GANG OF BLACKMAILERS CAUGHT IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Eight members of an alleged blackmail gang, charged with using the beauty of their women members and the fascinating powers of their male confederates to mulct wealthy men and women out of more than $250,000, are in custody of the federal authorities today and will be taken to Philadelphia for trial.

The band, including five men and three women, were arrested shortly before midnight Saturday night in a raid by department of justice officials on a fashionable south side apartment hotel.

They are accused of fleecing men and women of social prominence in Chicago, Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia through organized efforts.

Their scheme, according to Hinton C. Clabaugh, of the Department of Justice, was to compromise their victims and then blackmail them. Impersonation of Department of Justice officials is another charge against the men.

The men are said to have used the charms of their women confederates to win attentions from rich men, and then to have threatened their victims with prosecution under the Mann Act.

Those arrested gave the names of Henry Russell, Edward Donahue, Helen Evers, Mrs. Frances Allen, Mrs. Edward Donahue, James Christian, Frank Crocker and George Bland.

George Irwin, the alleged director of the group, is still at large.

between the Zam-Buk method of healing and that of ordinary ointments. That is why Zam-Buk cures when other ointments fail, and why Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Mr. A. Josey, of Spry Harbor, N.S., writes: "For three years I suffered with eczema on my hands. The burning and irritation were so intense that I could not sleep at nights. I tried numerous remedies, but nothing gave me relief until I used Zam-Buk. This herbal balm, however, soon ended the burning and irritation, and before long my hands were completely cured. I shall never be without Zam-Buk again—it is certainly a wonderful ointment."

Zam-Buk is also best for ringworm, old sores, boils, pimples, ulcers, abscesses, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

aster was found floating off the pier at St. Romuald, a mile from the bridge site. It was that of Cyril Bernier, a Levis, who was last seen jumping from the south shore cantilever arm when the centre span crashed down into the river.

The body was mangled and could be identified only by the trousers, which a Levis tailor recognized as those he had made for Bernier some time ago.

The coroner's inquest will be opened Tuesday morning at Marcoux morgue, it is the intention of the Attorney General to go into the matter deeply and all the engineers who had anything to do with the plans of the erection and lifting of the centre span will be examined.

Latest Style Creations

Small hats greatly in evidence in new color blends, are shown in attractive array for the tailored suit, conspicuous among them being the Beretta and Jockey hat.
