LONG, TALL GAL

The camera's latest glimpse of Irene Beasley shows the "long, tall gal from Dixie" with a new and attractive coif. She's heard currently over the WABC-Columbia, network on her own and various other sustaining programs.

Avoirdupois Spoils Ed's Charity Urge

Smiling Ed McConnell, lovable radio character whose homely philosophies, songs and melodic reveries at the piano are now being heard over WLW every Wednesday evening at 8:45 o'clock, admits being in a serious quandary. Ed has twelve perfectly good suits of clothes that he can't even give away.

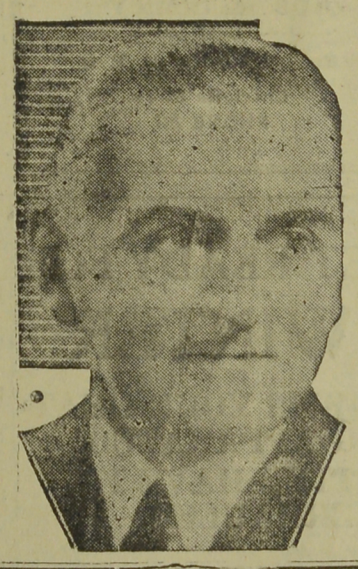

There's the story....After doing a bit of quiet reducing during the summer and fall months, McConnell suddenly discovered—rather his wife did—that his suits no longer fit him. Aha, thought Smiling Ed after replenishing his wardrobe with suits of proper size, these old clothes are just the thing for twleve unlucky depression victims.

A canvass of Cincinnati' charitable organizations, however disclosed not a single taker. Plenty men were found needing clothes but it developed none could wear Mac's suits because of their size. It seems that before Ed—who stands six-foot-two—reduced by a paltry seventy-five pounds he weighed a neat three hundred.

And so McConnell's twelve suits still hang in his wardrobe awaiting the coming of a man who wears a size fifty two

Author of 'Magic Voice'

Augustus Barratt erstwhile Scotch composer and playwright, makes his debut as a radio script writer with the production of "The Magic Voice", heard each Tuesday and Saturday at 8:15 P.

M., E.S.T., over WABC and the Columbia network, in which he also takes a prominent role. Besides being a writer and composer, Barratt has also functioned as director, producer and orchestral director of legitimate stage productions.

Compinsky Trio To Be Heard Each Sunday Over Columbia

The Compinsky Trio, noted family group of two brothers, Manuel, violinist and Alex, 'cellist and and a sister, Sara, pianist, will be heard in weekly recitals of chamber music each Sunday, from 10:30 to 11:00 P. M., E. S.T. over WABC and a national-wide of the Columbia Broadcasting System. Inaugurated two weeks ago, the series will extend into February.

Natives of Russia, the Compinskys began their musical studies at the ages of four, five and six respectively under the tutelage of their father. Two years later they began the chamber muisc recitals which have formed the main stay of their careers ever since. The elder brother, Manuel, studied with Leopold Auer and Emile Sauret, and upon the latter's death, succeeded to his position as Professor of senior violin at Trinity College, London. Alex was a pupil of Felix Salmond; Sara, a protege of Benno Schonberger.

The Trio, which now gives annual recitals at Carnegie and Town Hall, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Washington and Cincinnati, has been honored by performing before King George, Queen Mary and other members of the Royal Family of England. Experienced in radio, the Compinskys finished a 1,700 mile concert tour of the leading stations of the British Broadcasting Company before coming to this country six years ago.

Sunday's program will comprise Smetana's Trio in G minor, Opus 15 and the Scherzo from Mendelssohn's Trio in C minor, Opus 66.

MADAME QUEEN VERY ELUSIVE

(Chicago News)

Madame Queen is a most elusive "charmer"....Although she was in the studio twice one week and was heard on the air, no one found out "who" or "which" she was....Page boys have been on the alert, watching at the several entrances to the studio in the NBC headquarters in Chicago, but they all swear that no woman entered or left....

It is still a mystery and Amos 'n' Andy won't help them out.... The old rule still holds....No one is allowed to see the "boys" broadcast....Speculation is rife as to which one of the two does the "madame"....Bill Hay confesses he's at a loss and the studio engineer is in the same boat....Gosden and Correll just look wise.

Solomon is quoted as saying: "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." A profound truth. All we know of tomorrow is the probability that we won't do the things put off until then.

Was So Short of Breath Could Not Lie Down to Sleep

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. P. J. Chernoff, Shoreacres, B.C., writes:—"I had been so troubled with shortness of breath I could not lie down to sleep.

I couldn't do any hard work, or climb the stairs, and had nervous and smothering feelings, and became very weak.

I tried all kinds of medicine, but could get no relief until after I had taken three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and since then I have felt better in every way."

For sale at all drug and general stores; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

For the Women

TWINKLE, TWINKLE

Stars will literally twinkle on many of the new clothes and brighten many of the evening coiffres this winter.

Little polished metal stars and stars studded with jewels are among the newest motifs in jewelry to be shown among advance winter fashons.

They appear as brooches, buckles, shoulder pins and as little ornaments in complicated new coiffures.

Often they glitter against a background of blue. In a recent fashion showing they were set in a line across the front of a high-necked sweater; a leather belt worn with a lace dinner gown was studded with some made of turquoise; five stars were worn by a woman with gray hair to mark the curves of the waves about the face.

VIOLET VEILS

Those veils which merely whisked across the nose and one eye are destined to become more violent in pattern and larger in dimensions. In Hollywood the veil has begun to cover the face to the chin line and to spread flatly across the whole countenance, with considerable fullness to the sides and back.

A TWO-TIMER

At last, after all these years of moving change purses and vanities from one bag to another, here comes a double duty bag. Its reversible. It's like a big folder....turn one side out and the bag is black suede....turn the other side out and it is black velvet. Give the shop ten days' notice and you can get one to order in two colors, to match two different costumes. Black and wine red, for example, would be nice. You might even have one in black and brown. The side that isn't turned out doesn't really show at all. And besides all that, they are grand, roomy bags.

APPLE SAUCE NUT CAKE

1-2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
1 1-2 cups apple sauce
1 egg or yolks or 2 eggs
2 1-2 cups cake flour
3-4 cup each chopped raisins and chopped nuts
1-3 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon each cloves and cinnamon
1-4 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda dissolved in
1 tablespoon warm water

Cream butter, add sugar gradually. Add well beaten egg. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, spices; add raisins and nuts. Dissolve soda in warm water; add to apple sauce and gradually add to shortening mixture alternately with dry ingredients. Bake in a greased fruit cake pan, 8x8 inches in an oven 30 to 350 degrees F., for one hour.

PORK CAKE

1-2 pound salt pork, finely ground
1 cup boiling water
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup light corn syrup
1-2 teaspoon soda
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1-2 teaspoon each cloves and nutmeg
3 cups flour
1 pound raisins
1 cup each nutmeats and currants
1-2 cup citron thinly sliced.

Pour the boiling water over the pork. When cool add sugar. Add the slightly beaten eggs and beat well. Sift soda, baking powder and spices with two cups of the flour and dredge the raisins and nut meats with the remaining cup flour. Add syrup and the flour mixture. Beat well. Pour into oiled and paper lined fruit cake pan and bake at .300 to .325 degrees F., for about one and one half hours. Pork cake will keep indefinitely in a cool, well ventilated cake box.

Men over 5 years old are the best automobile drivers says a magazine. By that time they have learned that it is safer to keep only one head on their shoulders at a time.

There's nothing tames a radical like the realization that he will catch thunder if it doesn't work.
