Canada and Premier Bennett Figure in House Debates

Speeches of British Free Traders, If Unanswered, Would Create the Impression That Canada is World.

LONDON, Oct. 22—Canada, and particularly Prime Minister Bennett, have been very much in the minds of British politcians this week. Sitting in the House of Commons and listening to the debates on the Ottawa agreements, one would think, if one heard only the speeches of the Labor and Liberal Free Traders, that Canada was the hardest driving bargain nation in the world and that the Prime Minister was the Empire's chief ogre.

Mr. Bennett has been accused of reducing Britain's status to that of a crown colony, of having threatened to disrupt the Empire unless the British delegates acceded to his "extortionate demands"; "of bargaining with a "bludgeon" and of a whole host of other crimes that will bring swift retribution.

DOMESTIC LOAN OF $8,000,000 TO BE FLOATED

Hn. E. N. Rhodes Makes An Announcement in Parliament—To Be Offered October 31.

Ottawa, Oct. 21—The Dominion Government will issue an internal loan for $80,000,000. The public issue will probably be made about Oct. 31. Announcement to this effect was made on the floor of the House of Commons today by Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance.

"It has been decided to make a public issue," the Minister of Finance told Parliament, "and it will be made as soon as the necessary preparations for a Dominion-wide offering can be completed. It is proposed that it shall be handled by an organization similar to the one which did such excellent work in connection with the National Service Loan.

"That organization, which is being set up, I am happy to announce, will be presided over by Sir Charles Gordon, president of the Bank of Montreal, who served so acceptably on the previous occasion. It would not be advisable at the moment to give a complete statement of details as to terms, rates and conditions, but the amount will be for the sum of $80,000,000, and the issue will be made probably on Oct. 31.

"The contemplated financing will provide for the meeting of the balance at maturity amounting to the sum of $34,449,950, which is due on Nov. 1, being a residium of the renewal of the old Victory Loan, which was renewed for a period of 10 years in 1922.

"The balance will be used for purposes of the Dominion, including Canadian National Railways financing, which, as honorable gentlemen are aware, is now being made directly from the Dominion Treasury rather than through the form of guaranteed bonds which has obtained hitherto."

Reports are that the issue will be at 4 per cent. With the bonds purchaseable at a discount, the net rate may run from 4.35 to 4.50 per cent. No official announcement on the rate of interest, though, has been made.

BRITISH TARIFF TO BE CONTINUED FOR TWO YEARS

London, Oct. 21—Great Britain 33 1-3 per cent tariff duties imposed under the recent General Tariff Act, will be continued for two more years from October 25, it was officially announced today.

The immediate object of the duties, it was stated, have been to a great extent achieved as evidenced by the fall in imports.

For the third quarter of 1932 imports dropped 45 per cent, as compared to the same period in 1931, the announcement said. Nevertheless, "the menace of uneconomic foreign competition continues and is serious."

Smallwood-Wood Took Place Here This Afternoon

A wedding of interest to local citizens and in Charlottetown, P.E.I., was held this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton E. Wood, 171 Saunders street, when their daughter, Clair Kitchen, became the bride of George Smallwood, of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed at one o'clock in the presence of friends and relatives.

Rev. G. W. Guiou, pastor of Brunswick Street Baptist church performed the ceremony. Out of town guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Valentine, of Boston, Mass.; Dr. and Mrs. Mackenzie of Prince William and Mrs. Kelley, also of Prince William.

The bride was becomingly dressed in brown georgette and lace, with brown shoes and stockings. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and chrysanthemums. There were no attendants. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Fenton E. Wood. A prettily appointed luncheon was held after the ceremony and the couple left soon after for Toronto, Ont. where they will spend their honeymoon. They will later reside in Charlottetown, where the bridegroom is engaged in the exporting business.

Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride. During the last few weeks several receptions have been held in her honor, and she has received gifts of silverware, glassware, linen and others.

MARITIMES WILL BENEFIT FROM TRADE PACT

George M. McDade Discusses Trade Agreements in Parliament—The Lumbering Industry Also.

Ottawa, Oct. 21—"The pacts signed at the Conference represent the greatest achievement since Confderation," said George DoDade (Cons., Northumberland). The young New Brunswick parliamentarian stressed the benefits the Maritime Provinces would derive from the agreements. They would result above all in increased traffic through the ports of Saint John and Halifax and a great expansion of business at those points.

"To the fruit growers of the Maritimes," he said, "the treaty means a new lease on life. I am reliably informed that apple producers of the Annapolis Valley will be able to increase the value of their shipments by at least a million dollars annually. It will also mean much to the apple industry in the St. John River valley."

The lumber industry of New Brunswick, hard hit by the United States tariff and the Russian competition in Great Britain, stood to benefit, Mr. McDade went on. Hon. J. L. Ralston, (Lib., Shelburne-Yarmouth) sought to minimize the effect of Russian competition.

The fact was, Mr. McDade said, of the 3,250,000,000 board feet imported into Great Britain in 1931. 36.7 per cent from Russia and only 4.4 per cent from Canada. Furthermore it was Russian competition that was forcing Finnish and Norweigan mills into liquidation and unloosing large stocks from those countries on British markets.

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, he remarked, had predicted difficulties would arise in giving effect to the clause in the treaty directed against Russia. Since his speech the British Government has taken steps to cancel it trade treaty with the Soviet Union.

