EXCELLENT SPEECHES

The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne got away to a good start yesterday with speeches by the mover and seconder, J. H. A. L. Fairweather of Kings, and Robert McAllister of Saint John County. They acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner and their well considered efforts were followed with tense interest by the large number of people, who had assembled for the opening ceremony. Both speakers seemed to stray somewhat from the beaten path, which after all is not a bad thing for public men to do at a time like the present. Mr. Fairweather, is one of the youngest men in the House, as well as one of the most useful, and offhand we would say that he has a bright future before him. He is a U. N. B. graduate and a lawyer by profession, and if he exercises the same zeal in serving his clients as he displays as a public servant, success is certain to crown his labors. Mr. Fairweather's speech of yesterday was an outstanding contribution to the debates of the Legislative Assembly, and he well deserved the hearty congratulations bestowed upon him by members of both sides of the House, when adjournment was made. It would be a grand thing for New Brunswick and for Canada if more men of the clean cut type and high ideals of Jack Hall Fairweather, as he was known to friends in his college days, could be prevailed upon to take a chance in public life.

Mr. McAllister is a plain, blunt man and while laying no claim to the gift of eloquence, has been endowed with a good share of sound, common sense. In the course of his remarks yesterday he made a reference to a social matter which is deserving of more than a passing notice. He complained of the laxity of our marriage laws, pointing out that it was as easy to procure a license to marry as it is a game license. This is undoubtedly a fact and it should not be so. Mr. McAllister is right when he says that imbeciles and morons should not be allowed to marry and propagate their kind and thus provide inmates for the Provincial Hospital and Boys' Industrial Home. It is altogether too easy now to obtain a marriage license and often it is done by people under legal age and without the knowledge of their parents. Why, near the town of Amherst only a few days ago a young couple pledged their troth at the marriage altar and within twenty-four hours after the ceremony had been performed the bridegroom was arrested on a charge of murder. The unfortunate bride belongs to New Brunswick and it is said that the ceremony was performed in this province. The marriage laws should be so tightened up that such a union would be impossible in the future. The member for St. John County rendered a good service by bringing this matter to the notice of the Legislature.

Mr. Dysart, the Opposition Leader moved the adjournment of the debate which will be resumed on Tuesday afternoon. He will be followed by Premier Richards and the two leaders can be counted on to say all there is to be said. There is reason to believe that that motion now before the House will be quickly disposed of, so that the real business for which the session has been called, can be taken up. It is not believed that the session will last more than five weeks and if that is so it will be one of the shortest on record.

A despatch from Miami states that attorneys for Zangara, who shot and wounded five people are moving to procure for him a new trial. Should insects. Mayor Cermak of Chicago, one of the victims of the shooting, succumb to his wounds as appears to be likely, Zangara will get a new trial and probably a trip to the electric chair.

The reciprocity debate in Parliament and the speeches favoring the proposal by Premier Bennett, R. B. Hanson, M.P., and others, seems to have started something in the United States. The Americans as the result of crazy tariff enactments have lost the bulk of their once profitable trade with Canada and would much like to get it back. The agreements made at the Ottawa conference last year have caused them loss of sleep, and they are now apparently willing to talk business. They will find Premier Bennett ready to deal with them, but he will not be a party to any jug-handled bargain. A trade agreement which would place lumber on the free list would mean much to New Brunswick.

GAME PICTURES WERE SHOWN IN SAINT JOHN

Saint John, N. B., Feb. 24—At the close of Capitol Theatre's final program at 11 o'clock Wednesday night more than 1,200 Fish and Game Protective Association and male guests crowded the auditorium and watched a program of sporting moving pictures, the like of which had perhaps never before been screened in Canada.

It was the annual get-together of anglers, big game hunters and bird men, made possible by the co-operation of Maritime film agencies; Burton Moore, renowned guide, naturalist and movie man; Motion Picture Bureau of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, and Capitol Theatre, which during past tourist seasons had been permitted to use the New Brunswick game pictures to delight visiting Americans patrons.

SPANIARD WRITES ABOUT 'CACOTOLGIA'

Salamanca, February 23—Miguel de Unamuno, rector of Salamanca University, whimsical essayist, satirical orator and fiery independent thinker—in short, Spain's George Bernard Shaw—has developed a science of his own.

He calls it "Cacotologia", a name of his own coinage, and has written a booklet on it.

It consists of folding strips of paper into the likenesses of birds and procure for him a new trial. Should insects.

CONCERNING FUNERAL COSTS

Much has been said and printed everywhere of recent years concerning funeral costs. Well, here is our answer: We have completely reorganized our system of pricing and added a number of new lines of burial caskets. In our showroom each casket bears a price-card showing the entire cost of the funeral when that type of casket is selected. Complete Funerals including Fine Motor Hearse, priced at $80, $75, $100, and upward. We give the same Careful Service regardless of the amount expended. Our equipment is the best, and our service prompt and efficient. Those who investigate, when the service of a funeral director is required, will find our prices much lower than the small country dealers, recently establishing themselves.
