

SPRING IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

A Tonic Medicine is a Necessity at This Season.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all year round tonic, blood builder and nerve restorer. But they are especially valuable in the spring, when the system is loaded with impurities as a result of the indoor life of the winter months. There is no other season when the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching, and every dose of these Pills helps to make new, rich, red blood. In the spring one feels weak and tired—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give strength. In the spring the appetite is often poor—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the stomach and aid weak digestion. It is in the spring that poisons in the blood find an outlet in disfiguring pimples, eruptions and boils—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speedily clear the skin because they go to the root of the trouble in the blood. In the spring anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, erysipelas and many other troubles are most persistent because of poor, weak blood, and it is at this time when all nature takes on new life that the blood most seriously needs attention. Some people dose themselves with purgatives at this season, but these only further weaken themselves. A purgative merely gallops through the system, emptying the bowels, but it does not cure anything. On the other hand, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood, which reaches every nerve and organ in the body, bringing new strength, new health and vigor to weak, easily tired men, women and children. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills this spring—they will not disappoint you. You can get these health renewing Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LORIMER TRIAL FOR ALLEGED BANK WRECKING BEGINS

Chicago, March 17.—William Lorimer, whose seat in the United States Senate was declared vacant on the ground that it was the result of a political crime, today listened to a recital of his alleged financial misdoings.

The recital was by Wm. H. Holly, Assistant State's Attorney, who told a jury in Judge Dever's branch of the Criminal Court that the defendant was charged with conspiracy and embezzlement in connection with the failure of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank in Chicago two years ago.

Mr. Lorimer remained imperturbable throughout the denunciation. He appeared little changed since the days when Illinois called him the "Blonde Boss" and a Legislature, alleged to have been corrupted, sent him to the upper house at Washington.

Mr. Holly said that testimony which was not adduced at the trial of C. B. Munday, senior vice-president of the bank, who was convicted, would be introduced. Mr. Lorimer's defence will be based on the contention that although he was president of the institution he entrusted the business to Mr. Munday and was himself absent much of the time.

Mr. Holly said that two months after the formation of the bank Alderman Michael Kenna, widely known as "Hinky Dink," political partner of Alderman "Bathhouse" John Coghlan, was appealed to to do his banking with

MUTT AND JEFF IN FLANDERS

(Philadelphia Bulletin.)
The following letter, received by Bud Fisher, creator of Mutt and Jeff, is self-explanatory:

Flanders, Feb. 7, 1916.
Dear Bud,—We have just had an indignation meeting and I have been commanded upon pain of death to dedicate to you a few words of appreciation from some of the Canadian boys in Flanders. Every Canadian mail brings a budget of your Mutt and Jeff. It would do your heart good to see the fellows round the table, six deep, all clamoring to know "what in hell those two ginks are up to now."

Much as we enjoy their ludicrous antics in the English, French and German armies, we can never be quite happy till we see them wearing the Canadian uniform.

Don't you think Jeff would look well repairing barbed wire out in No Man's Land? Then there is the famous story of the westerner who when "called down" by his officer for poking his head over the parapet instead of using a periscope, remarked: "Tain't no use, sir, they've broke three of them there periscopes on me already this morning."

A youthful officer had partaken rather freely of the rum ration and while doing his rounds about 2 a. m. happened upon a dugout in which four fellows were sleeping. He promptly woke them up and the following conversation ensued:

Officer—Smith, what would you do in case of a gas attack?

Private Smith—I'd sound the gas-alert signal, sir.

Officer—Good, very good. Now, where is the signal horn kept?

Private Smith—Search me.

These yarns would be recognized by nearly everybody in our brigade.

If you should decide to put the two redoubtable into the Canadian forces for heaven's sake mess up their uniforms a bit. A few buttons less than the required number or a missing puttee and above all plenty of mud, would greatly heighten the effect.

The fellows in my company send you their very best wishes and heartiest thanks for many a damn good laugh. Yours very cheerfully, Saml. Mowat.

the Lorimer-Munday house.

Secrecy an Inducement.

The appeal was based largely, Mr. Holly said, on the statement that the bank was not a member of the Clearing House Association and that consequently the financial affairs of its customers were secret.

Mr. Lorimer started the La Salle street National Bank in 1910 when he was in the United States Senate.

"We shall contend," Mr. Holly said, "that Mr. Lorimer was in a position to influence the National Bank examiner. There was a large amount of bad paper in the bank. The owners were political friends of the then Senator. Bank officials made no effort to get rid of this paper, but instead the bank changed its charter from the national to the state form and became the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank."

Mr. Holly said that the first act of conspiracy was committed in making this transformation. He said that Mr. Lorimer and associates, although without that amount of money to deposit, gave notes for an aggregate of $1,250,000 to the La Salle bank. In return Mr. Lorimer received a cashier's check for $1,250,000, which he deposited with the Central Trust Company, and the latter sent that much currency to the new State bank.

Answer—(1) Nothing has been deducted from the Trust funds for expenses of the Prudential Trust Company's officials and lawyers; (2) none.

When Baby is Ill

When baby is ill no other medicine will so quickly relieve him as will Baby's Own Tablets. They go right to the root of most childhood ailments—those derangements of the stomach and bowels, which cause difficult teething, colds, constipation, vomiting and simple fevers. They cleanse the bowels and sweeten the stomach and drive out all cause of illness. Concerning them, Mrs. Wm. Evers, Gilks, N.B., says:—"We always keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house as we have found them an excellent medicine for little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
