

GOVT. TO MEET HERE THIS WEEK PREMIER HOME

Cabinet Will Discuss Matters re Opening of Legislature — Premier
Pleased With Ottawa Conference.

Premier C. D. Richards, who returned today at noon from the Dominion-Provincial conference at Ottawa, announced that the Provincial Cabinet will hold a meeting here this week, the date not yet decided. It is understood that matters regarding the opening of the New Brunswick Legislature on February 23rd, as well as problems spotlighted at the Ottawa conference, will be dealt with.

Asked today regarding the rumored caucus of the government party previous to the opening of the legislature, Premier Richards intimated that so far it had not been under consideration. The premier's expected promotion to the Bench and reported changes in the political field makes a caucus seem imperative. Added to this are the recent vacancies caused by the death of two New Brunswick senators. This will tend to complicate the political scene.

“Of considerable value to all the provinces,” was the statement of Premier Richards on his return today from Ottawa and speaking of the success of the Ottawa conference of all the provinces.

“What was discussed,” he said, “concerned all the provinces alike. There were no specific matters concerning merely the individual provinces. The problems dealt with were of importance to all the provinces as a whole.” The matters discussed chiefly were unemployment, unemployment insurance, methods of taxation, and financial questions, the Premier said.

The government leader was not accompanied by his cabinet companions, who also attended the sessions at Ottawa. Hon. D. Stewart, Minister of Public Works, Hon. W. H. Harrison, Hon. Mr. Leger and Hon. Mr. Tilley all returned to their homes last week.

CH. AFFAIRS

An Organ Recital
A pleasing organ recital was put on in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at four o'clock on Sunday under the direction of the organist, Prof. H. W. Sparrow. Many attended, and a silver collection was taken.

Special Services
Rev. George Telford preached both services at St. Paul's United church on Sunday, which were broadcast over station CFNB. The subject of the morning sermon was “The Seventh Commandment,” handed well by the speaker. In the evening, Rev. Mr. Telford spoke on “The Terror of the Lord.” Mrs. Harold Walker and Sgt. James sang the solo parts at both morning and evening anthems of the choir.

Will Help Merchants
The holding of a state ball in connection with the opening of the N. B. Legislature by his Honor Lieut.-Governor Hugh H. McLean, should be a boom to local merchants. The merchants will benefit by the trade given them as on occasion of this sort invariably brings demand for dress supplies. Besides this the capital will for one day have a large throng of visitors from all parts of the province.

Died at North Lake
The death of Margaret, wife of ex-Coun. Thomas Wetmore, former preventive officer, occurred at her home at North Lake, recently, following a brief illness. Mrs. Wetmore, who was 79 years of age, is survived by her husband, one son, Arthur, North Lake; three sisters, Mrs. Annie Hall, who has been with her during her illness, and Mrs. Elizabeth Bustard, and Mrs. Alice Bustard, Monument Settlement; four brothers, William and Charles Boone, North Lake, and George and Harve Boone, Forest City, N. B. She was a lady of kindly disposition, an ideal wife and mother and will be greatly missed in the community. Rev. A. Ramsay officiated at the funeral, which was largely attended.

THREE MEN IN COURT FOR M'ADAMBREAKS

Two Plead Guilty of Making Three Breaks;
Other Pleaded Not Guilty—Sentences On Wednesday.

Three young men were brought in from McAdam yesterday and appeared before magistrate Limerick this morning in connection with three “breaks” that have occurred in and about that vicinity during the last month. Two of them, Burton Folland and Allison Murphy, pleaded guilty to three separate charges of breaking and entering and stealing. Lester Murphy charged on two accounts of the same nature, pleaded not guilty to both of them.

Sentences will be given to Folland and Allison Murphy on Wednesday and Lester Murphy will be tried for the offences charged. All three were arrested as a result of persistent enquiries made by Chief of Police G. W. Estey of McAdam and R.C.M.P. Constable Boyce of the McAdam detachment. R. C. M. P. detective-constable Young brought the three men in under arrested and laid information against them this morning.

Couldn't get Work

When asked by the magistrate why they committed the crimes, the boys replied that they had tried to get work in McAdam and no one would give it to them. They then resorted to stealing other people's goods. The magistrate informed them that they had far better have gone to the county relief committee instead of resorting to such measures.

In addressing Lester Murphy, who pleaded not guilty to the two charges, the magistrate said that if he had stayed outside the building while his two companions did the actual breaking and stealing he was just as guilty as the other two and if he was pleading not guilty for that reason he was not in the right. The magistrate warned him, however, not to say anything and he would be given a trial on Wednesday.

HEARD HIS GREAT GRANDFATHER IN RADIO DRAMA

W. H. Robinson Listened to Episode in the Life of Benedict Arnold and
Col. Beverly Robinson, Broadcast Last Night.

W. H. Robinson, accountant for the Ross Drug Company, had the unique experience of listening last evening to his great grandfather, Col. Beverly Robinson, speak over the radio in the way of reincarnation. The broadcast was by a New York station and depicted an historically accurate episode in the hectic career of Major General Benedict Arnold, great traitor of the revolutionary war, who afterwards for several years was a resident of this city. Col. Robinson commanded the Loyal American Regiment during the war and at its close was deported with his family from the United States. He settled at Nashwaaksis, where the dwelling which he erected still stands. Col. Robinson became a member of the Governor's Council, but did not live long to enjoy the honor. He was one of the outstanding figures on the side of the British during the revolutionary war.

The Broadcast

In last night's broadcast Major General Clinton commander of the British forces, and Col. Robinson were heard in earnest conversation and Benedict Arnold was their theme. Col. Robinson intimated that he had word to the effect that Arnold was about to throw in his lot with the British. In another scene Arnold was heard telling a friend that he had applied for the position of commandant at West Point, which he ultimately secured. While at West Point he issued a pass to Major Andre, granting him permission to travel through the American lines. Andre in disguise was brought ashore in a boat from the British ship Vulture, and adopted the alias of John Anderson. He was captured and complete plans of West Point was found in his boot. Arnold received the news while at breakfast and immediately mounted his horse and disappeared. He joined
