MAUGERVILLE.

Red Cross Sale Was a Success—Other Bits of News.

Maugerville, Aug. 31.—The Red Cross Sale at Lower Maugerville realized $85. The young ladies in charge of refreshments were Misses Long, Seeley, Killeen, Shankel, Perley and Fraser. The prize on the bean guess, a clock, was won by Mill Miles.

Miss Laura Perley has gone to Florenceville to take charge of the household science department in the Consolidated School.

The friends of Mrs. David Dykeman regret to learn of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley, who have both been ill, are slowly recovering.

Mr. H. R. McClusky left for Houlton today to attend the fair.

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN, IT'S YOU.

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your duds in a big suitcase
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new
It's a knock at yourself when you
Knock your town.
It isn't the town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead,
When everyone works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a town from the dead.
And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbors can make one too,
Your town will be what you want to see,

It isn't your town—it's you.

Contributions to the Overseas to bacco Fund may be left at the Board of Trade rooms or with the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

HOW TO CAMP

When you're in camp
In woodland spot
A tent is damp
An awful lot.

When gales have blown
Across your plat
A tent is prone
To tumble flat.

But there's one way
To play the fox.
Just camp in a
Piano box.

UNSELFISH

A place in the sun—hully gee!
Watch old Sol shine.
There is no stung streak about me;
You can have mine.

THE END OF TIME

Into the jeweler's shop came a simple-looking old chap, with a quaint, old-fashioned kitchen clock under one arm.
"I want you to look at it," he said, as he laid the timepiece on the counter, "and tell me what's wrong."
"The jewel removed the dial from the clock, screwed his magnifying glass into his eye and poked about in the clock's interior."
"Nothing wrong with it now," he announced presently. "It's sufferings are over."
"Well, what do I owe you?" asked the customer, thinking he had repaired the clock.
"Nothing," replied the shopman. "Your mistake. This isn't professional treatment. It's a Coroner's inquest."

WHO STARTED IT?

Mrs. Jones had just punished her little boy, Tom. After crying for a few minutes he turned to his mother and asked:
"Mamma, did your mamma whip you when you were little?"
"Yes, when I was naughty," was the reply.
"And did her mamma whip her when she was little?"
"Yes, Thomas," replied the mother.
A few seconds elapsed. Then Tommy exclaimed:
"Well, who started it anyway?"

PERTINENT REASONS

"Look here, waiter," protested the man who was about to pay his bill.
"You've charged me 20 cents for rice pudding. The price was 15 cents the last time I ordered it."
"Yes, sir," replied the waiter. "Rice has gone up, sir."
"On account of the war, I suppose," said the guest sarcastically.
"No, sir, on account of the June weddings, sir."

OUTSIDE HIS PROVINCE

"What's the trouble between you and your beau?"
"Oh, we were building a nice castle in the air."
"Well?"
"I didn't mind him help building it, but he wanted to select the furnishings, too."

FOUND OUT

We live in a world full of trouble and strife.
When your car undertakes to turn turtle,
It never occurs when your out with your wife,
But when you're with Gladys and Myrtle.

A man would be given a patrol joy ride if he wore a suit made from striped awning; but a woman can get away with it.
When we hear what some men say while chopping kindling wood we can't help wondering why some missionary don't go down town and buy them a gas stove.
