AN UNTIMELY INSULT

In commenting on some recent criticism directed at the Imperial Conference and Premier Bennett by Col. R. H. Steacy, an Anglican clergyman, of Westboro, Ont., the Toronto Saturday Night, an independent newspaper, has this to say:

We are quite sure that members of the Anglican Communion in Canada did not feel flattered at the inclusion among their numbers of Col. and Rev. R. H. Steacy, C.M.G., Rector of All Saints' Church, Westboro (a suburb of Ottawa), who on July 24th made a day of supplication for the success of the Imperial Economic Conference, the occasion of insulting remarks about the Conference itself and the personal religious associations of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett. The reverend colonel's loyalty is apparently of a very exuberant quality; but its undeniably sincere quality does not excuse bad manners in the House of God.

Col. and Rev. Steacy had conceived an erroneous idea of the terms of the resolution of respect duty to His Majesty, passed unanimously by the Conference as almost the first order of business. In denouncing this as an inadequate expression of loyalty, he ignored the closing words of the resolution in which the Conference expressed the earnest hope that Their Majesties might long be spared to strengthen the feelings of love and devotion shared by all the peoples of the British Commonwealth of Nations." If Col. Steacy does not regard these words as an expression of loyalty he is hard to please; much more so that King George himself, who in his immediate reply so interpreted it.

But the most serious offence committed by this impassioned pulpiteer was his remark, "Thank God it was not a Church of England Premier who did that." This was clearly intended as an insult to the communion of the United Church of Canada of which Mr. Bennett is a member. The offensive inference that Anglicans are more loyal and in a general sense superior to "dissenters" is un-Christian and alien to the spirit of the Church of England as we know it in Canada today.

The Bank of Nova Scotia, Canada's second oldest banking institution, will this month celebrate its centennial. The first organization meeting was held at the Merchant's Exchange Coffee House, Halifax, in December, 1831, and it received its charter in March, 1832. It opened its doors for business in August, of that year. Today it ranks as the fourth largest banking institution in Canada with total assets of $262,496,000 and a paid-up capital of $12,000,000. Alone among Canadian banks its reserve is twice its paid-up capital stock. It has 330 branches located from coast to coast and in England, Newfoundland, United States and the West Indies.

The St. Thomas Times-Journal says: "Carrying 85 pounds' weight of pennies, George Swenson, 15, a farmer's son, near Atwater, Minn., reached the saving bank to deposit his wealth. There were 12,000 coppers, or $120. For many years the young lad had saved every cent that came his way. Several hours were required to count the money. His efforts should be laughed at. His plan, probably carried out systematically, is proof of what can be accomplished by saving in a small way. There would not be so much hardship now if many people had endeavored to put by a little out of every pay envelope for a rainy day."

The directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company met at Montreal yesterday but contrary to expectations deferred action on the half yearly dividend. Gross operating revenues of the company are considerably less than last year, but there had been a substantial cut in expenses. Prospects for an increased traffic in the fall are shaping up well.

and the company's common stock recently made a substantial advance. It is expected that the report of the Duff Royal Commission to be made public soon, will be to the advantage of the company.

New Brunswickers sincerely hope that the negotiations now going on at Ottawa for an increased preference to Canadian lumber by Great Britain will be crowned with success. Lumbering is or rather was New Brunswick's greatest industry and prosperity would return to it if say two hundred million feet annually could be exported to Great Britain. Every county in the province would benefit and for the Miramichi district it would be little sport of a godsend.

The surprising report comes from St. Stephen that two men have been arrested charged with an alleged attempt to smuggle merchandise from Calais. A car said to contain a quantity of ladies wear, which a Calais merchant had undertaken to deliver to St. Stephen customers, was seized by the R.C.M.P. The Mounties have evidently got wise to a game which has been going on unhindered at the border for a number of years.

Thousands may go back to the land and take up farming—not to make a fortune as many of late years have mistakenly tried—but to provide a comfortable living. What make a fortune—aren't fortunes being taxed to death?

Hog prices are higher. The more you study the situation the more you notice that hogs aren't anywhere near as plentiful in this country as they were a few years ago.

For parties of 29 or more metropolitan playgoers bus service to and from the theatre is going to be furnished free. In other words, the box office will take the patron for a ride.

At an auction of ashes for which $20,000 has been received in former years New York city got no bids. Another commodity of which there has been overproduction.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

Ho, hum! Golden Rod in bloom along the highways, betoken the approach of fall.

Lima Beagle thinks the reasonable solution is that the whale got sick of Jonah.

Egyptians were kept busy building tombs. Didn't they ever have any fun?

Climate doesn't drive people away from a locality unless they have money.

Say what you will, if a man has a good pedigree we expect more of him.

Noah never wrote a book on natural history when he had the best of opportunities.

"A Washington man has invented an automobile with four legs, like a horse." He must have been in a terrible state of mind.

Why doesn't somebody predict that there will never be another big war? It seems foolish to let the pessimists do all the talking.

"Einstein has a new theory which he is keeping secret." His old theory of relativity is a secret as far as our understanding goes.

Airplanes will not be safe until there is an apparatus that makes them float to earth as lightly as a feather when the machinery breaks.

Reporters are kind-hearted. When they are told what they know are falsehoods when don't become indignant. They merely go on asking questions.

Usually, when a woman explains how she killed the man, probably her husband—there was a scuffle, a shot, and then everything was blank, including one cartridge in the gun.

It was in 1929 that we saw down and go boom. That is, the boom went. And the three years of the depression about up. In history, it never lasts longer.

Film scouts are combed the larger universities for fresh hero material. The Hollywood scarcity is reported such that some movie queens have had to go back to 1929 husbands.

BEAR TRAPS GUARD ORANGE ORCHARDS

La Habra, California, Aug. 5—Because Russell Shane "put his foot into it"—"it" being a bear trap— it was revealed that La Habra avocado growers have been using the traps to fight the menace of orchard raiders.

The thieves complained that thieves have gathered the fruit, which they sell on the bootleg market in and around Los Angeles.

Many orange groves along the Los Angeles-Orange County line in La Habra vicinity especially, are victimized by those seeking to steal avocados, the farm bureau reported.

GAS HARMONICA IS DISPLAYED AT FAIR

Chicago, Illinois, Aug. 6—A "chemical harmonica," twin gas flames in glass sounding bells flanked by rotating mirrors has been added to the physical exhibits of the century of Progress exposition.

The sounding bell are arranged as organ pipes with a metal stop at the bottom opening to permit the entrance of air which causes vibrations, giving forth the tune.

Pitch is controlled by the length of the bell. The vibrations are visible only through the use of mirrors.

Questions and Answers is patient. It calmly answers the question: "Is a rat a grown mouse?"
