MEN OF THE 26TH BATTALION WIN HONORS AT THE FRONT

Several Members Awarded the Military Medal for Gallantry in the Field--Commanding Officer Sends List of Names and Description of the Action.

26th Battalion, Aug. 4, 1916.—Doubtless all the people of New Brunswick will be interested in the honors which have been awarded to the 26th (New Brunswick) Battalion in the course of the past few weeks. These are in addition to the military cross won by Lieut. F. B. Winter for his raid on the night of 30th June, to the Distinguished Conduct Medal won by Sergt. W. Ryer and Pte. D. Robertson (signal section), and to those members of the battalion who were specially mentioned in despatches on the last general list, on which occasion Lieut. C. G. Porter was specially mentioned for his good work, and on the same list

Lance Corp. Piche and Sergt. Whitehead came in for special mention. For those honors recently received, I am setting out the names and the description of the action for which they were recommended practically as these went in to the higher commanders.

No. 70125, Private Robert Green—Awarded Military Medal for conspicuous gallantry displayed during a raid on the German trenches south of the Ypres-Comines Canal on the night of 30th June-1st July. He, with Private Peters, successfully established and maintained a signal station close to the German wire, and under heavy shell and machine gun fire carried back

LABOR MEN ENTER PROTEST AGAINST HIGH COST OF LIVING

Monster Meeting Held in Hyde Park, London, on Sunday--Working Men Supply Bulk of Men for British Army--Government Asked to Take Food Supplies Out of the Hands of Monopolists.

London, Aug. 28.—The most significant expression of popular feeling since the war began was given yesterday, when, despite a torrential rain, the labor unions held a great parade in Hyde Park, initiated by the powerful railroad men's union, for the purpose of protesting against the great increase in the cost of living.

Many notables were present, but the speech of the afternoon was made by Ben Tillett, who recently received the thanks of General Haig and Lord French for invaluable services both in recruiting and stirring up munition workers.

"Of the British armies of 5,000,000 men," he said, "4,800,000 come from the working classes. The proportion of men from the shipping classes which have entered the navy is even greater. Yet while these men are risking their lives for the government, it allows their dependents to suffer privation on account of the prices of food, which have risen 70 per cent. through the capacity of the food rings.

Monopolists Flourish.

"Soldiers have been shot for stealing food, but that is not a crime comparable to that of these millers, ship to our lines a badly wounded man.

No. 69776—Private Daryl Graves Peters—Awarded Military Medal for conspicuous gallantry displayed during a raid on the German trenches south of the Ypres-Comines Canal on the night of 30th June-1st July. He, with Pte. Green, successfully established and maintained a signal station close to the German wire and under heavy shell and machine gun fire carried back to our lines a badly wounded man.

No. 70306, Private Robert Mathers—Awarded Military Medal for conspicuous gallantry displayed on the night of 28th-29th June, when Pte. Mathers was out on patrol duty in "No Man's Land." One of his companions, Pte. T. Petrie, was shot and dangerously wounded. Pte. Mathers single-handed, carried him into our trenches from half-way across "No Man's Land," a distance of 75 yards, under fire. It is regretted to state that Pte. Petrie, who is from Bathurst, N.B., subsequently died from his wound.

No. 69033, Private Henry Arsenault—Awarded Military Medal for conspicuous bravery during the period from 12th to 18th of April. Accompanying Lieut. C. G. Porter into Crater No. 6, was caught by fire on 17th carrying messages; saving a party of pioneers under the charge of Lieut. Porter; carrying out wounded of mixed companies with Lieut. Porter under heavy fire; also for faithful duty performed during the battalion's operations at Maple Copse, while under severe enemy fire, he carried messages and when caught at an advanced listening post by artillery barrage, by his initiative saved his party. This young soldier, in addition to the Military Medal, was given special leave to England for 8 days and on the occasion of the big review in Paris, was sent as the battalion's representative in the big international parade.

No. 70082, Lance Corp. E. Latham—Awarded the Military Medal for his continuous devotion to duty as telephone linesman and especially during the tour in Observatory Ridge from June 14th to June 19th, he mended and attended the wires under exceptionally heavy shell fire.

No. 69569, Sergt. Charles Moore—Awarded the Military Medal for conspicuous bravery. During the heavy bombardment of the battalion's tour in trenches situated on the Zillebeke Road, from June 14th to June 19th, 1916, this N. C. O. displayed the utmost courage and coolness, and although twice buried by shells blowing in the owners and monopolists, who are making enormous fortunes out of the hunger of others. The only remedy is that the government commandeer all food supplies and transport and administer them for the public benefit."

Other speakers referred to the fact that the price of a four pound loaf will reach 19 or 20 cents tomorrow, describing the rise as unreasonable.

Made Big Profits.

"The harvest weather is splendid in the west," said one speaker. "There are more than 8,000,000 bushels of the 1915 crop left."

"The present home harvest is approaching 70,000,000 bushels and the farmers are preparing to uphold the top profits. They already have made enormous profits. The price of wheat is now $14 a quarter (eight bushels) against $6 before the war. The government must make them get this grain immediately; then prices will come down with a bump. It is useless to waste threats on American dealers. Let us make straight the home producers."

Resolutions were enthusiastically passed demanding that the government immediately regulate all food prices.

trench on him, he continued to encourage and hearten his men. His assistance was exceptionally valuable owing to the company's shortage of officers.

O. C. 26TH BATTALION.

A bright young man from the country, if he goes to the city and works pretty hard for ten or fifteen years, can sometimes make enough money to go and live in the country.

The war has been over for more than a year, according to some of the "op-summer complaint—Is this hot enough for you?

They Are Doing Their Utmost To Save Their Own People.

The whole-hearted devotion of Belgians in Canada, Great Britain and the United States, to the work of relieving those in their destitute Motherland, should be an added incentive to us to give all we can to the Belgian Relief Fund.

This is not charity—it is a debt of honor we owe to our heroic Allies, who checked the first onslaught of the Germans while France and Great Britain got time to rally and save the day on the Western Front.

The able-bodied men of Belgium are still in the fighting line, holding the trenches at the British left. Their women and children, and their old and wounded men, who have held out bravely under untold sufferings are looking to us for food and life. Our modest contributions to the Belgian Relief Fund will help to save them. Our failure to give our share will bring them a step nearer to grim starvation.

Can you ignore such desperate need, or fail to respond generously to such a pitiful call for help? Can you not undertake to feed at least one Belgian family when a contribution of $2.50 per month will do it?

Whatever you feel you can give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or Grape-Nuts food stands pre-eminent as a builder of this kind of energy. It is made of the entire nutriment of whole wheat and barley, two of the richest sources of food strength.

Grape-Nuts also includes the vital mineral elements of the grain, so much emphasized in these days of investigation of real food values.

Crisp, ready to eat, easy to digest, wonderfully nourishing and delicious.
