the Federal Government to investigate the Chignecto Canal proposal is composed of Prof. Stephen Leacock of McGill University, D. W. Robb of Amherst and John F. Sowards of Kingston, Ont. Mr. Robb who represents Maritime interests, is an ex-Mayor of Amherst, a leading manufacturer of the town and is a man of an exceptionally fine type. There is no question as to the feasibility of the Canal but the traffic possibilities should be carefully looked into. The fact that it will be frozen over during the winter months should not be used as an argument against it, as the same is true of all of the Canals in the Upper provinces, a share of the cost of which has been borne by the Maritimes.

Ex-Premier King in a statement in Parliament yesterday on his Bermuda trip said that "Senator McDougald, who had been there during part of my stay, had in part settled the account of myself and Senator Haydon who accompanied me on the trip," Senator McDougald in his evidence swore that he paid part of the Premier's expenses amounting to $852.32. It looks as if Bermuda was a rather expensive winter resort.

Ex-Premier King says that during his trip to Bermuda during the Parliamentary recess of 1930 he did not discuss the Beauharnois project with Senator McDougald, Senator Haydon or anyone else. No doubt that is correct as with a Federal election then in the offing he had other things to think about. It seems rather surprising nevertheless that organizer Haydon did not disclose to the then Premier the source of the Campaign fund.

The parliamentary committee appointed to probe the affairs of the Beauharnois Corporation, has finished taking evidence but will hold several sittings in camera to prepare the report to Parliament. There is likely to be a spirited debate when the report is presented for adoption. The investigation which was begun at the instance of Robert Gardiner, the U.F.A. Leader, has been more than justified.

The men who were responsible for the Pacific scandal which wrecked the government of Sir John A. Macdonald, in 1873, were mere pikers in comparison to those who pulled off the Beauharnois deal. In the case of the Pacific scandal, it was proved that a few thousand dollars was contributed to the campaign funds of cabinet ministers by parties who wanted to build a railway to the Pacific. The Beauharnois scheme provided a million dollars or so for campaign funds, and huge profits for at least four individuals, including two senators.

Ex-Premier King, in a statement in Parliament yesterday emphatically declared that none of his bills had been paid by the Beauharnois Corporation. The opposition leader's statement will be accepted so far as personal items are concerned, but the company and its energetic president, R. O. Sweezy certainly helped out big on campaign funds.

A lot of people who purchased stocks in the year 1928, and held on to them were badly swamped by the tidal wave which hit the market a year later. Senator Wilfrid Laurier McDougald was a notable exception. He acquired shares in the Sterling Industrial Corporation, an unlisted security not recommended by brokers, and subsequently gathered in a million dollars by selling out to the Beauharnois Corporation.

Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C. N. R. has accepted a ten per cent cut in his salary. As Sir Henry is in receipt of a stipend of $75,000 a year, in addition to a very generous allowance for travelling expenses he should still be able to make ends meet for a time at least.

A well-known African explorer plans to return to the Congo for the express purpose of photographing monkeys. This again puts a lot of chaps in the category of being prophets not without honor save in their own country.

HOLY BLESSING IS SOUGHT

Rome, July 22—Bearing a petition with 150,000 signatures asking beatification of Mother Elizabeth Seton, founder of the Sisters of Charity, a group of 50 United States priests and nuns arrived in Rome today. They are to see Pope Pius tomorrow. If Mother Seton is beatified and later canonized, she will be the first United States citizen a saint.

Valuable Dog Poisoned

Bozo, a Boston terrier, owned by John D. Palmer, and a great pet of the family has fallen a victim to the dog poisoning fiend. Bozo was found breathing his last in front of his home quite early this morning. Where he got the fatal dose is a mystery, but the animal was not in the habit of wandering far from home. This is only one off several dog poisoning cases to occur here within a few weeks. The city has a rather strongest dog law, but apparently it provides no protection for the canine population.

CAPT. HAWKES SEEKS RECORD

New ork, July 22—Captain Frank M. Hawkes, who has established numerous speed records in America and Europe, plans to take off from Floyd Bennett airport, Barren Island, at 4 a.m. tomorrow in an effort to recapture the speed record from New York to Havana which was established by him and broken last week by James Goodwin Hall, New York stock broker.

Captain Hawkes said that if weather permits, he will attempt a round trip flight in one day, and estimated it would take him approximately 17 hours.

Hall's flight to Havana clipped 46 minutes from Hawkes' record of nine hours and 21 minutes.

Captain Hawkes plans to stop for fuel at Wilmington, N.C., and Miami, Fla., on both the flight down and the return trip. Hall flew non-stop to Havana to set the record, and stopped only at Miami on the return trip, but was unable to break Hawkes' return trip record.

Colds wont spread If Nostrils are Cleansed. How to Avoid Coughs, Colds

Most cold troubles have their beginning in the delicate lining of the nose.

Stop your cold at its beginning—with the first sniffle or sneeze use Catarrhzone Inhaler. It releases a healing vapor that destroys the bacteria which causes colds and other winter ailments. Catarrhzone cleans and disinfects the nostrils, clears away nasty discharges, relieves that stuffed-up feeling in the forehead.

How To Stop Colds

Catarrhzone—has successfully restored cases that resisted other remedies. "No one can know better than I the benefit one gets from the very first day's use of Catarrhzone," writes T. T. Hopkins, of Westvale. "I had for years a stubborn case of Bronchial Catarrh, ear noises, headache, sore eyes, stopped-up nose and throat. It affected my appetite and made my breath rank. Catarrhzone restored me quickly and now keeps Catarrhzone Brings Relief Quickly! me free from colds."

Large one dollar size Catarrhzone with hard rubber inhaler last two months and is "Hospital-Certified." Smaller sizes 25c and 50c.

In the Spotlight or in the Gallery?

Some men seem to have that "cool as a cucumber" look, even in the sultriest weather. They are the men who are "in the spotlight."
