RAILWAY MEN OPPOSED TO THE PROJECT

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 21—Postponement of the St. Lawrence waterway project until more prosperous times and the imposition of tolls on vessels using that waterway which constructed, were urged upon the Government for consideration, by a delegation representing "Ship-by-Rail" associations here today. Establishment of a system of tolls on a tonnage basis, applicable to vessels using the Welland canal, was also proposed.

The deputation was received by Sir George Perley, acting Prime Minister, and Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals. The former in replying to the representations made, referred to the fact that Canada has already completed the Welland Canal, an important link in the Great Lakes to the sea project. This would result in reducing to about $38,000,000 the capital cost which Canada would have to bear when the St. Lawrence development was put through.

LOWER PRINCE WILLIAM, N.B.

Lower Prince William, Dec. 22—We are having warmer weather at present and the roads are in fine condition for travelling.

Mrs. Robert A. Graham entertained the W. A. of St. Clement's Church at her home last Wednesday.

The Mission Band met with Mrs. Ludlow Hoyt last Saturday afternoon and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Several contests were carried on and the prizes were won by Jessie Preston and Annie Clayden. Miss Vera Dow spent last Sunday with the Misses Clayden.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Willie Scott is seriously ill.

Rev. W. E. Carpenter held service in the Baptist Church last Sunday morning. An interesting Christmas sermon was preached and the choir rendered special music.

Misses Mildred Moore and Grace Carpenter were supper guests of Mrs. Ludlow Hoyt Saturday evening.

Our school closes tomorrow for the Xmas vacation.

The death occurred at Burden last Monday night of Mr. John Kelly after a lingering illness. He had reached the advanced age of eighty eight. The funeral service was held yesterday afternoon at the Burden Church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Carpenter, and was largely attended. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Are You Among Those Who Say "I never read Advertisements"

TO SAY "I never read advertisements" would be much like saying, "I never use soap" or "I never read newspapers," or "No one can teach me anything," or "I know everything."

Many good—but not very wise persons seem to think that all advertisements are just the vainglorious braggings of those who publish them—designed to part fools and their money. The truth is that most advertisements are incitements to their readers to do or be or buy or use something for their immediate or prospective advantage. Advertisers, to be successful and to live long, have to offer something of value or of desire—something really wanted or needed by the public. Advertisers, to live long, must not cheat the expectations or confidence of those who buy what they offer or propose.

Here are some questions to be answered by those who say "I never read advertisements"—

- 1.—What alarm clock would you buy if you needed one?
- 2.—What camera would you buy, for your own use, or to give to a son or daughter?
- 3.—What motor car possesses your favor?
- 4.—What face cream or shaving soap or cream, or tooth paste did you use today?
- 5.—What laundry soap (or flakes) is in your kitchen right now?
- 6.—What brand of tobacco would you buy if you were a user?
- 7.—The watch on your wrist—what name does it bear?
- 8.—What theatre is presenting the best program?
- 9.—Your life insurance policy—what company issued it?
- 10.—The ginger ale which you serve to guests—what brand is it?
- 11.—The tea which you buy regularly—what brand is it?
- 12.—The baked beans and the tomato catsup now on your pantry shelves—what brands are they?

YOU SEE! Whether or not you consciously or habitually read advertisements, you buy, by preference, what advertisements have recommended to your confidence and what experience has proven to be satisfactory.

The things which we DON'T buy and which have a sickish life, are those which are not advertised, and which try to ride onto public favor on the backs of well-advertised products.

It is to one's discredit to say, "I never read advertisements"

THE DAILY MAIL with its large quality circulation is a first-class advertising medium!

NEW BRUNSWICK PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME

OFFICE ROOM TWELVE, 50 PRINCESS STREET.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Dec. 15, 1932.

To The Protestant People of New Brunswick:

Ladies, Gentlemen and Children—

"I cannot afford to Give"—how often that remark reaches us.

It is because Christ was born on that first Christmas Day that we all of us enjoy today the better things of life.

Christmas Day has well been called the Birthday of Hope. It is because the teachings of Christ have advanced to the place they now occupy in the world, that we have today our Hospitals, Health Centres, Alms Houses, Family Welfare Societies, Children's Aid Societies Day Nurseries, Poor Relief Organizations, Hostels, ORPHANAGES, etc., etc.

What became of many Babies throughout all the world previous to the reasonably general acceptance of Christ's estimate of the value of Child life? Many were allowed to die; if they were not actually put to death.

What still becomes of many babies in many lands where Christ's teachings have not been reasonably generally accepted? Many babies are put to death at birth; or so treated that they die shortly after; particularly baby girls.

Where did many babies of unmarried Protestant Mothers and of other Protestant Mothers and Fathers of New Brunswick go for many years previous to January 1, 1930? Thanks to our Catholic friends, they cared for many Protestant Children of under four years of age in their Orphanages up to that time. Because there was not then a Protestant Orphanage equipped to care for children of under four years old.

Where do you want such Babies and Young Children to be cared for now? If you want the above Home; which is your Home; to care for them, as has been done these past twelve years; won't you now at this Christmas time remember those of Christ's Little Ones that are now in your Home?

Please send your Christmas gift to these Little Ones, through the Treasurer, P.O. Box 796, Saint John, N. B.; remembering that Christ himself said: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these ye have done it unto Me."

We ask you Now: Can You Afford Not to Give?

Thanking you in anticipation of your Christmas Gift to these Little Ones being received soon; we remain, on behalf of these nearly 260 Little Ones; whom Christ LOVES;

Yours very truly,

JAMES W. BRITTAIN, President,
H. USHER MILLER, Secretary.

N. B. PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME,
P. O. Box 796, Saint John, N. B.

DEAR SIR:

I have much pleasure in inclosing my Christmas Gift of $..... to the Little Ones in the Home's care.
