OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

FASHION JOTTINGS.

The navy blue velour hat encircled with patches of cubist colored broadcloth or leatheret looms up among the new street hats.

Sailor collars that dip down below the shoulder line adorn many of the dark colored one piece frocks. The collars are broadcloth with irregular patches of blue, wine or purple stitched around the edges.

A large hat in Paisley color silk underfaced with black velvet and trimmed with eye-dazzling woolen yarn embroidery is a "best seller" in the millinery market.

You may have been wearing camisoles and such so long that you've forgotten the corset cover. But it is with us again, the old-fashioned corset cover with polum and its insets of lace and embroidery.

The set-in sleeve is the sleeve for night robes. The kimona sleeve has vanished. The high neck and the high waist line is seen on most of the smartly fashioned nighties and such delicate colors as Nile green, rose, orchid tints and canary yellow in wash satin give charm to the fluffy things you see in the French shops.

HASHED TURNIPS.

Turnips are generally spoiled by over-cooking. The flat white turnip when sliced will cook in 30 minutes. Winter turnips require from 45 to 60 minutes. Here is Uncle Sam's recipe for HASHED TURNIPS:—

Chop boiled turnips. Return to the stewpan, and for a pint and a half of turnips add a teaspoonful salt, one-fourth teaspoonful pepper, a tablespoonful butter, and 4 tablespoonfuls water. Cook over a very hot fire until the turnips have absorbed all the seasonings. Serve at once.

Or the salt, pepper, butter, and a tablespoonful of flour may be added to the hashed turnips; then the stewpan may be placed over the hot fire and shaken frequently to toss up the turnips. When the turnips have been cooking 5 minutes add half a pint of meat stock or milk and cook 10 minutes.

You'll always have nice clean pantry shelves if you go

ORGAN RECITAL AT CHRISTCHURCH CATHEDRAL

The second organ recital of the series in Christchurch Cathedral was given Sunday afternoon to a large number of musical people of the city, who were delighted with the following program:

1. Cantilene in B minor.....Reed
2. Toccato and fugue in D minor.....Bach
3. Soprano Solo—Air, "With Verdure Clad".....Haydn
Mrs. Carer.
4. Recessional.....R. de Koven
5. "O Lovely Peace".....Handel
Mrs. Carer, soprano; Miss Vanwar, contralto.
6. March.....Handel
7. Finale.....J. Lemmens

The rendition of Mrs. Carer's solo, No. 3 on the programme, was sung with great expression and volume of tone. The fifth number, the duet by Mrs. Carer and Miss Vanwar, was thoroughly enjoyed by all present, their voices blending beautifully together. Miss Vanwar is one of Fredericton's leading contraltos.

ELECTED STATE SENATORS.

Mr. Edwin T. McKnight, of Boston, a native of Havelock, Kings county, was returned in the recent elections to the State Senate for Middlesex district, as the Republican candidate.

Mr. McKnight taught school at Sussex Corner as a young man. Admitted to the bar of Massachusetts, he rapidly won his way to the front, and is now regarded as the big financial lawyer of his state.

Mr. McKnight is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick and of Harvard Law School. He was at one time principal of the Charlotte Street School in this city.

POSITION FOR JOE PAGE.

It is rumored today that in view of the conditions existing in the Montreal City Baseball League, as shown by the inability to secure anyone willing to be president, a general scheme or reorganization is on foot in the course of the carrying out of which the presidency is to be offered to Joe Page.

Mr. Page is in the employ of the C. P. R., and was interested in the N. B. and Maine League. He has played in Fredericton.
