

OFFICIAL REPORT TELLS OF GOOD WORK BY CANADIANS

London, Nov. 25.—The following official communication has been received from the Canadian War Records Office in France:

The night of November 20-21 was relatively quiet along that portion of the Somme-Ancre front, which is held by our Canadian troops. The new line, which we have occupied as the result of our firm advance on the 18th, is a strong one. Our pioneers are busy now strengthening it still further and extending the communication trenches.

Last night an officer of our support was moving up on the new trenches when he was surprised to meet a party of six Germans, one of them an officer, who had apparently lost their way. He demanded their surrender. They obeyed promptly and he led them all to the rear.

A splendid example of the heroism of our observation officers has just come to hand. During the battle of the 18th it became necessary to secure a certain piece of vital information as to matters beyond our front.

Three of the F. O. O.'s of the second Artillery division from three separate points were sent forward through the enemy barbed wire to procure this information. It was an undertaking of supreme peril. One of them, Lieut. Alan Oliver, was killed in the attempt. Another officer succeeded and got back with the information, and the third, while yet some way behind the most advanced section of our attack, was severely wounded and fell into a shell hole.

As he dragged himself out and started to crawl back, he found himself directly in front of a German machine gun which had emerged from some hiding place and was about to open fire upon the rear of our lines.

He rolled into another shell hole and the fire went over him. He crept off to one side, worked his way into the nearest battery and in spite of his desperate condition was able to locate the machine gun so exactly that it was speedily destroyed with all its crew.

ROLL OF HONOR

Several thousand officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company enlisted for active military duty with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, and the majority of them are now in Europe, bravely battling for Canada and the Empire. As particulars of Army Reservists are not available, these lists of those who have given up their lives for their country or been wounded in action are necessarily incomplete, and do not therefore indicate fully the extent to which the Company's officers and employees have participated in the great struggle.

Tuberculosis Rapidly Increasing Among Children of Belgium and Northern France.

More Food Urgently Needed to Keep up Their Strength

An interview with Mr. W. L. Honnold, American Director of the Belgian Relief Commission, brings to light a new danger threatening the population of the territory occupied by Germany.

Mr. Honnold reports that about 5,000,000 wholly or partially destitute people, who have been dependent on the Commission, generally show diminished vitality. The effects are most apparent among the older children, particularly those in the adolescent stage. Among these there is an alarming increase of tuberculosis, due to the lower power of resistance consequent on an inadequate diet.

To overcome this serious danger, the Commission appeals for extra contributions so that a special meal can be served every day in the schools. Efforts are also being made to provide as far as possible for children outside the schools.

This can only be done—Belgium's children can only be saved—if every one of us who can possibly do so will give something toward the fund. Whatever you can afford, send your subscription weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or

SIR SAM HUGHES TO MAKE A SPEECH

Will Attempt to Vindicate His Administration of the Militia Department.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—General Sir Sam Hughes left tonight for his home in Lindsay. On Tuesday he will go to Toronto and thence to Niagara Falls, where he will start on a motor trip to the southern States via Washington. He will visit the battlefield of Gettysburg and incidentally see some of the United States army officers who are interested in Canada's war methods and achievements.

Sir Sam will return to Ottawa in about ten days. After that he will probably make, at a public meeting now being arranged, his first public statement since his retirement from the government. He will vindicate his administration and will, it is expected, make some decidedly interesting comments on the causes of his row with Premier Borden and other members of the cabinet.

There is a marked feeling of trepidation in cabinet circles here as to what Sir Sam is going to do in the political arena. It is recognized that he has much "inside information" which, if let loose, will do serious damage to the reputations of certain cabinet ministers. There is also considerable government speculation as to the meaning of Sir Sam's trip to Quebec last week and his two hour conference with Sir Lomer Gouin.

Sir Sam himself is cheerfully biding his time for putting his case fully before the public. When parliament meets he promises some lively times.

To Have State Owned S. S. Line

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—A state owned line of steamships is to be operated between Atlantic and Pacific ports of Canada by way of the Panama Canal.

The official announcement was made this morning by Hon. Dr. Reid, Minister of Customs.

Contracts have been authorized for the construction of two vessels for this trade, and tenders will be called for by the Railway Department.

A WIDELY POPULAR AUTHOR

George Barr McCutcheon Has Written Many Successes Since His Big Maiden Effort.

Few authors have stepped as quickly into great popularity as did George Barr McCutcheon, the author of our new serial, "Black Is White," and very few have retained it in such undiminished measure.

A facile writer and a born story teller, McCutcheon wanted to emulate the examples of his brothers John, the celebrated cartoonist, and Ben, an editor, and that of George Ade, intimate friend of the family, but his excessive modesty held him back, and for a time he did not attempt anything. Finally he wrote "Graustark," but underrating

George Barr McCutcheon. his effort he did not try to find a publisher. His brothers, however, and George Ade, instantly recognized the worth of the manuscript, and having induced the author to submit it for publication they had the satisfaction of bringing out of obscurity one of the literary successes of the year.

The successes of the several stories that followed is common knowledge to every lover of good fiction. "Brewster's Millions" is another of his big winners, and "The Hollow of Her Hand" has also met with wide popularity. Today the name of McCutcheon attached to a story is all that is necessary to assure its quality and secure a reading from those who appreciate and enjoy good fiction.

The first instalment of "Black Is White" appeared in the Daily Mail of Wednesday, Nov. 22.

Suffered With Back For Ten Years

Women are the greatest sufferers from weak, lame and aching backs, owing to the continual stooping, bending and lifting necessary to perform their household duties.

The cause of the backache comes from some derangement of the kidneys, for were there not something wrong with the kidneys the back would be strong and well, and without a pain or an ache.

Doan's Kidney Pills will take out all the stitches, twinges and twinges, limber up the stiff back and give perfect relief and comfort to all poor, weak backed, suffering women.

Mrs. Chas. Thibault, Church Point, N. S., writes: "For ten years I suffered with my back and was so weak I could not do my washing or any hard work, just a little around the house. One day a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills, and they helped me so much that after I had taken two boxes I could do my washing and since then I have been in perfect health."

Doan's Pills are the original kidney pills. Do not accept any substitutes put up under similar names. See that you get the oblong grey box, the trade mark a "Maple Leaf."

Price 50c. or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
