WOMAN'S COLUMN

FRIED CAULIFLOWER.

Soak the vegetables, head down in cold salted water, separate the flowerets and boil 10 minutes, drain until dry on a cloth. Dip first in one egg, beaten with one-half cup milk seasoned with salt and pepper then in finely ground bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat until brown.

PREPARED WITH PEACHES.

Peaches, perhaps more than any other canned fruit, lend themselves to dainty desserts in winter. Peach tarts made of drained canned peaches piled in a rich baked crust and heaped with whipped cream are one delicacy which cannot be prepared from the plain fruit. Peach custards of various sorts made of canned peaches covered with boiled custard and macaroon crumbs and meringues are delicious too. Half a canned peach in a tart of individual size with whipped cream or a whole canned peach served in a cooked meringue shell with vanilla ice cream also makes a tempting dessert.

Peaches that are canned for the purpose of making winter desserts should, of course, be thoroughly ripe and perfectly fresh and quite the best peaches that are procurable. Smaller peaches can be reserved for marmalade or some other peach preserve.

Sweet Peach Pickles.

White peaches are the best for pickling since they keep their shape better than yellow peaches. Peel carefully and weigh. Allow to each four pounds of fruit two pounds of sugar, one cupful of vinegar and one cupful of water, and a tablespoonful each of mace, cloves and a half ounce of cinnamon. Tie the spices in muslin bags. After the spices have boiled in the vinegar for fifteen minutes remove bags and put in the fruit. Simmer for fifteen minutes or until tender, then remove and pack carefully into jars. Boil the syrup until thick and pour over the peaches.

Peach Butter.

Wash the peaches and remove the fuzz, but do not peel them. Place them in a granite kettle with a little water and stew them until they are very tender, then run them through a colander to remove the seeds and skins. Put the pulp into a clean preserving kettle and sweeten it to taste. Boil it until it is very thick and of a rich color. During this process constant and vigorous stirring is necessary to prevent burning. While the butter is still hot seal it in jars.

STEAMER SUNK WITH AMERICANS ON BOARD

New York, Sept. 18.—A torpedo sank the British ship Kelvin, carrying 28 Americans, according to G. W. Dillard of Richmond, Va., one of the Americans who arrived here today on the Cunard liner Tuscania.

Despatches from England left in doubt whether the Kelvin, bound from Newport News, Va., to Glasgow, was torpedoed or sunk by a mine on Sept. 2nd.

WEAK, NERVOUS CHILDREN QUICKLY GAIN STRENGTH UNDER FOLLOWING PLAN

Nervousness, just like weakness, is a family predisposition. We inherit tendencies to disease just as we inherit physical resemblances. The strain of study, social duties, work at home—these all tend to make nervous troubles among children. No wonder that St. Vitus dance, epilepsy and constant headaches have become alarmingly common. Pale, nervous, listless young people are met everywhere.

It is nothing short of criminal for parents to neglect signs of weakness in their children. By ignoring the slightest symptom of nervous or mental strain, you may condemn your child to life-long invalidism. If any member of your family complains of headaches, fear of going into dark places, give them that wonderful tonic, "Ferrozone." Strength of body and mind, hardy nerves, ability to study with comfort, all the attributes of health quickly follow the use of Ferrozone. It establishes strength, color, endurance, vim—does this by filling the whole system with nourishment and tissue-forming materials.

It's because we know the enormous good that Ferrozone will do, because we are sure every child and even the grown folks, will be permanently benefited, that we urge you to give it a trial. All dealers sell Ferrozone in 50c. boxes, six for $2.50, or direct by mail from The Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Gold is said to be so malleable that it can be beaten as thin as the ham in a railway sandwich.