While he did not want to be optimistic, he felt convinced, Mr. McDade said, that the concessions to the lumber industry would mean ultimately an increase in Canadian lumber imports to the extent of 1,300,000,000 feet.

The lumber industry was the life of the constituency. He hoped, Mr. McDade said that even if the Opposition did vote against the resolution, when the bill was in committee no exception would be taken to the clause relating to lumber.

Cheap but Good

Leonard McLaughlin of Woodside, Sunbury county, had a quantity of Cranberries of first quality in the market this morning and sold them at eight cents per quart and fifty cents a peck. He says that a bog which he owns is expected to yield at least fifty barrels. The berries are large, of good quality and quite the equal of the Cape Cod variety, which are imported by local merchants at Christmas time and retail at from 18 to 20 cents per quart. The crop on the Sunbury county marshes this season is abundant and many households are stocking up for the winter at the prevailing low price.

Doubtless all golfers are happy to know that a slice usually is caused by a labyrinthine refelx.

Economic Issues Loom Large For The U. S. Congress

A Federal Deficit of Tremendous Proportions is Accumulating—Sales Tax Method Gaining Support—St. Lawrence Waterways Treaty To Be Dealt With at Short Session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22—Economic issues overshadow all others to be dealt with by the Congress which is being elected November 8, and the greatest of the issues is taxation.

A federal deficit of tremendous proportions is accumulating. Democratic success in the election probably would materially reduce the scope of legislation to be undertaken at the short session. Democratic leaders would be expected to prefer to rid Congress of lame duck Congressmen and Senators so that the full force of their majority could be brought to bear on fiscal legislation.

Sales Tax Question

Since it was summarily rejected last winter by a rebellious House, the general sales tax method of budget balancing has gained considerable support. The country evidently must choose between that scheme of taxation and an extension of the special taxation, with its increased income levies, of the emergency bill passed last session.

Related closely to taxation is the issue of governmental economy. Democrats have pledged a 25 per cent cut in federal expenditures. Incoming Congressmen must decide where and how. The $1,000,000,000 annual veterans' appropriations is an inviting field for economy, but the opposition to veterans' cuts is widespread, vigorous and politically powerful.

There already is developing a demand for further federal unemployment relief although the problem of spending vast additional sums in that direction while reducing federal expenditures is sufficient to trouble the ingenuity of even $10,000 a year members of Congress.

Waterway Treaty

It is the expectation of leaders that the short session Senate will have an opportunity to ratify the St. Lawrence waterway treaty. Governor Roosevelt has objected to some of its provisions. He could, if he desired, block ratification even in the short session provided he were elected to the Presidency.

There are indications of general sentiment in favor of independence of the Philippine Islands. That somewhat non-controversial issue might be disposed of in the short session.

HON. J. G. FORBES PASSES AWAY IN TORONTO, ONT.

Was Formerly County Court Judge of Saint John — Had Reached the Age of 96 Years.

Toronto, Oct. 21—Hon. James G. Forbes, retired County Court Judge formerly of Saint John, N. B., passed away at his home here on Thursday night, aged 96 years. He had enjoyed his usual good health up to a short time ago, and quite recently returned from a trip to the West Indies. The body will be taken to St. John for burial.

The late Judge Forbes was a native of Guysboro, N. S., of Scottish parents. He graduated from the Nova Scotia Normal School when sixteen years of age, and after teaching school for a number of years removed to Saint John in 1860. He studied law with Hon. William Wedderburn, and was admitted to the bar in 1865. He was created a Kings County in 1881 and was appointed County Court Judge in 1895. In 1917 at the age of 78, he retired from the bench.

The judge was active in the work of the Presbyterian Church, and was one of the leaders in the movement that brought about church union. He was also a leader in the work of the Bible Society and was a prominent Free Mason. He moved to Toronto in 1921.

Judge Forbes married Mrs. Mary J. Homer, of Des Moines, Iowa, widow of he professor of music at Harvard University, who had one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Homer, who until she died some years ago, made her home wit hthe judge here. Mrs. Forbes died on March *, 1901.

Judge Forbes had two children, a son, Homer D., deceased, and a daughter, Jessie, who married Rev. D. H. Morton, secretary of the educational work of the United Church in Tuna Puna, Trinidad.

Is A Live Wire

Seymour Tyler, acolored veteran of the Great War, formerly of this city, is now operating with success a truck farm at Lakeville Corner, Sunbury county. During the past season he marketed three thousand boxes of strawberries and a large quantity of vegetables and set out six thousand strawbery plants. He plans to winter 150 hens. Mr. Tyler served overseas as bugler and since the end of the war has sounded "Last Post" no less than 113 times at the obsequies of departed comrades.

ENGLISH RECTOR IS UNFROCKED BY THE CHURCH

Norwich, Eng., Oct. 21—The Rev. H. F. Davidson, rector of Stiffkey, was removed from the Church of England priesthood today because of his conviction last July on charges of immoral conduct with several young women. After sentence had been pronounced by the Bishop of Norwich, who had brought the charges, the Rector started a speech in defense of his actions. The ecclesiastical procession walked out as he was speaking. "No other clergyman," the Rector asserted, "has striven to do the work which in my opinion every clergyman in the Church ought to be doing—that of going out into the lower depths of society, leaving 99 persons to reach the one that is lost and left behind. I shall devote myself to that work as I have done since I was 18."
