THE POTATO EMBARGO

A strenuous drive is being made by the potato growing provinces of Canada to have the British government remove the embargo on Canadian potatoes, which has been effective since 1925. The Britishers are afraid of the Colorado beetle, better known as the potato bug, and are using it as an argument in favor of the retention of the embargo. Experts connected with the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa have shown conclusively that no case has been made out against the Canadian potato or the potato bug by the Imperial authorities, but the indications are that it will make little difference. The potato growers of Ireland, more particularly the northern section of it, will no doubt be given consideration when the matter comes to be decided. The embargo is merely a form of protection for old country growers and it cannot very well be viewed in any other light. If there was any chance of argument with the Britishers it might be pointed out that one hundred thousand bushels of New Brunswick potatoes were shipped to Great Britain during the great war, and distributed all over the country, and so far as known not a potato bug developed from the shipment. This would seem to make it clear that the bug did not go overseas with the potato.

The Ottawa Journal says that the name of Robert K. Smith, M. P., for Cumberland, N. S., is being mentioned in connection with the vacant post of Deputy minister of Marine, and may resign his seat in the House to accept the appointment. Mr. Smith is a son of Charles R. Smith, K. C., of Amherst, and a brother of Mrs. Gerald Lawson, of this city. He was first elected to Parliament in 1925, and was re-elected in 1926 and 1930. Mr. Smith is one of the ablest of Nova Scotia members and his appointment would give every satisfaction.

Hon. N. A. Belcourt, of Ottawa, one of the ablest and best known Canadian Senators, passed away at his summer home near the Capital on Sunday. He was a native of Toronto and was seventy one years of age. He was elected to Parliament for the city of Ottawa in 1896, the year the Laurier Government came into power and was appointed Speaker in 1904, holding office for two years. In 1907 he was called to the Senate. The deceased was a Liberal in politics.

Although Canada has done considerable to encourage the banana trade with the West Indies, this class of fruit sells at a lower price in the United States than it does on this side of the line. For instance last week ripe bananas retailed in grocery stores at Van Buren, Maine, at four pounds for a quarter. At the same time on the Canadian side they were selling at three pounds for a quarter, a difference of twenty-five per cent.

The best sign of returning prosperity to this continent is the remarkable upward trend in the Stock markets of New York and Montreal. Scores of issues have moved upwards and enhances values of securities during the past week have ran into billions of dollars. This will have a very beneficial effect on all lines of business. It will create a feeling of optimism and people will spend money more freely, which will mean a reduction of unemployment. It certainly looks as if the divide had been crossed.

Bears in Mount Baker National Park are too highly educated, as workers in a construction crew encased in the area will testify. When the dinner gong is sounded, the men say, a dozen or so bears congregate for food along with the men.

"Money talks," but there are times—hard times—when it doesn't speak easy.

If you have any doubt that this is a cruel world, you have only to read the news—and such news never was so plentiful—from Reno. In 90 per cent. of the divorce cases "cruelty" is the charge.

A man can get up before an audience and make all kinds of statements and they are soon forgotten. But when an editor sits down to his typewriter to make statements for print he knows he's got to talk "cold turkey or else."

Milwaukee woman who took a jail sentence rather than pay a fine for speeding said she was fighting for principle, but now she finds her interest lies elsewhere and permits herself to be bonded out.

Who that has slept in a hammock has not fallen out? And by the same mark, who will envy the four Kansas City youths who have been sleeping in hammocks swung in the top of a tree?

"The most asinine use of the auto horn is as a substitute for a door bell," says a victim. "One of the most" no doubt, but "the most" often is when it is used as an auto horn.

Tennis is a queer game. First you learn it, then you get good at it, then you become a star and then you spend the rest of your life wondering how the big shots get that way.

A San Jose woman enumerated in her petition for divorce, 1040 beatings she had received in 19 years. It must have been the monotony that palled on her.

The Kansas man who paid six bushels of wheat to have a tooth pulled can hardly be expected to see any humor in the situation.

A popular pastime—"the time o' day."

Free but not always easy—the park benches.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

So many foolproof things seem to be needed.

The chief objection to knickerbockers for women is that some fool will be sure to call 'em "masculine" attire.

Can a man be a good citizen who thinks that no public official acts from a disinterested motive?

In New York the wind blew ninety miles an hour recently. In any other town the same wind would have blown only 45 miles an hour.

Before making a dash to reach the crossing it might be well to take into consideration the fact that the engineer of the fast passenger train is also in a hurry.

"Home is a place," remarked the Man on the Car, "where the beautiful heroine who itched through the show without moving a muscle can scratch her back with propriety."

CIGARETTE BUTT MACKEREL BAIT

New York, N. Y., Aug. 7.—The mackerel, are on a rampage. They are so thick around the quarantine pier that is no trick to catch a hundred an hour. They eat matches, cigarette stubs—anything. The mackerel experts avow that the fish have been frightened to the pier by bluefish, which love mackerel.

CARETAKER GETS A GOLD MINE

Wenatchee, Washington, August 7.—It isn't every day you can buy a million-dollar gold mine for $2000. J. D. McVane recently was given a bill of sale by the sheriff to the famous old Blewett mines on Peshastin Creek, from which millions of dollars worth of gold have been taken since its discovery nearly 50 years ago.

McVane, a caretaker at the mining properties, had a claim for wages of $2303.95 against the Washington Gold Mines Corporation, present owners. They were unable to pay and his attorney today took the entire mining property as satisfaction for the claim.

The mines, including a 20-stamp mill, have not been operated for many years, although they were once one of the most famous properties in the Northwest.

Quality Funerals Economical in Cost

Those whom we serve absolutely control the cost of the funeral they select, yet, the services and furnishings we provide are never permitted to fall below our well known high standard of quality. In addition many conveniences and unusual services are available without extra charge.

Each Casket in our showroom bears a price card showing the entire cost of the funeral when that type of casket is selected. Not infrequently a family prefers an inexpensive funeral, but that is no reason why they should not secure one of quality and refinement. Prices, of course, are in keeping with our modern policy and much lower than you would expect to find.

Complete Funerals at $75, $100, $125 and upwards.
