FEATHER TRIMMINGS TYPICAL OF EARLY AUTUMN MILLINERY

Feather trimmings are stressed on fall hats. Whether the model be one inspired by the ambitious Empress Eugenie or a derby sailor the hat must have a feather.

The much talked of Rembrandt crown has a bright-colored contrasting feather stuck through it. The less dressy and modified cloche, with a soft brim has a side ornament of feathers. A pretty gesture is the lifting of brims at the back where clusters of tiny ostrich tips nestle.

Birds, mercury wings, tail feathers of barnyard fowl and ostrich plumes vie with each other as popular hat trimmings. Bi-color effects are favored as in black wings tipped with red, orange or green.

SUMMER-FALL SALAD PLATE

For each plate prepare:

- 5 lettuce leaves with tips dipped in paprika.
- 1-4 seedless grapes or seeded Muscat
- 1 half of a fresh peach or pear marinated in lemon juice or French dressing
- 1 slice cantaloupe casaba or Persian melon with rind removed.
- 5 ripe olives
- 2 or 3 cheese balls resembling French creams, topped with walnut halves.

Serve with any desired hot bread and coffee.

PLUM CONSERVE

- 5 pounds plums, quartered and pitted
- 1 cup water
- 5 pounds sugar
- 3-4 pound raisins
- Grated rind and juice of 2 large oranges

To the quartered plums add the water and simmer 10 minutes, then add the sugar and raisins, and boil gently 25 minutes. Grate the orange rind and set aside; squeeze the juice and add to the plums, simmer 10 minutes, then remove from fire and stir in the grated orange rind. Put into hot sterilized jars and seal while hot.

BLUE ANCHOR WHIP

- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 cup peach juice
- 1-2 cup cream, whipped
- 1 cup crushed peaches, sweetened and drained
- 2 or 3 drops bitter almond extract

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add peach juice. Cool until syrupy, and then beat with a rotary egg beater until of consistency of whipped cream. Fold in whipped cream, peaches and flavoring. Turn into molds and chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with peach slices. Serves six.

SCREEN STAR DISCARDS CAST

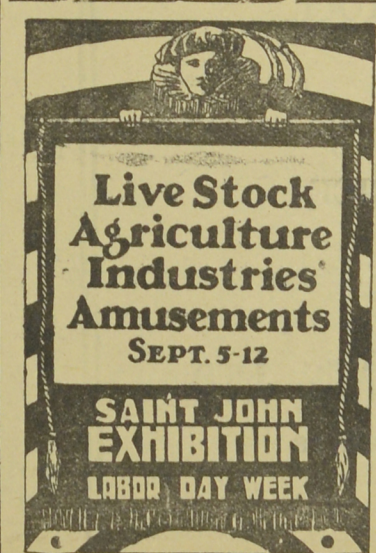

Hollywood, California, August 29—Evalyn Knapp, young motion picture beauty, is learning to walk again.

She is taking her first steps unaided since her fall two months ago over a cliff while hiking in the Hollywood Hills. The plaster cast in which she spent weeks helpless on a hospital bed was removed recently.

"I find I can go a little farther each day," she said, "although it still is necessary to have a nurse close by. It will take a great deal of walking to forget these last two months in that cast."

USES LEAPING FISH AS ALIBI FOR BLACK EYE

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 29—Maybe Earl Hooten got the one about running into a door causing his black eye and the one about how long the fish was mixed. He insisted today his black eye was incurred when a big dogfish leaped into his boat while he was fishing on a lake and bit him in the eye with a fin.

A NEW PLEA FOR LATIN

An 86-year-old member of the faculty at Colby College, in Maine, has taught Latin for 63 years.

Like all Latin teachers, he thinks the modern tendency toward dropping dead languages from the curriculum is wrong.

He does not, however, advance the familiar arguments. His notion on the subject is novel and startling. The teaching of Latin, he says, is useful to society because it teaches youngsters to be good guessers.

And being a good guesser gets a man farther in this generation, he says, than erudition or judgment.

Now there's a man who has taught school for 63 years without becoming an old fogey. He's shrewd and he's human. We'll bet his pupils liked him and learned from him. He had something besides Latin to teach them.

New York, N. Y., August 29—Oak Park, Illinois, with 59 per 100,000 leads the country in a list of death rates from appendicitis, Fresno, California with 1.9 has the lowest. Total deaths in the country are 18,000 to 20,000 annually. The statistics were gathered by the Spectator, an insurance publication.
